More Cooperation . . .

Committees are not formed to be ignored! We have not found that committees are formed to be handed down orders of the administration, or that they are an assembly of the force of men attempting to ridicule money from the them.

This year, the issue is peculiar because the committees were formed to be handed down orders of the administration, or that they are an assembly of the force of men attempting to ridicule money from the them.

It's Really Very Simple . . .

This Regular gives the students of all of the University of California a chance to express their opinions on various matters. To this end, the Student Council has set aside a special day each week for the students to discuss the various issues. Roguish Resolutions Raise Cain; Revealing Resolvers Do Same

New Year's soon again upon the year, and so our resolutions come to us. Whether the people are always determined to do well in the new year or not, the year will surely be filled with the New Year's resolutions. As a result, the following is a rundown of the New Year's resolutions of some famous people:

Samantha, '50, has decided never to stir his trouble—she plans to spend all her studies interfering with your college education. Donna, '50, remarked that she wasn't going to "grab a mate at State", and said, "Don't let studies interfere with your college education," while her roommate left the room in tears.

Sottile, 'SO, expressed the sentiments of many when she said, "I'm going to get a job, and I'm going to stay at it." And finally, Marie, '51, vowed to "take a vacation every year," and when asked why, she replied, "I want to get away from the hassle of college life."
