Contact Passow For PTEB Jobs

All students interested in securing part-time employment are advised to contact Passow, Director of the Placement Office, immediately. Those who have filed applications will be given jobs.

A social security number is required for each applicant. The number is recorded on the upper left-hand corner of the PTEB Job Application. Students who do not have a number may contact the Placement Office at 62 Shuble Hall to register for a number.

A complete check will be made on every student listed by the office. Passow suggests that all students receiving offers from the Bureau report to the PTEB office immediately to discuss the possibility of employment.

Students with unusual need should contact EW Passow.
