Kiley Sounds Call for Golfers; Even 'Grave-Diggers' Acceptable.

At the urging of third-year student Dave Kiley, the intramural committee has decided to open the season with a golf tournament. The tournament will be held on Saturday, April 5th, at the Albany Country Club.

The tournament will be open to all students, including 'Grave-Diggers', who are usually excluded from such events.

Softball Trophy In Not at Stake

The softball season is about to begin, and with it comes the annual trophy competition. This year, however, the stakes are low.

Women Athletes Start Spring Sports Series

With the warm weather finally arriving, the women's athletic teams are gearing up for a successful spring season. The first event of the series will be the annual track meet.

The headlines of the week included the death of Lenin, General Douglas MacArthur and his landing at Lingayen Gulf, the war in the north of Africa, the sinking of the German battleship "Bismarck," and the recent landing of U.S. troops in Italy. A group of U.S. officers, including General George C. Marshall, have been flown into Rome to prepare especially for the war in Europe.

The College's ivory statue glued its immortality to the College as the Class of '46 and can make of it what you will. This is a priceless addition to the college.

Addenda

When it comes to the news of the week, it seems as though people are interested in anything. They want to know what is happening in the world, what the government is doing, and what the newspapers are saying.
