Musicale To Follow Miss Futterer’s Reading

“THE TWELVE POUND LOOK”

SPECIAL PROGRAM TO FOLLOW

Here is an exception to the old saying that opportunity knocks but once. It has knocked twice already when Miss Futterer read “Quality Street” and “Enoch Arden.” To knock for the third time Friday night of this week when the public will be privileged to hear her in “The Twelve Pound Look.” Everyone has been pleased with the charming way in which she has given her other two readings and there is no doubt that she will be liked and pleasing in her next.

Last Friday night the audience was given a special feature when Miss Whish sang. This week the special feature will be continued, but there will be a longer program this Friday night.

One of the numbers will be vocal selections by Mrs. A. W. Rider.

Many of you have heard comfortably in speak or are acquainted with him. Now is the opportunity to meet the rest of the family. Miss Chapin is also going to sing. This is to aid those among the summer students to themselves and should interest everyone.

The program which is planned at the present writing is as follows:

Miss Mildred Chapin, piano selections.

COMMUNITY CHORUS
Miss Chapin to Sing

Have you formed the singing habit? It is not too late to begin and you will never regret the hours spent at the community chorus. This week Miss Mildred Chapin, a pupil of Mr. Ernest Hesscr, is going to sing. Those who have heard Miss Chapin last summer will be delighted at the opportunity to hear her again. She will sing “Vesti D’Arte” from the Italian opera “La Tosca.”

VISIT THE CAPITOL
Perhaps you recall from your civics books that the capitol building of the Empire State is the most expensive building of its kind in the United States. While you are here in Albany join the party that is going to visit it on Thursday at 2:30 p.m.

The capitol isn’t so far from college and it will be interesting to see the scene and representative chambers and the million-dollar staircase.

A request has been made for a second trip to the capitol.

SATURDAY, July 29
8 a.m.

Trip over the Mohawk Trail.

PROF. RISLEY TO LECTURE

If you are just a bit tired of copy-book heroes and proud pupils who sneak down earlier and gain fame by confessing to it later you will agree with Mr. Dooley when he says, “History is a post-mortem examination. It tells us what men died of.” Come to the auditorium at 12 o’clock, Thursday, and hear Professor Risley’s lecture on “What Men Lived Of.”

AMERICAN AND BRITISH PROGRAM

It is gratifying to note that so many music lovers among the summer students are enjoying the organ recitals which Mr. Candlyn is giving on Wednesdays at five in the St. Paul’s Episcopal Church on Lancaster street below Swan.

THE HUDSON RIVER EXCURSION

Each summer at State there are a great number of hikes, excursions and trips, but there is one excursion that beats them all. That is the all day sail to Kingston Point and return.

The excursion this summer will be held Saturday, August 6. This trip is one of the most popular outings that a person can take. Each season thousands of tourists use the Hudson River Day Line in order to see the Hudson by daylight. Can you imagine anything more pleasing than to all back comfortably in a deck chair on a swiftly moving deck chair with nothing to do but inhale the fresh breezes and enjoy the scenery of the “American Rhine?”

Of course you can’t. So remember the date, August 6. The fare will be so small in comparison to the value of the trip. It will be your last chance this summer to get together. In a few days tickets will be sold. Save yourselves a lifetime of regret by buying one and get ready to come with us August 6.

Dr. G. M. Conwell TO TALK ON EINSTEIN THEORY

“A man in a faded gray raincoat and a flogging fell hat that nearly concealed the gray hair that struggled over his ears stood on the beat of the steamer Rotterdam yesterday, dimly facing a battery of cameras. In one hand he clutched a shiny briar pipe and the other clung to a precious violin. He looked like a song and it was. But beneath his shaggy locks was a scientist mind whose deductions have staggered the oldest intellects of Europe—a mind whose speculative imagination was so vast that its greatest scientific theorems puzzled and appalled the reasoning faculty.”

This is the New York Times’ account of the arrival in this country of Dr. Albert Einstein whose theory of relativity has been so much discussed.

We have the opportunity to hear about this noted scientist and his theory on Tuesday at 4 o’clock in the auditorium.

Dr. George M. Conwell, professor of mathematics, of the State College faculty, who heard Mr. Einstein speak at Princeton, will give a brief talk on the subject. All summer students are urged to attend.

IMMIGRANT EDUCATION CONFERENCES

Conferences for all students taking the courses in immigrant education were held on Thursday, July 14, under Mr. W. C. Smith; Tuesday, July 19, with Mr. R. T. Hull; and Thursday, July 21, with Miss Clara R. Springstead. These meetings were held in Room 250 at 2 p.m.

Further conferences will be held in the same place and at the same time as follows: Tuesday, July 26, Elizabeth Woodward; Thursday, July 28, Morton Streeter; Tuesday, August 2, Charles E. Pitch; Thursday, August 4, Caroline Whipple.

FOUR THINGS

Four things a man must learn to do if he would make his record grown.
1. To think without confusion clearly;
2. To do without fault.
3. To act from honest motives purely;
4. To trust in God and Heaven securely.
—Henry Van Dyke.

THE SPIRIT OF STATE

As State has sought, the spirit of good fellowship in all forms of work and play, so has it sought the same spirit among her religious organizations. The writer hopes that the paper you have read something about them and possibly you may have read between the lines a little about the kindly feeling that exists between them. It makes no difference what church one represents—Catholic, Jewish, or any other kind of Protestant church. It’s all the same with one’s classmates no matter what your religious beliefs are. What you yourself are is what counts. Your friends like you for what you are and for your friendship, good sportsmanship, good nature, etc., but they very seldom stop to think what church you attend. Don’t you think that this spirit is representative of State and of her attitude toward other things?

Among The Faculty

MR. LAMONT F. HODGE

Mr. Lamont F. Hodge is instructor in principles of teaching and classroom organization in educational measurements. Mr. Hodge received his B.'A., and M. A. from Colgate University. For twelve years he was superintendent of schools at Malone, and for the past two years has been superintendent of schools at Van Buren. He was president of the Rural Superintendents Association and has also served on the State Examination Board. Mr. Hodge has published a series of English texts.

DR. J. CAYCE MORRISON

Mr. Morrison of the University of Buffalo and the University of Chicago is a leading figure in educational measurements, is conducting several courses in education.

He was born in Illinois and was educated in his early life in a one-room schoolhouse and in a small high school. He spent three years teaching in a one-room school.

Later he studied and was graduated from the University of Valparaiso and the University of Chicago.

He was at one time principal of a village high school in Indiana, and afterward superintendent of schools in the state. He is now professor of educational measurements at the University of Buffalo.

Mr. Morrison is the author of several educational articles, which are "Superintendents Use of Educational Tests" and "Methods of Improving Class Room Instruction." In the fall his book "The Status of a City School Superintendent" will be published.

FRANKLIN W. BARROWS

Dr. Barrows is instructor in general psychology and history of education in the summer session, secured his training at the State Normal College at Kent, Ohio, where he was graduated in a four-year course. Later he entered Lehigh University, graduating in the class of 1908.

While at the Illinois Normal University, Mr. Barrows was fortunate to have such instructors as Dr. Charles Deuritz, Dr. Charles McMurry and Dr. Frank McElroy. The influence of these men coupled with the later contact with such teachers as Dr. Louis S. Dyer, Dr. Charles Deuritz and Dr. David Starrett has had much to do with the philosophy of life and his views on education.

His major work in Eastern Student Union, Stanford University, California, was education and was especially designed with the view of meeting the needs of education, later in normal school work or administration.

In 1904 Mr. Barrows came to Schenectady as principal of the State Normal College at Kent, Ohio, before coming to State College for summer work.

Y.W.C.A.

One of the biggest and most influential organizations of State is the Y.W.C.A. It's purpose is to promote Christian ideals and activities on the campus and in our college community. Our organization is affiliated with the National Y.W.C.A. and the World's Christian Student Federation.

The first thing that Y.W.C. does in the fall is to help make the freshman feel at home. Shortly after school opens the Y.W.C. girls give the entering class a reception in the auditorium. In the month of December, not long before Christmas, a social is planned, which, whatever it may be, is indeed, held. Usually a large amount of money is made from this.

CONTINUATION CONFERENCE

Commercial teachers and students interested in special problems of continuation schools meet each Tuesday morning in the auditorium for a round-table discussion led by prominent Albany business men and women. Tuesday the conference was led by Alfred Johnson, President of the Y.W.C.A. Some of the interesting things in the life of a college girl interested in Y.W.C.A. Some of the interesting things in the life of a college girl interested in Y.W.C.A.

Wednesday the conference will meet to discuss problems of public utilities training and service.

ENGLISH MEETING

The second of the weekly English meetings was held Tuesday, Dr. Thompson, head of the English department, interpreting readings from Kenneth Graham's collection of short stories, "The Golden Age." Discussion on required reading in high school work followed and different points were brought out. Miss Wilbur's committee's plan was especially interesting.

Next week's discussion will include a list of suggested topics for the meetings of the State Teachers' Association, from the members. Write your ideas to the Y.W.C.A. It's purpose is to promote Christian ideals and activities on the campus and in our college community. Our organization is affiliated with the National Y.W.C.A. and the World's Christian Student Federation.

The Battlefield of Saratoga

On Saturday, July 16, over one hundred of our adventurous students took a train trip to Saratoga Springs, for the annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association.

In spite of the inconvenience caused by the delay of the train one of the crowded cars was not crowded at all, and the train trip, which was expected to be a day trip, was cut short.

On the train the students were treated to a large amount of food, and the name of the place should not appear in the body of the article. On a separate sheet of paper in a sealed envelope enclosed in the manuscript should be a brief resume giving personal and educational background of the contributor.

The Battlefield of Saratoga is the most important battle of the Revolutionary War. It was fought on September 19, 1777, and was a decisive victory for the American forces. The battle was won by Colonel Ethan Allen, with his force of about 1,500 men, who succeeded in capturing the British fort at Saratoga, which had been held by the British for several years.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club of State College was founded in the fall of 1917 for the purpose of preserving to the Episcopalians in State College those principles and doctrines for which the Episcopal Church has stood through the ages. The threefold purpose of the club, that of spirituality, service and sociality,

MEWMA\W TRAIL

You all know of the famous Mohawk Trail, and there are some who have taken the trip over it. For those who would like to go again, the trail is open as before. The trip is delightful, especially for those who have never been to the trail up the Hoosic Mountains. We had a great day. The trail is lovely, and the food was excellent. Students in regular session will not be able to miss anything like the "Saratoga trip."

JOIN THE MOHAWK TRAILERS
Faces as principal and superintendent and, after a few introductory remarks in many schools was clear cut and decisive. At the close of his talk Mr. Johnson answered questions on the subject.

The principals and supervisors will meet again Wednesday evening, July 21. The program has not yet been arranged but will be posted on the main bulletin board. It is hoped that the present interest will be maintained as most helpful meetings are being planned.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

State College would give of her life more fully than she requires. Although not forgetful of the opportunity for service awaiting her students here at home, she would not have them blind to the work to be done in broader fields. These whose purpose it is to fulfill this service are organized under the name of Student Volunteers.

The Student Volunteer Band of State College was organized early in October, 1920, with five members. The officers, for the year were: Miss Eliza, leader; Francis Stilson, secretary, Ruth Kimmey. Open meetings have been held once every month. Some of the interesting speakers at these meetings were: Mr. Alexander Stewart of Union College and Mr. Daniel of Porto Rico.

In May a Volunteer Conference was held at Shillmore School of Arts. A large number of State College students attended in support of the Volunteer band of members of which are: Helen S. '23, Frances Bullock, '22, Mary G. '23, Helen Walker, '22, and Ruth Kimmey, '23.
