PRESTIGE OF COLLEGE IS DETERMINED
LARGELY BY CALIBER OF ADMINISTRATORS

By Elizabeth Pfeiffer

The prestige of a college or a university depends in a great measure on the quality of the students. When the University of the State of New York, through its Board of Regents, established the \"State College News,\" the students of State College are the only members of society that are in the position of \"keeping\" the college. The regular monthly issues of the newspaper are the only means of keeping the public informed of the affairs of State College. As such, the \"State College News,\" and its successor, the \"State College News,\" is an important body of information, and the students of State College must take pride in the fact that it is their college newspaper. The \"State College News,\" is published monthly and is distributed to all members of the faculty, staff, and students of State College. The \"State College News,\" is also available to the public through subscription. The \"State College News,\" is printed on high-quality paper and is distributed in a plastic sleeve. The newspaper is also available in electronic format on the college's website. The \"State College News,\" is an important source of information for the students of State College, and it is an important means of keeping the public informed of the affairs of the college. The students of State College must take pride in the fact that they are members of the college, and they must take pride in the \"State College News,\" as their college newspaper.
A new voters unit of the League of Women Voters has been formed at State College. Miss Jane Perine, legislative secretary of the league, who has spoken here in the interests of the organization, has been appointed a committee to sponsor the unit.

Mrs. E. W. Rider, chairman of the new voters committee of the Allegany county league, and Mrs. Edna K. Huyck, a trustee of the college and a regional director of the League of Women Voters, are assisting in the organization of the unit here.

Dr. A. R. Brubacher, himself a member of the League of Women Voters, has expressed a favorable attitude toward the organization of a new voters group.

Every person in the College will have an opportunity to express an interest or desire to become a member of the new voters unit before the Christmas recess.

Any student or faculty member who believes that voting age is eligible for membership. Interest in citizenship and service in the civic and political affairs of the nation and world are prerequisites.

There are new voters units at St. Paul's university, Columbia university, University of Rochester, St. Lawrence, Nazareth, Hunter women's, Johns college, Vassar college, and New York University. The training school, Oswego and Buffalo, are in the process of raising a students committee at the state convention at the State Normal two weeks ago.

Next year's state convention, at which State College women and delegates will be held in Buffalo. Those who are sponsoring the organization includes Elizabeth Doughty, Harriet Parkhurst, Josephine Newton, Mary Judith Langer, Helen Fitch and Elizabeth MacPherson. Directors are Anne Sterne, Alfreda Newall, Lucy Miles, Josephine Brown and Mildred Haugh, juniors, and Martha Fitch, Jr.

MISS EUNICE A. PERINE, head of the new unit department, is preparing an exhibit of etchings and lithographs in Room 208 this week. Among these etchings are represented the works of Mrs. Caroline Armstrong and Lewin West. A number of etchings and lithographs done by Miss Perine are also shown.

Lewin West is the direct descendant of Benjamin West. Mr. West has illustrated with fifty of his etchings Joseph Chapel’s book, "Vivid Spain," among Miss Perine’s etchings there is one of a New York city scene when President Harding’s death was announced. It shows nine flags at half mast. A representative lithograph at the exhibit has been on the bulletin board in the auditorium this week.
