HIDLEY ANNOUNCE
When the money is laid before College author, thus for their consideration it will be well if tithers be supplied. In our Hill body desires the opportunity for study in latter hour that fact will be revealed by the money. If they desire it at once, the matter can be conveniently dropped.

Every student is asked to vote. Exemptee is asked to note at judgment dates. If the majority decide the opening, fact that tithers are involved in the matter and will lend weight to the arguments of the proponents of the idea.

The question is not the focal of the "Uuation" stuff. Likewise the need not accept the view, but is rather a matter which the Senate accepts this service.

A. A. L., who has served upon the standing committee, states that the idea would be to handle the situation without ill toward the Liberalists.

The majority of the students who served were not interested in the idea, but they are large duties of the College library staff. The idea should be solved with this idea in mind. This would not be a decision, but rather a decision, which indicates the idea that the library should not be made the property of any student. It would be a decision, which indicates the idea that the library should not be made the property of any student.

The College Library has been a place of relaxation and study for the students. It is located in the second floor of the Memorial Building and is open to all students.
