BETTA ZETA ANNOUNCES CAMPAIGN TO RAISE FUNDS

After vacation, Sara Barkley, president of the Gamma Kappa Phi sorority, announced that the sorority's current campaign to raise funds would begin Monday. The sorority's goal is to raise enough money to purchase a new organ for the college chapel. The sorority hopes to raise $500 through this campaign.

NO MORE CENSORS IS AIM OF EDITORS

Brown University Student Heads National College Press Congress

Edward Richards, editor-in-chief of the Brown Daily, announced that Brown University, Providence, R.I., was elected president of the National College Press Congress annual meeting last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

Sherrill Leonard, editor of the Brown Daily (Ohio), was elected vice-president. Frank Hinson, editor of the Newspaper of Oklahoma, was chosen secretary. Louis E. Rye, business manager of the newspaper of Tennessee State University, was elected treasurer.

After lengthy debate the by-laws for the new organization were adopted. The by-laws of the National College Press Congress are to be kept in the office or in the mailbox of the editor, and all notes under a certain line of this plan or suggestions for amendments to it shall be sent to the editor-elect of the newspaper at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

TO PRINT MAGAZINE BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Humor Publication Endorsed By Many Students and Faculty

State College's new humor magazine, to be published before Christmas, is being edited by Miss Flanagan, the dramatic and art association manager.

According to Miss Flanagan, the publication will be out before Christmas. The magazine will contain humorous articles, according to Wallace Strevel, 20, the business manager.

No votes are to be cast on this plan or suggestions for a change in the organization of the magazine shall be considered at any meeting, nor shall any other business be transacted at any meeting. It is therefore recommended that no other business be transacted at any meeting.

After lengthy debate the by-laws for the new organization were adopted. The by-laws of the National College Press Congress are to be kept in the office or in the mailbox of the editor, and all notes under a certain line of this plan or suggestions for amendments to it shall be sent to the editor-elect of the newspaper at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

FREEDOM IN EDUCATION

"Literators have recently come to the conclusion that men of the world must be educated; that the education of their youth must be an educational rather than merely an instructive process. Furthermore they have decided that an education is fully realized only when it has been attained by the individual through the medium of his own mind."

In the American System of Education, this manual too control, tends to obscure the true aim of education, which is the development of the individual mind. This is the true aim of education, and it is this aim that the American system of education is striving to attain.

MISSION TO THE NORTHERN NATION

In my last communication I referred to the efforts being made by the Northern Mission to spread the gospel of freedom and justice to the people of the North. I am happy to say that these efforts are proving to be very successful. The people of the North are responding to the call of freedom and are beginning to take an active part in the struggle for justice.

VILLAGIAN CROCK VENTURES AGAIN, FOWLER TO POPULARIZE DICTIONARY

Mr. Collins is a man of strange enough, in fact, in one or two instances, to strange for belief. But that will not disprove the true mystery story incident. This is the issue of Mr. Collins and his adventures with the story, which is of interest in itself. The author has found his hold on the reader's interest in such stories for years and has the potential for a similar success here.

English teachers may know long enough to make it necessary to become familiar with the dictionary. The author in this volume gives the dictionary its place to the utility of the term. "Modern English Usage" is a valuable supplement to any master's vocabulary. It is a story that is not to be snubbed by the dictionary, insisting an attempt to "smart" at the expense of the language. The author has a slant of the language and his work is a valuable contribution to the field of English study.

WOMEN'S LIBERATION

The "Slate College News" will deem it a favor should "Give Me the News" be made available in the weekly issues of the paper. The "Slate College News" is the official organ of the College, and its pages are filled with information of interest to the students.

Ten Years Ago in State College

From the files of the News for Nov. 21, 1916

"At a meeting of the Men's Athletic Association held on Tuesday, November 14th, President Townsend was addressed in the following manner: The association is the constitution of the institution."

Because of the one-day Thanksgiving vacation the committee in charge of the association is meeting with the idea of performing a service for the students. This is the correct method of handling the situation, and Sophy thought that it would be a fine occasion to "let the ole shift slide.' A million years from now, it will make any difference o million years from now."

"The State College News" will deem it a favor should any student hand in an original essay for the coming year. The theme must be on the "American University" and there will be an award of $50 for the best essay."

President Brumbaugh has been invited to attend the inauguration of John Baldwin Shaw as President of Finland College, November 25th.

The afternoon dances which are held on Thursday evenings and Fridays in the gymnasium are proving to be very popular with the students."

About three hundred of the girls interested in athletics, and a good time, enjoyed a trip to the gym, Friday evening, November 30th.

Morning Song

A word too soon, as you are born—
I'll crush your jaw.

Confess, lest I cannot stampede you, lest I the do the deed,
I'm a million years from now, lust you will have a different world as you are born—
I'll crush your jaw.

CAGE NO. 17

The two birds behind these bars are Melly and Millie. March 17th, they were captured by the authorities. They are being watched during the month, to prove that they will not escape. They are very intelligent birds, and the sight of them is a pleasure to all who see them.

The entertainment consisted of two songs, one by Melly Ford, and another by Evie F. Commissioner, which were presented in the auditorium. There was also a dance by Evie F., and a minstrel dance by Mary Calvin, 27, president of the Sophomore class. The club will give a dinner to her this evening.

Miss Trudy Jones-Benner Alpha rho welcomes Miss Currie Cornish of home economics, in honorary membership.

50 NeWMEMBERs ATTEND CLUB'S PARTY

More than fifty new members attended the party given by the social committee of the social club in the library. The party was attended by many faculty members, and was a great success.
