President of State
Speaks at Dinner

A meeting of the Eastern Branch Alumni Association was held Saturday, November 1. It opened with a dinner in the Cafeteria at 6:20, in charge of Miss Thompson. President Hindsich welcomed the teachers, fifty-five of whom were present. Mr. Van Vlissingen, the principal of the Schenectady High School, spoke on "The True Teacher." Professor Walker spoke on "The Development of the Organization of a Class Who Wish to Work Together for a Definite End."

At the business meeting which followed the officers for the coming year were chosen. Miss coronary, Vice-President; Mrs. Amy, Treasurer; Elizabeth Anderson, Corresponding Secretary; Paul McDonald, Recording Secretary; Miss Mary Hobbs, Librarian.

After the business meeting the alumni adjourned to the auditorium where they were amused by a comedy given by the high school dramatics club. The performers were: Rosaline Green, Isabel Phule, Niles Height, and Edwin Van Kleeck.

STUDENT COMMENT

Certainly, the speech given by Gertrude Ochs, 25, chairman of the Board of Censors, concerning respect for our Alma Mater was given straight to the heart. They, perhaps, had not realized how much they had actually done, when they had failed to wear their buttons or caps. Every freshman has learned to love and respect State College now. Every student wants to bring our Alma Mater in line with other great colleges. What better way to start than by being honorable at all times.

Next year, moreover, is ashamed to be a non-attendant of State College last year when the college, as a body, voted down the honor system. As a student body we declare that this was not the reason for such an action. We voted down the honor system because we did not feel that it could assure the responsibility of such a system, and not because of lack of trust in one another. The action in voting down the system was a non-attendance of the honor system. Furthermore, as other unpleasing little happenings occur time to time, it is needless to those who love State College wonder if it will ever be ready for such a system. We want to feel that traditions are broken through carelessness and misunderstanding, and that such action do not signify a lack of respect for the institution. We want to feel that State College students are dependable at all times and under all circumstances. The Board of Censors are not watching students with the hope of catching them breaking traditions so that they may be punished; they are watching students with fear lest they catch them breaking rules which should be held sacred. All students, then, are urged to move toward an acceptance of an honor system by being honorable at all times, everywhere. This is the only way applicable not only to the breaking of traditions, but to all actions at all times.

TO PLAY TENNIS FINALS

The semi-finals of the State College tennis tournament will be played off in the spring between Molly Trelle, 28, and Margaret Benjamin, 25. The victor in the semi-finals will play whoever wins the Hoyt-Bunts set for Thursday.
Seniors Entertain
At H. E. Supper

The seniors of the Home Economics Department entertained the juniors and the Home Economics faculty at a buffet supper on the evening of Tuesday, October 28. The Home Management House, where the party was held, was attractively decorated for Halloween. At 4:30, when the guests arrived, the juniors, who had been asked to bring their thimbles, set to work hemming napkins which they later found was a happy hemming contest, for which a prize was awarded for the best hemming. Supper was served at six, and after supper, games were played till eight o'clock.

The family in the Home Management House changed Monday morning, November 3. The four members of the senior class who compose the November family with Miss Dillingham are: Ruth Lissney, Marjorie Livingston, Marjorie Christopher, and Dorothy Noone. The family that left on Sunday, November 2, will return second semester for a three weeks stay before graduation.

The Home Economics Section of the New York State Teachers' Association held its meeting in Troy last Thursday and Friday as was announced. It is interesting to note how many of the former graduates of the Home Economics Department at State College were in attendance at these meetings. The list of these alumnae follows: H. Margarette Jones, Bell Windsor, A. Helen Endries, Mildred Haswell, Louise Bealton, A. May Dillingham, Marion Pinkham, Mary A. Quigley, Margaret O'Connell, Geraldine Crouch, Jean Hungerford, V. Esther Gerhin, Dorothy Howe, Jane K. Scholer, Margaret L. Hayes, Margaret K. Saunders, Ethel G. Pratt, Jeannette A. Keller, Agnes M. Forster.

Of the present student body who participated in these meetings, only a general statement can be made. All of the seniors, most of the juniors, and a few sophomores were able to arrange their programs so that they could attend at least one of the meetings.

The Eastern Division of the New York State Home Economics Association formally organized on Friday morning at Troy, Member-Buy at the close of the meeting numbered fifty-four. The election of officers took place at this meeting, and Miss Anna Randolph Keim, of State College, was made president for the coming year.

Miss Emily Whitehouse, of the Bureau of Education, at Washington, D. C., who spoke at the Friday morning meeting of the Home Economics Section of the New York State Teachers' Association, called at State College on Friday afternoon to visit the Home Economics Department.

On Tuesday, October 28, the millinery class of the Home Economics Department had an informal exhibit of their first finished hats. Each girl's had been designed to wear with her winter coat, and the result is very attractive and show a well planned street costume.

Under Miss Steele's direction and advice, Home Economics 18 is giving demonstrations to the Jewish farm women in Nassau. Two groups were given last week and two will be given this week. At the present time, it is the canning of fruits and vegetables, and the making of jelly, in order that they may know how to use the products of their farms. Later, the use of vegetables will be demonstrated. Miss Nathan, who is the social worker employed by the National Council of Jewish Women, is studying the needs of the group and advising the students as to the demonstrations to be given.

Emerson tells how the mass of men worry themselves into nameless graves, while now and then a great, unselfish soul forgets himself into immortality. One of the most inspiring influences in the life of a modern corporation is the selfless work of the scientists in the laboratories, which it provides for their research.

Steinmetz

The spirit of Dr. Steinmetz kept his frail body alive. It clothed him with surpassing power; he tamed the lightning and discharged the first artificial thunderbolt.

Great honors came to him, yet he will be remembered not for what he received, but for what he gave. Humanity will share forever in the profit of his research. This is the reward of the scientist, this is enduring glory.

Counties In New York Well Represented at State, President Brubacher Announces

Upon the completion of the student registration for the college year '24-'25, which has exceeded 1,050 and will undoubtedly reach eleven hundred with the incidental registration of the second semester, President Brubacher has made the following careful geographical survey of the state as represented by the student body.

By class the registration is thus distributed:

It is interesting to discover that every county of the state with the exception of Hamilton County, is represented by one or more students. Albany County with naturally the largest representation is followed in order by Schenectady and Rensselaer, which may be called the Capital District counties. It is also noteworthy that counties as distant as Cattaraugus, Westfield, Cayuga, Wyoming, Wayne, Chautauqua, Schuyler counties, totaling one hundred students. Representation by counties follows:

- Albany, 221; Schenectady, 101; Rensselaer, 73; Utica, 40; Saratoga, 33; Delaware, 35; Columbia, 39; Fulton, 35; Suffern, 24; Uster, 26; Washington, 35; Westfield, 26; Orange, 21; Warren, 22; Delaware, 18; Broome, 17; Chemung, 17; Essex, 13; Franklin, 14; Jefferson, 13; Otsego, 12; Herkimer, 12; Lewis, 12; Cattaraugus, 11; Montgomery, 10; Nassau, 10; Putnam, 9; Steuben, 9; Sullivan, 9; Madison, 9; Monroe, 9; Greene, 8; Niagara, 8; Onondaga, 8; Rensselaer, 8; Kings, 6; Queens, 6; Richmond, 5; Cayuga, 7; Clinton, 7; St. Lawrence, 7; Schoharie, 7; Wayne, 7; Wyoming, 7; Chautauqua, 5; Greene, 5; Livingston, 5; Otsego, 5; Allegany, 3; Orleans, 3; Oneida, 3; Schuyler, 3; Cortland, 2; Erie, 2; Yates, 2; Cotoome, 1; Saratoga, 1; Warren, 1; Hamilton, 0; total, 1,094.

The registration by cities is also interesting. Albany, Schenectady, and Troy may be called the Capitol District cities. It is also noteworthy that cities as distant as Watertown, White Plains, Newburgh, and Binghamton, have sent five or more. The distribution by cities is as follows:

- Albany, 86; Schenectady, 90; Troy, 77; Rensselaer, 18; Kingston, 15; Water- ville, 15; Poughkeepsie, 14; Utica, 14; Cohoes, 12; Johnstown, 12; Saratoga, 12; Glens Falls, 12; Gloversville, 11; Binghamton, 10; Peeskill, 10; Mechanicville, 9; Newburgh, 9; Rome, 7; New York, 7; Watertown, 6; Amsterdam, 5; Hudson, 5; White Plains, 4; Avon, 3; Geneva, 3; Little Falls, 3; Lockport, 3; Oneonta, 3; Plattsburgh, 2; Herkimer, 2; Rochester, 2; Syracuse, 2; Youngs, 2; Bangor, 1; Buffalo, 1; Cortland, 1; Howell, 1; Jamestown, 1; Middletown, 1; Niagara Falls, 1; Oneida, 1; total, 253.

The above total indicates almost an equal distribution between villages and rural communities on one hand and cities on the other with a balance of forty for the latter.

Such a study forcefully demonstrates that State College is in the best sense a state-wide institution both as regards its undergraduates and its alumni, who, it has been ascertained, are at work in every city, village, and rural community of New York.

MISS KEIM HOSTESS

Miss Anna Keim of the Home Economics Department was hostess at a tea given at her home on Saturday afternoon from four to six in honor of Miss Florence Winchell. The members of the staff of the Home Economics Department informally received with the hostess and guest of honor. Miss Steele and Mrs. Frear presided over the tea. Miss Thompson, Miss Fillingham, and Miss Fleming assisted in serving the guests, who numbered more than fifty.
