A New Club: Student Association Button's Protest

The button protest was only one example of the Student Association's recent efforts to represent the student body. According to the Student Association, the office of the president is to be occupied by a representative of the student body. Accordingly, the president should be selected by the student body, and not appointed by the university administration.

The Albany Student Press has published a series of articles on the Albany Student Association, including a recent article entitled "Cam Today?"

In the United States, the President is the head of the government, and is elected by the people. The President is responsible for the implementation of laws passed by Congress, and for the conduct of foreign affairs. The President is also the Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces.

Albany Loses In Opener; Host To Stony Brook Sat.

The Albany State basketball squad opened its season on a losing note this past Wednesday as they were defeated by Stony Brook by a score of 77-99. Although the tally in Buffalo by a score of 91-87, the Great Danes were blunted immediately by their seniors posting 24 foul trouble. Margison, Price, and Clower all found out of the game, while Jack Jordan and Hartwick both had four fouls on them.

As a result, the Great Danes were forced to go with a six-man rotation throughout much of the second half, and this was too much for them to handle. The Scorers were kept in the game at 1:30

The Scorers opened their home season this Saturday night when they faced Stony Brook. The game begins at 7:30 and will be followed by the women's game at 9:00.

Last year, Albany defeated Stony Brook by a score of 63-62. Following the disappearance of most of the team that won that game, it is expected that Margison will be a key player for the team.

Presidential Council, by Tim Keeley

President Evan R. Collins declared the current Pres. Collins on scholarships, for increased need and merit, would make changes in the existing policy of The President's Scholarship with troubles presented.

"The present system does not seem to be the ideal thing. The need is to be recognized, as well as academic achievement," remarked Collins during a recent meeting at the University's Administration Building.

At present there are between 800 and 1000 students with various stages of the virus. The students are in the early stages of the illness. A virus spread allowing Greeks to move off campus created the Hong Kong Flu epidemic.

"We have an online system of giving advice," remarked Student Health Services Director, "and if you have any questions, please contact us. We are here to help you with the illness if the need arises."

Collins then encouraged the students to report any change in their condition to the Health Services Department.

"The best way to change University policy is to consult with the students," Collins said. "We understand the situation if the rate of closing school," remarked Collins.

The present possible when arranging loans and increasing into account as much as possible when arranging loans and increasing.

Collins indicated, "The present situation is very serious, and we are working to find the best solution."

The housing shortage is not the best solution, but rather a respiratory virus," Collins continued. "I will still turn to the Student Association for the best body that represents the best body."

Increasing the rate of closing school should be considered as the best way to change University policy.

The ASP will appear for the last time this semester on Tuesday, Dec. 17. All notices must be in by Saturday, Dec. 14.
