Unique summer program offers intensive cultural study

by Dennis Santoro

The upcoming summer in America have the opportunity to study abroad and enrich their own education. The University of Albany's Study Abroad Program offers a wide variety of courses in Europe, the Middle East, and other areas of the world. The program is open to all students, whether they are enrolled at the University of Albany or elsewhere.

The program offers courses in a wide range of subjects, including art, history, literature, and music. Students can choose from courses offered by various universities and colleges, including the University of Albany, Harvard, and Columbia.

Participants in the program will have the opportunity to live and learn in a new cultural setting, interacting with students from around the world. They will also have the chance to explore different cities and countries, gaining a new perspective on the world.

The program is open to all students, regardless of their academic background or level of language proficiency. Students can participate in the program for a variety of reasons, including personal or professional development.

The program offers a unique opportunity for students to study abroad and gain new insights into different cultures and societies. Students who participate in the program will gain a new perspective on the world and develop valuable skills that will be useful throughout their lives.

The program is designed to be a rewarding and enjoyable experience for all participants. Students will have the opportunity to interact with people from different countries and cultures, gain new insights into different societies, and develop valuable skills that will be useful throughout their lives.

Cleveland, Ohio was the scene last week of the largest student conference ever held in America. Fifty-five hundred delegates from all parts of the country gathered at Case Western Reserve University in February to debate the latest course of the Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam. Out of the two days of heated debate came a unified front. It was decided that the week of April 13-18 would be the focus of the country's attention to drive the message home to the American people that the war must be ended immediately from Vietnam. It was also decided that on April 15 massive student strikes around the country would be organized and productive. The first plenary session was scheduled for 7:30 that night. It was decided that the students of the country would be organized to drive the message home to the American people that the war must be ended immediately from Vietnam.

Saturday was the first full work day. Aside from tension that the Young Socialist Alliance tried packing the Steering Committee meeting with their own people the previous night, there were few signs of disarray. At 10 a.m., Jerry Gordon, a Civil Liberties lawyer, addressed the delegates in the Adelbert Gym. He spoke quickly and finally, presenting the issues of the national movement and urging an encouraging example of how it could be done. He said that we can't stand on the fence. The Nhia village to be burned had been known to the villagers for years. They were the ones who had tried to save it. The Vietnamese people had tried to save the village for years. French Club Spends Cultural Day in NY

by Abby Smith

Le Coq Francais is being sponsored by one of the many active foreign language clubs as campus; the French Fraternity and De N.Region. Le Coq Francais helped to make their program interesting an attractive, as their French speaking and entertaining skills were the main attractions.

This club recently sponsored one of the many highlights of the 1969-70 academic year: "A Day of French Culture on the Capitol Mall." The event proved successful and popular, and French was enjoyed by everyone.

Through the French language, the students were able to see a play by France's famous playwright, Jean Anouilh. The play, "The Lark," was performed at the "Doc" Peltier Theater, and was an outstanding success.

After the play, the students enjoyed a variety of French dishes at "Le Coq Francais," a restaurant which is open every day of the week. The French delicacies included cheese, wine, and bread, as well as several other appetizers. The meal was enjoyed by all of the students, and it was a great way to end the day.

The only French club the French students will be able to visit this year will be by joining heads with the French Club and Le Coq Francais. The two clubs will work together to plan and execute events, and the students will have the opportunity to participate in both clubs.

Rex Opens Tonight, 'Orestes' on Feb. 25

Experimental Theatre Friday, Feb. 20, at 8 p.m.

"Rex" opens in the new fold-out theatre on Friday, Feb. 20, at 8 p.m. The program includes four one-act plays: "La Cenicienta," "The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe," "The Idiot," and "The Infernal Machine."

The plays are directed by Eliot Cipas, Edmond Jones, and Peter Maloney, and the production is under the guidance of Director William C. Doscher. The cast includes: Patrick Wee, Paul Kolenik, Laura Ross, Brian Kuenster, and Mark Galleo.

The programme begins with "La Cenicienta," a one-act play written by Beryl Murray and directed by Edmond Jones. It is a retelling of the Cinderella story, with a modern-day twist.

"The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe" follows, directed by Patrick Wee. The play is set on a deserted island, where a young man must survive with only his wits.

"The Idiot" is a one-act play written by Paul Kolenik, directed by Edmond Jones. It is a dark comedy about a man who is left alone to deal with the aftermath of a family tragedy.

Finally, "The Infernal Machine" is a one-act play written by Beryl Murray and directed by Patrick Wee. It is a science fiction story about the race for immortality.

The program is presented by the Experimental Theatre and is sponsored by the University Theatre. It is a two-week run, with performances Thursday through Saturday at 8 p.m., and Sunday at 2 p.m.

In Tight Bowling Race

In a League 1 game last Monday, a couple of the league's outstanding bowlers took the field this week, and the potential for a big upset in the tìm had the potential for a 15 sweep. The University bowlers, however, were unable to form a bar into the top 25. Though Steinbacher is competitive after the game that was great for the team.

Students ask control of our environment

A request for a resolution on the direction of our national campus environment was made at the meeting of the Student Assembly February 18th. The resolution stated that "the campus environment, in its broad sense, is the right of all students to have their educational message streamlined, to have their educational program streamlined, to make them feel part of the university, to make them feel part of the university's goals."

The resolution was presented by Edward H. Fauitui. The resolution was written in consultation with Dr. Long of the Chemistry Department. In addition, the resolution was presented by Edward H.
