State Students Invited To Join Orchestra Group

A concert orchestra is now being formed in Milne High school under the direction of Richard Tweedy, special student in State college. Membership is not limited to pupils in Milne but is open to any interested college students, Tweedy stated today.

Formal application for membership is not necessary. Those interested should report at one of the rehearsal periods with instrument ready to take part. Rehearsal orchestra rehearsals are conducted in room 320, Milne High school, Mondays and Wednesdays at 2:30. There are openings for violins, bass viol, clarinet, and trombone, according to the director.

Collegiate Farmers Prance At Resuscitated State Fair

Credit the following to Saturday’s State Fair: An excellent piece of cooperation among the Young Men’s and Young Women’s Christian associations and the Co-op.

Decorations in such fashion that page hall gymnasium looked like a fair, after a full day’s work on the part of Y.W. and Y.M. committees. Colorful booths featuring everything from all-wool blankets to Derma, a hand lotion concocted by chemists Sturm and Tieszen.

Entertainment starring Marion Miekzic's tap dancing, Lois McIntyre and Bill Sladen in an Apache dance. Hill Jones and Merry-fingers, they had "ants in their pants." Financial success on the bazaar, net loss to the association on the dance, $1.31.

They ought to know—

Many men of the South have been "in tobacco" for years—growing tobacco and curing it—buying it and selling it—until they know tobacco from A to Izzard.

Now folks who have been in tobacco all their lives, folks who grow it, know there is no substitute for mild ripe tobacco.

And down in the South where they grow tobacco and where they ought to know something about it—in most places Chesterfield is the largest-selling cigarette.

Here is the original mascot of the Colby College (Waterville, Me.) rooters.

Right
REVERED BELL. Colby College (Waterville, Me.) students, in the old days before everyone carried watches, were summoned to and from classes by the tolling of this bell cast by Paul Revere in 1824. And to get out of classes, the boys used to steal the clapper (or the bell itself). They even tried to freeze it in a New York wharf, filling it with water and letting it freeze — but it righted itself just as they were leaving it, and they were all soaked with water as well as classes.

CONTINUED STORY. Once the famed Colby bell was shipped collect to Harvard. Harvard students in turn shipped it collect to the University of Virginia, and Virginia students, not to be outdone, addressed it to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria of England. It was standing on a New York wharf about to be loaded on a sailing packet when Colby officials finally located it and returned it to their campus.

Impressive Clothes for Collegiennes

Cut in lines that simulate men's pajamas, the lounging wear modelled at the left are in heavy rayon crepe with a yellow monogram and piping, or in flannel and corduroy. The flannel bathrobe should be man-tailored, and in yellow. The model at the left is most suitable for sleeping, while the outfit on the right is highly acceptable for the lounge.

Informations on correct fashions for college women will be sent upon request to the New York fashion editor of a Collegiate Digest Section, with some additional information in the form of a coupon at the bottom of this page. GEOLOGY GURU

Dr. B. Miller, of the University of Pennsylvania, entertain the lifelike reproduction of a historic dinosaur. Phil Myers, geology research fellow, is the brains and brawn of the creation—but he refuses to eat the ton of green plants which the herbivorous Sauropoda used to consume at one meal. The objects held by Dr. Miller and the monster are dinosaur stomach stones recently excavated in Colorado.

James S. MacVickar '35-Psychology. He says: "I think there's a great field for psychology—so I try to hit the books for all I'm worth. When I'm listless or 'low,' smoking a Camel gives me a quick spurt of energy. Physical and mental fatigue drop away! The enjoyment one gets from Camel's fine flavor is a psychological factor in maintaining poise."

"How to get back vim and energy when "played out". Thousands of smokers can verify from their experiences the popular suggestion "get a lift with a Camel." When tired, Camels will make you feel refreshed—as good as new. And science adds confirmation of this "energizing effect." Camels aren't flat or "sweetish," either. You can smoke Camels steadily. Their finer, More Expensive Tobaccos never get on the nerves!"

Mountains Climber. Miss Georgia Engelhard says; "Plenty of times I have thought 'I can't go another step.' Then I call a halt and smoke a Camel. It has been proved that mental and physical fatigue drop away! Just a few minutes and you are ready to keep on.

Pro Football Ace. "Cliff" Montgomery of the Brooklyn Dodgers says: "After a tiring game, or any time when I feel like it, I light up a Camel and get a swell 'lift'—soon feel 100% again. I am seldom without a Camel—they don't interfere with healthy nerves.

"I found 'Stars Fell on Alamania' extremely entertaining in some parts . . . Alabama people vary in their reactions to the book. Some of them consider it a "daring"
and superb piece of literature; others say it is a lot of rot and an insult to the state, while others consider it the best piece of publicity Ala­

J LIVE TO TELL, by Jacob
H. Rubin (Bobbs-Merrill, $2.75). An unusual story of that most cussed and discussed of all countries, Rusthrough plenty (during and after the revolution), and he tells about it in a simple and pure style that is very effective. If you are interested in personal experience stories and Russia, you can't go wrong on this one.

THE MERRY WIDOW—There's nothing much left of the original story and music,
but Hollywood has done something here. It has made operetta box office. The changes may be lamented by a few who remember the original "Widow" of IMS, but even they will have to admit that,—shall we call it "The Merry Widow of 1934?"— is grand entertainment. (Maur­

Suits for fall feature not only a rougher finish but subdued patterns that are so effective in these weaves. Shirts, too, at least for country wear, follow the pattern influence. For the spectator, the button-down collar shirt is a university favorite as well as the round collar pinned shirt shown at the left. For town wear nothing so readily gives the desired effect as a laundered collar. Neckwear follows suits with the favoring of rougher weaves, but the rep stripe still retains its desirability. The blucher front shoe is equally at home in town or country while the wing tip shoe shown at the left is a campus favorite.

MODERNISTIC STADIUM

The new Walter A. Strong stadium at Beloit College (Wis.) has just been opened and is to be dedicated by the widow of the late Mr. Strong at the Chicago World's Fair. As the late Mr. Strong was a graduate of Beloit College, he was responsible for its large endowment fund. The dedication ceremonies were witnessed by Rufus C. Dawes, president of A Century of Progress, and other noted figures.

LIVING STATUES

The Archers are posed by members of the dance club at Drake University (Des Moines, la). These modern Dianas include Betty Cole, Betty Jenkins, and Marian Flsher.

MAIL THE FRESH

Green Pastures is satirized by Dartmouth College (Hanover, N. H.) freshmen as part of their freshmen hazing activities. This group happens to be the Freshman Class of 1934.
ROBERT FEDDERN (50). He says: "I'm interested in every phase of flying—majoring in aeronautics. It takes a lot of mental concentration. Three or four hours of intense study is enough to tire anyone. I light up a Camel frequently. Camels always give me a 'lift' that quickly chases away any tired feeling. And what a flavor Camels have—so rich and mild!"

Here's the way to get back your energy quickly when you feel glum and weary! Thousands of smokers have adopted the way of combating low energy and low spirits mentioned by Feddern. When their energy sags down they smoke a Camel and get a delightful "lift!" It's beautiful—delightful—enjoyable. Smoke Camels as often as you want them. Their finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS never get on the nerves!

AIR HOSTESS. Says Miss Marian McMichaels, R.N., of the American Airlines: "When the run is over and I'm off duty, my first move is to light a Camel. A Camel quickly relieves any feeling of tiredness—and how good it tastes. Camels are so delightfully mild I!"

ANIMAL COLLECTOR. Frank Buck says: "It takes healthy nerves to bring 'em back alive. It's a job packed with thrills, excitement, and real danger. I am a heavy smoker. I like to smoke Camels, for I can smoke as often as I want without upsetting my nerves."

BOOKS

"Men in White" was a great success. No more we have WOMEN IN WHITE by Peter Delius (J. B. Lippincott, $3.00), which is much better than might be expected under the circumstance. Some nice characters, well drawn. Romantic and ingenious.

"The Visiting Villain" by Carolyn Wells (J. B. Lippincott, $2.00) is the latest Fleming Stone detective novel. The usual murder mystery, but a pet cobra and too many wills serve to really complicate things.

MOVIES

"If you like to hear Dick Powell sing, go and hear him. Also take a look at Josephine Hutchinson, a newcomer to films. See that dimple? Picture is not long on story, but it's an entertaining cross between straight movie and musical comedy."

RADIO

"This band is made up almost entirely of amateurs and is interesting for that reason. In addition, they put out good music and a splendid show."

SOCIOLOGY

"Society is slowly rising toward a more democratic type, which is called the social process, etc., etc., etc."
The same kind of drive that takes a football player over the goal line will put your candidates across for All American honors in the COLLEGIATE DIGEST Section All American football poll.
