Freshman President

RUTH PARKS ELECTED FROSH VICE-PRESIDENT

Ruth Parks was elected vice-president of the Frosh Class at meeting Friday. Other officers elected at the meeting were: Dorothy Abrams, president; Dorothy Bowers, vice-president; Thelma Elton, secretary; and Kenneth Stoddard, treasurer. Parks was a member of men’s athletes at the meeting. Russell Endall, the frosh president, presided.

22 MEN WILL HAVE BOXING MENTOR

 Boxing for men students will be listed as an extracurricular activity this year. Two men were appointed to the plans announced this week.

Several students have organized a boxing club and will meet Thursday nights in the President’s Hall. The men were appointed from a group of men organized late this spring.

The men not been taught at the campus. Several men were advanced last year to incorporate in the men’s gymnastics classes.

“EVERYONE SHOULD MAKE SUGGESTIONS IN MEETINGS,” LANE

“Students are urged to bring up business in advance of the meeting so that no one has to take part in the plans and amuse the student body, but the students should be taken to part in the plans made to form the plans,” said President A. R. Brubacher.

2 ATTENDANCE CONFERENCE AT ELMSLAH THIS WEEK

Miss Marguerite Martin, 28, and Miss Mary A. Gooding, instructor in mathematics, attended the student faculty conference in Elmsla this week. The conference was held in the auditorium at Elmsla college.

30 State Graduates Take Part In Meetings; Higgins Will Attend Newspaper Convention

Virginia E. Higgins, editor-in-chief of the State Colleum News, will attend the convention of New York State College Teachers Associations held at Proctor Academy, Saturday, November 12.

The following graduates and faculty members attending the convention were: Miss Marion S. Van Lier, director of home economics department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Marjorie M. S. Van Lier, director of history department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia.

The convention is to arrange two debates and two debates at the college. As soon as a definite announcement is made, the papers may be studied by the faculty members.

State College graduates and faculty members played important roles at the convention of New York State College Teachers Associations held at Proctor Academy, Saturday, November 12.

The following graduates and faculty members attending the convention were: Miss Marion S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of history department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia.

While they were in Hamilton, Miss Van Lier gave the research work done by the University of Massachusetts psychology laboratory.

State College graduates and faculty members played important roles at the convention of New York State College Teachers Associations held at Proctor Academy, Saturday, November 12.

The following graduates and faculty members attending the convention were: Miss Marion S. Van Lier, director of history department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia.

30 State Graduates Take Part In Meetings; Higgins Will Attend Newspaper Convention

Virginia E. Higgins, editor-in-chief of the State Colleum News, will attend the convention of New York State College Teachers Associations held at Proctor Academy, Saturday, November 12.

The following graduates and faculty members attending the convention were: Miss Marion S. Van Lier, director of home economics department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Marjorie M. S. Van Lier, director of history department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia.

The convention is to arrange two debates and two debates at the college. As soon as a definite announcement is made, the papers may be studied by the faculty members.

State College graduates and faculty members played important roles at the convention of New York State College Teachers Associations held at Proctor Academy, Saturday, November 12.

The following graduates and faculty members attending the convention were: Miss Marion S. Van Lier, director of history department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia; Miss Josephine A. S. Van Lier, director of English department at State Teachers College at Fredonia.

While they were in Hamilton, Miss Van Lier gave the research work done by the University of Massachusetts psychology laboratory.
Beware Inferiority Complex

An evidence that State College considers its own influence and the benefits associated with other institutions depends largely on its reputation at the various conventions and congresses which are held during the school year. The value of these meetings is untold.

Leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discouragement and finally to despair. They pity themselves and develop an inferiority complex about their work. It is almost certain that this success and difficulties, the leaders are prone to think that their problems are unusually difficult—something peculiar to their particular situation. This leads to discourage

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French Says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York

State College News, ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918, The University of the State of New York, College at Buffalo, 2027

News Offers Great Opportunities, French says

The purpose of the meeting is to determine the possibility of recreation during the next summer. The New York Times

Ceramic Sander Slowly Built, Thanks to the Ceramic Society of New York
Kappa Delta Rho is not to pledge until end of year

Kappa Delta Rho is not to pledge until late this semester, and will not initiate them until the second semester, an offer of the fraternity announced today.

Guests at the Kappa Delta Rho home during the convocation of the University of the State of New York last week were: Arthur M. Otten, national grand president of the fraternity, Dr. E. H. Birkett, 2L, principal of the Binghamton high school, and procurator of the first province of Kappa Delta Rho; Henry L. Redie, 2L, principal of the Congers high school, Harold Frech, 2L, principal of the Mounds school, and Donald Foster, 2L, principal of the Binghamton East Junior high school, and a former editor-in-chief of the State College News. Stephen E. Mertor, principal of Johnson, was a guest of the fraternity.

ELECT KEEFE HEAD OF LIBRARY SCHOOL

Edith Polgreen, Elmira, '27, Will Act As Secretary

At a joint meeting of the classes in the Library School Kathleene Keefe of Utica, '24, was elected president, having been Doris Arnold, '28, Miss Keefe, '25, Miss Polgreen was elected secretary-treasurer. Miss Polgreen was graduated from 13th Street College in June. The students in the Library School are planning social activities for the winter so that they may become better acquainted with their classmates.

The classes in Library Science plan to go to Troy Friday, October 28, to attend the meeting of the Library Section of the New York State Teachers' Association. Miss Martha C. Tyrrell, director of the Library School, will take part in the meeting.

G. A. A. WILL SPEND ITS FIRST WEEK-END AT CAMP COGWELL

The Girl's Athletic Association will hold its first weekend at Camp Cogwell, Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. People interested in athletics are to sign up for the games now on hand. The meetings of the Association are held in the YMCA building, 209 Central Avenue. Girls who have passed one semester of Latin I are eligible for membership.

The second matches will be played off in the women's tennis tournament. Those who have won in the single matches played this week are: Margaret Ketchum, '20, from Dorothy Doyle, '31; Winifred Faulst, '31, from Mildred Johnson, '28; Brunette Samuels, '31, from Jane Formann, '30, 8-6, 6-3.

In the second matches played off for the second time, Elizabeth Corbin, '30, was defeated by Elizabeth Goff, '27, 6-4, 6-2; Evelyn Train, '28, won from Kathryn Webster, '31, 6-3, 6-3; Margaret Kelly, 29, lost to Margaret Cutter, '31, 6-1, 6-4.

The rest of the second matches will be played as soon as possible.

REV. COLLINS TAKES TO NEWMAN ON EVOLUTION

Rev. John Collins, spiritual advisor of the Newman club, spoke on "Evolution" at the club meeting yesterday.

About fifty Newman club members attended mass at Antwerp on October 16 at which Father gave the history of the site. It was here that the Jesus brothers gave their lives in an attempt to convert the Indians. Study for the evolution test at Newman house Wednesday night. Newman council meeting will be November 6.

JONES AND GRAVES TO ATTEND AN ART CONVENTION, NOV. 18

J. Charlotte Jones, '28, and Evelyn Grimes, '28, are the representatives of the Drama and Art school who will attend the Interregional Drama and Art convention tomorrow at the University of Delaware on November 18. Miss Jones is chairman of the committee in charge of the convention and Miss Grimes is a charter member of the association.

LION TO COME OUT OF DEN TODAY OR MONDAY

Rev. A. A. Martin, titular of the Church of St. Mary, did not return him to his native home at Binghamton's Sunday evening. The lion, which was to have been released from his den to celebrate its second birthday either late today or Monday morning, was given a "Havana" cigar, a present from Donald Tower, '19, the Athletic association president, and a former editor-in-chief of the State College News. Stephen E. Mertor, principal of Johnson, was a guest of the fraternity.

JUNIOR DUES ARE $3

Junior class dues are again three dollars according to Robert J. Shilinick, class treasurer. Collection was started Monday and more than forty dollars have been collected to date.

"No junior will be eligible to attend the Prom unless his dues are paid," Shilinick said.

VILLIMEN LECTURES

The meeting of the Alliance Francaise in the W.E. will be attended by Miss Villimon lectured on "The Lexicon," the dictionary. Several senior boys and girls were there.

KIRTLAND LECTURES

Richard T. Kirtland, professor of education, will meet a photograph class Thursday at 10:45 in the Library. He will discuss the making of his film "American Education." The film will be shown at the Library School and is available for the use of the educational classes. The film will be shown at the Library School and is available for the use of the educational classes.

CANDY LINES DESIRE

"Toucans," a composition of Shelbourne and Dobson's "Toucan's," is to be played Saturday night at the Library School. The music of the music of the music will be played by the music of Shelves, of which Vincent, '29, is chairman of the committee, in charge.

TO HAVE COMMUNION

Catholic club will have Corpus Christi mass at 8:00 p.m. at St. Aloysius' Church.

The first day of the school year will be Tuesday, November 8, according to Rev. John Collins, spiritual advisor of the Newman club. He spoke on "Evolution" at the club meeting yesterday.

About fifty Newman club members attended mass at Antwerp on October 16 at which Father gave the history of the site. It was here that the Jesus brothers gave their lives in an attempt to convert the Indians. Study for the evolution test at Newman house Wednesday night. Newman council meeting will be November 6.

Look out for THE LION

MAISTELMAN BROS.

Newport St. Albany, N.Y.

Ice Cream, Confectionary, and Home Made Sandwiches

293 CENTRAL AVE.

Share the Good News

...with the Folks at Home

Recommended by the English Department of
New York State College for Teachers

WEBSTER'S COLLEGIATE

The Best Abbreviated Dictionary — Based upon WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL

A Time Saver in Study Hours. Three questions about words, spelling, orthography, frequently in your reading, writing, study, and speech, are answered instantly in this store of information. How would you spell unknown words? How would you spell unknown words? How would you spell unknown words? How would you spell unknown words?

G. C. MERRIAM CO.
Springfield, Mass.
233 HAVE PAID TAX
MAKING FUND $2,563
FROM TWO CLASSES
At noon Tuesday 233 students had paid their student tax. This means the $2,563 has been collected for the budget. So far taxes have been collected only from seniors and juniors. Collection of taxes for sophomores will be on Monday and Tuesday, October 11 and November 4. Student fees for these two classes may also be paid at this time.

HOP TO BE NOVEMBER 18
Senior Hop will be Friday, November 18. John Wolfe, class chairman of the dance, said today. Committee chairman are: music, Paul C. Crone; decorations, Ruth Moore; refreshments, Dorothy Macaill; tees will make further arrangements this week.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS MEETING
The purpose of this meeting, which was held at Slate College was to plan for the future of Slate College. Miss Margaret Mccune, who is the new manager to replace Hazel Williams, was unanimously elected manager to replace Hazel Williams, according to Mr. Le Grange, there is enough promising material to give rise to hopes for a representative team from State College.

COLLAGE NEWS TOPS
BY 140 MORE INCHES
Advertising in the first five editions of the State College News has beat the corresponding issues of last year by a long distance of 140 inches. This year's first issue topped the previous record of 107 inches.

M. WINNIE, "39, DEAD
Merrsch Winne, '39, died Sunday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam L. Whine at Delmar.

LES MOUSQUETAIRES
NOT TO FORM CLUB
This year, Les Mousquetaires have decided to form a fencing class, and not to organize into a club. At the last business meeting, Anthony Kuczynski, '29, was unanimously elected president, and Natalie Treth, '28, treasurer.

LES COQUETAIRES
MCCUNE AS MANAGER
The business staff of the Quarterly announces the election of Margaret Mccune, '29, to the position of advertising manager to replace Hazel Williams, ex-cs.

LADIES' LOCKET TEA
At noon Tuesday, Miss May Williams, instructor in home economics, gave the ladies' locket tea. It remained why God Made Hell, with Dorothy Mackall and Lowell Sherman.

AT NOON TUESDAY, October 7 and 8.
So far taxes have been collected only from seniors and juniors. Collection of taxes for sophomores will be on Monday and Tuesday, October 11 and November 4. Student fees for these two classes may also be paid at this time.