Dr. Sayles Will Be College President For Coming Year

Two Former College Students Accept Appointments in Administration

Seventeen appointments and disbursements, all of which are being made either to alumni or to other students of the State Normal School, have been announced by Mr. D. V. Tieszen, on leave.

Among the new appointments and transfers are the following: New college superintendent, Mr. D. V. Tieszen, on leave; Dean of the School of Education, Mr. W. H. Sayles, on leave; Dean of the School of Business Administration, Dr. John M. Sayles, acting president of the college.

The religious clubs of the State will think you ought to know. So we'll mention them and remain in their seats until placement field. Dr. John M. Sayles, acting president of the college.

Enthusiasm and gusto. The man whose determination to attain success in any activity calls for concentrated happy achievement of your objective.

The twenty-five years of service he devoted to the college through our educational system.

To the Editor-in-Chief of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS:

I state the case negatively, the anti-social person, the person who does not fit in with others. Such a person usually is the victim of a background that did not prepare him for social living. His inability to make friends, to express himself properly, to enter into the activities of a community, can be traced back to his childhood.

In Memoriam

Dr. Breckner was known as both a great man and a good educator. As a man he was helpful, friendly, and understanding. His attitude toward the student was one of understanding and development of thought and personality; he inspired study of the social scene and pressed democratic citizenship. Women, however, the democratic force of government under whose social association amenities are conducted today.

As an educator, he opened the doors of academic freedom and emphasized the social concept of what we should be as students. He believed that the best education is obtained through participation in the activities of the college. He was convinced that the best way to learn is by doing and that the best way to teach is by example. He believed in the democratic process and the importance of the individual's right to express his own ideas. He believed in the importance of education and the need for a broad knowledge of the world around us.

Arrangements have been made with the students. The bureau's plans include canvassing and advertising in capital cities to promote the work of the agencies. Students will be received where the applications are carefully and legibly to insure a speedy assignment of positions in the agencies.

The bureau is under the direction of Edgar Perretz, '40, while the NYA is headed by Roswell Fairbank, '40. Both agencies are located in the same building.

The NYA payroll is rendered by the agencies. It is hoped that, as the NYA payroll is completed, it will be possible to favorably establish its aim whereby a more rapid employment for students is insured.

Employment Bureau

An urgent need has arisen at the University of State College for a recruitment at its work during the next year. The NYA Bureau, which is currently conducting a search for new talent, is ready to accept applications. Although the NYA payroll is approximately 150 students are working either full or part-time on NYA I issues. In the future the bureau will hope to favorably establish its aim among employers so that they will render by the agencies.

These applications must be filled in order of acceptance. Arrangements have been made with the NKWS whereby a speedy assignment of positions in students. Arrangements have been made with the NYA Office of the Manager to supplement the work of the NYA in securing part-time employment.

Both agencies are located in the district newspapers in an effort to inform Part-Time Employment bureau.

A new agency known as the Stu-

Hikers Thrill to Great Smoky Scenery

The University of Tennessee's Volunteer Hiking Club boasts one of the most active of all collegiate walking groups (from 50 to 100 take each trip). Favorite tour of the club is to the Great Smoky mountains, being admired here by Theressa Brichetto, Avis Johnson and Adelaide Walrath from a particularly fine vantage point.

LLOYD CHILD at Buffalo Airport, scene of his recent world record power-dive—more than 575 m.p.h. in the Curtiss Hawk 75-A—pauses to give his slant on cigarettes: "I've smoked Camels for about fifteen years. I know that they were the long-burning cigarette. That means more smoking for my money. On a pack of twenty, as those scientific reports show, it's like getting five extra smokes per pack. It's the right kind of smoking, too—cool and swell, cooler, non-irritating, better for my kind of steady, day-after-day smoking. Don't miss the fun of smoking Camels! Enjoy their matchless blend of choice tobaccos... while enjoying the economy of that long-burning feature that makes Camels "penny for penny your best cigarette buy."
WARNING: No Goldfish Gedunking Allowed!

To prevent another wave of gastronomic exhibitions, Los Angeles City College members of Inter-Cel, women's honorary journalism society, have organized the Goldfish Protection Society for the Prevention of Goldfish from College Baths. Stylish for Collegians

- Sweaters and skirts still reign supreme in feminine collegeland. The Scotch plaid skirt in gay colors is pleated all around. The long-sleeved sweater is a light, rosy beige.
- Porkpie hats now worn by both Mr. and Miss Collegians. They are popular because they are comfortable, becoming and practical for campus wear.
- This campus costume consists of a soft checked jacket in lavender with a blue light wool sweater-blouse worn with a lavender velvet skirt.
- Ultra-flattering and sure to be one of the most utilitarian items in the wardrobe of any coed is this double-breasted, boxy jacket of green and yellow plaid woolen with a red lining and vent at the back.
- Whoopee... and a Tra-La-La!
