"The tune "St. Laurence University," Klein said.

Males cooperate with anada ill imisi. This subject, "Rcsulu'd, That the United

The men's varsity debate team at the try outs was i praise was given to graduates of the Dramatic and Art association: Shillinglaw, the State

M. The tune was published in 1918.

Mrs. Bubache'r, Dr. Harry W. 2.

The tradition breaker is Sue Bltekcer, a senior he began early, for she wrote her the murder to prevent Walwork's re

Josephine M. Gormley, '25, editor of the News, hailed

The vote will be conducted today in the Pedagogues Assembly. Pictures of the student association elections and voting upon constitu

Miss Borucki will announce the results of the student association elections and voting upon constitution amendments later this week.

REVOTE TODAY FOR PEDAGOGUE HONORS

Student Who Has Done Most For College Will Be Elected By Assemblies

TREED HAI00N IN RACE

Miss Gormley, Slighinglow And French Receive High Votes In First Post

What senior has done the most for State College during his three years of participation in undergraduate activities?

A revolt will be conducted today in the Pedagogues Assembly to determine which student has done the most for State College during his three years of participation in undergraduate activities.

Miss Gormley's place appears to be in the driver's seat.

Miss Gormley, Slighinglow and French receive high votes in the first post of this year's election.

TODAY FOR PEDAGOGUE

Miss Frances J. Borucki has been named as the chairman of the try outs.

Miss Frances J. Borucki has been named as the chairman of the try outs.

40 ANVOUR CALL FOR GIRLS' HOCKEY TEAMS

The announcement of the hockey teams for the season is published in the hockey booklet, being sent to all members of the hockey classes.

The hockey classes are composed of the following girls:

The hockey teams are composed of the following girls:

The hockey teams are composed of the following girls:

TRADITIONS ARE SILLY, MISS BLECKER AVERS

Traditions at State College are not of the common respect of freshmen, according to Miss Blecker, who is in her senior year.

"I don't think that traditions are sensible in most cases," Miss Blecker said.

"I don't think that traditions are sensible in most cases," Miss Blecker said.

"I don't think that traditions are sensible in most cases," Miss Blecker said.

G. A. A. PLANS FROLIC IN GYM FRIDAY NIGHT

The Gamma Alpha Association is planning a frolic in the gym on Friday night.

Tepedno Is Awaiting Trial For Slaying Of Wallwork; Murder Follows Political Altercation At Dormitory

The murder occurs at a time when the political situation is tense and volatile.

Tepidno, accused of political alteration at a dormitory, has been found guilty of murder.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.

The president of the college, Dr. William H. French, has expressed his belief in the innocence of Tepedno.
ARE STRAW VOTES WORTHLESS?

Our distinguished contemporary, the Compendium, student publication of Union College, would have us believe that straw votes are worthless. Both sides of the question are well brought out, and a prediction of the outcome of an election is a dose-heap in picking a horse race, that paper charges in a recent editorial. It would seem quite possible, however, that the system as at present displayed at the response of the Union students to two straw votes cast therein will prove to be worthless. The votes are "lethal" and straw votes are no better than dole.

The News flutters itself that its straw vote served a purpose. It did not, of course, prove that New would vote for Honore. The "vote" was not sufficiently armed by signatures to warrant acceptance; it was not, in fact, a vote at all. The News, in the process of correcting the error in its first issue, was too busy to notice the alteration.

But the straw vote serves a purpose. A newspaper cannot be expected to render an expert opinion, but it can report the votes of its readers. Perhaps the greatest value of straw votes lies in their indication of the potential political strength of a certain group of people. Granted that many votes without meaning, granted that straw votes and their absence have no intrinsic value, it is possible that straw votes are of some value. The circulation of national, state, and local newspapers is hardly a mere waste of time. The editor of the News, in reporting the results of the straw vote, is acting the part of a wise counsellor to the students, and therefore his paper is on the right track.

The News notes that the straw vote is not in keeping with the traditions of the paper. It is true that the News is not a political organ, but it is not to be expected that all its activities should be political. It is, however, to be expected that the News should not act contrary to its own principles. It is a fact that the News has not always kept to its principles, and it is a fact that it has not always been consistent in its action. It is, however, to be expected that the News will not act contrary to its own principles.

We are of the opinion that the News is not in contradiction to its own principles in reporting the results of the straw vote. It is possible that the News has erred in its interpretation of the vote, but it is not possible that it has erred in its interpretation of the principles on which it acts. It is possible that the News has not always acted according to its principles, but it is not possible that it has not always acted according to its principles. It is, however, to be expected that the News will not act contrary to its own principles.

The News notes that the straw vote is not in keeping with the traditions of the paper. It is true that the News is not a political organ, but it is not to be expected that all its activities should be political. It is, however, to be expected that the News should not act contrary to its own principles. It is a fact that the News has not always kept to its principles, and it is a fact that it has not always been consistent in its action. It is, however, to be expected that the News will not act contrary to its own principles. It is possible that the News has erred in its interpretation of the vote, but it is not possible that it has erred in its interpretation of the principles on which it acts. It is possible that the News has not always acted according to its principles, but it is not possible that it has not always acted according to its principles. It is, however, to be expected that the News will not act contrary to its own principles. It is possible that the News has erred in its interpretation of the vote, but it is not possible that it has erred in its interpretation of the principles on which it acts. It is possible that the News has not always acted according to its principles, but it is not possible that it has not always acted according to its principles. It is, however, to be expected that the News will not act contrary to its own principles. It is possible that the News has erred in its interpretation of the vote, but it is not possible that it has erred in its interpretation of the principles on which it acts. It is possible that the News has not always acted according to its principles, but it is not possible that it has not always acted according to its principles. It is, however, to be expected that the News will not act contrary to its own principles.
LITERARY MAGAZINE TO HAVE ETCHING BY MISS EUNICE PERINE

An etching by Miss Eunice A. Perine, instructor in fine arts, will be among the features of the new literary and art magazine to be issued before Thanksgiving, according to Florence M. Garen, '20, editor-in-chief. An accompanying article has been written by Edith Finkelmeyer, '31.

Other features of importance are book reviews, many prose articles, and some unusually good poetry, Miss Garen said.

Among the contributors for the first issue are Georgia King, '29; Walter A. Wolter, '29; Edith Finkelmeyer, Edith Finkelmeyer and Eunice Fullerton, juniors; Jean Gillespie, '31; Helen Mild and Ernest Booth, freshmen.

Five issues will be printed during the year at regular intervals.

TO OFFER AMENDMENT TO NEW CONSTITUTION

(Continued from page 1, Column 5)

Two faculty members were elected to head sectional meetings of teachers at the recent convention of teachers in Schenectady. Miss Elizabeth F. Shaver, supervisor of practice teaching in history, was elected president of the Capitol District Teachers' Association. Dr. Harry W. Hart, dean of the English department, was elected president of a similar association for teachers of English.

CALL A YELLOW CAB

Dial 4-8161

Limousines rented for all occasions.

TO NEW CONSTITUTION

WILL BE PRESIDENTS

2 FACULTY MEMBERS

To head sectional meetings of teachers at the recent convention of teachers in Schenectady. Miss Elizabeth F. Shaver, supervisor of practice teaching in history, was elected president of the Capitol District Teachers' Association. Dr. Harry W. Hart, dean of the English department, was elected president of a similar association for teachers of English.

PALLADINO

Personality Bobs-Finger Waving-Permanent Waving

Home Savings Bank Bldg
113 N. Pearl St
1-363

DANKER

“SAY IT WITH FLOWERS”

40 and 42 Maiden Lane
Albany, N. Y.

“We Understand Eyes”

BM V. Smith

EYEGGLASSES

208 Quail St.
Endicott Brothers, Inc.

You will enjoy the

HOME COOKING

served at

Mrs. OAN’S Dining Room

208 Lark St.

3-3191

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, NOVEMBER 9, 1928

208 CENTRAL AVENUE

JUST AROUND THE CORNER ABOVE ROBIN STREET

HOME MADE CANDIES and DELICIOUS ICE CREAM

SANDWICHES, COFFEE and PASTRY

ANES-ASWAD CANDY SHOP, Inc.

222 CENTRAL AVENUE

We Guarantee The Wear $4.00

Endicott - Johnson

87 Central Ave.

46 No. Pearl St.

Featuring

The Latest Style Shoes

FALL & WINTER WEAR

LADIES PUMPS

OXFORDS

In sueded, velvet, patent, satin and calf skin.

OUR PRICES

$2.98 - $3.98 - $4.98

Young men’s oxfords, featuring our complete new line in tan, brown, and black calf skin.

We Guarantee The Wear $4.00
Dr. Thompson will get signal honor

Organists' National Association to Honor Dinner Thursday

For Composer

Dr. Harold W. Thompson, professor of English, will be the guest at a dinner to be given in his honor by the National Association of Organists in New York City, Thursday. The dinner is being given Dr. Thompson in recognition of his ten years of service as contributing editor of the journal of the association. Preceding the honorary dinner, he will be the principal speaker at a conference. The subject for his address will be "Standards of Church Music and Anthems."

Being tendered a dinner by the association is regarded by organists as a distinct honor. It is usually reserved for only visiting foreign musicians of note.

Following the dinner will be the first New York performance of the cantata "The Four Horses" the words of which were written by Dr. Thompson and the music by T. Frederic H. Cavly.Organist in music. The latter has been used with success in many of the leading churches in the country. It will be sung in the Fourth Presbyterian Church by a combined choir, composed of all the choirs of that church and of the choir of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church. After the rendition of the cantata, Dr. Cavly will give an exposition from his popular organ series "Sacra Instructa." The position took the first prize in the nationwide contest conducted by the National Association of Organists in 1927.

Dr. Cavly was also awarded a distin­c­tion last year by the association in honor of his prize-winning composition.

In addition to their connections with the National Association of Organists, Dr. Thompson and Dr. Cavly have worked closely with the Eastern New York chapter of the Guild of American Organists. Dr. Thompson has recently organized the first Presbyterian Church of this city and Dr. Cavly is now organist of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Albany.

Girls get swimming instruction today

Swimming classes for girls will begin Tuesday night at Bush Central Avenue, and Ontario Avenue.

Four classes will be conducted under the auspices of the Girls' Athletic association. These classes include one for beginners in swimming and diving; a class for advanced swimmers, one for advanced divers and a fourth in life saving.

"Every girl who automatically be­comes a member of the Girls' Athletic association upon payment of her student tax is eligible to attend," Louise E. Frank, wife of the president of Alpha Chapter, Mill Track, will explain to Esther Walters, 32, and Irene Hoey, 31.

3 freshmen in cast of play for Nov. 20

The play to be presented by the Freshmen dramatics club will be Tues­day night, November 20. The cast in­cludes Marylee Langmuir, 32, Robert Croasdale, 32, Charles Kinsman, 32, and Katherine Webster, 31.

The play is a story of daily New Eng­land life centered on an Irish family.