Harriers Upset LeMoyne 27-29; Team Seeks Record Tomorrow

Picking up where Coach Keith Murray called an "impossible win," the Albany State booters were driven by the challenge to stop LeMoyne last Saturday. Murray's team, which had already defeated Post and Maine, was confident after a week off from competition.

Dave Harringer Bob Hynes is seen returning in Washington Park. He was expected to be back in shop for tomorrow's meet after being ill for LeMoyne meet. Murray said he couldn't get a handle on Mike Atwell, as both were moving well.

Frost Winning Season

The Harriers are well poised for another strong season. With the return of the key runners, there is reason to believe that they can surpass last year's win over Post, which was a 2-1 upset. Murray said that the team has been working hard and that they expect to improve on last year's record.

Editorial Complaint

To the Editor:

As you can not fail to read your copy, I have a story to be published in the pages of the Albany student newspaper. I would like to comment on your approach to the problem of student activity support. In your editorial of November 1, you state that, "The student tax is the lifeblood of Student Association activities; without it there can be no news­paper, no yearbook, no P.A.T. league, no Honors Program, no Department of Mathematics, Astronomy, etc." I don't think you realize what a tremendous return they get on their investment.

You mention that a student tax raises $1,100 a year. Isn't this about the amount you spend in a single term in the State University system, and I might add, necessary services? It's in the State University system, and I might add, necessary services.

Therefore, we wholeheartedly support the present student tax and encourage every student to pay this small amount to secure the services which you mention.

Sincerely yours,

Defends Musical Council

To the Editor:

As an active participant in and a member of Y.A. and Y.A. Council, I feel that your recent editorial (November 1) was a shallow and baseless attack on the musical activities of our University. You state that the Music Council is run by "students of lesser calibre than the Music Department" and "the Music Department should have the right to have its own organization to serve its own needs." This is a complete and utter misrepresentation.

Music Council has a tradition of excellence, Members have been to bring to this campus the finest artists, not the best entertainers, in the musical field. With concerts sponsored by Music Council, the student body is given an opportunity to hear the best and to learn something about the musical world. It is to be regretted that such programs are sponsored by a "student organization" (Music Council) and not by the Music Department, which has the most qualified people to sponsor such programs.

I think that Miss Earle, in her previous article, "The Power of Music," had a valid point concerning music. It's time that the student body is educated to appreciate music and what it does for them. It's time that they learn about music and what it does for them.

Sincerely yours,

Booters Score Homecoming Win

As Five Goal Half Clobbers Post

By Roy McCray

Playing before a Homecoming crowd of over 2,500 enthusiastic fans, the Albany State varsity soccer team crushed a determined and well-prepared C. W. Post College squad, 5-0, on Eagle Field last Saturday. The Great Danes had dominated the game, but it was not until the second half when the booters finally tumbled Post's tenacious defense. Booters题主动 to move in and the Duane Crown to move the ball almost constantly deep into the territory.

Harriers Bow In Finale

Harriers failed to break up the quartet, but he was clipped 67 seconds off his previous time. Falls sophomore held on to win by a 4-0 margin. Bob Mulvey, still hampered by a virus infection, rounded out Albany's runners to the tape. Snapped the Dane's seven meet winning streak at 25:23.8 over the 4.55 mile course.

Brian McMahon drove in a fine goal in the 16th minute of the game, so

Playing the five off, he wasn't about to relax, and he began to work hard. He was a key player in the Danes' victory over the Post in Saturday's Homecoming meet over Post.

Haven. Keating won the 4,55 mile run.

Amherst scored another goal at 11:35 of the third; this time, he was unaided by teammate Phil King. Amherst kept control of the match, ending the game 1-0.
