Albany Nine-Hopeful; Pitching Depth Is Key

The Albany State baseball club will open their season Thursday in Bridgeport, Connecticut. This opening is being considered an extremely important area for the club, as they have much potential for success this year.

JUNIOR TOM POTTERSON will be one of the most valuable men in the lineup. Tom is no stranger to the Albany State University baseball club, as he has already had many years of experience. He is expected to be a vital member of the team, and his presence will undoubtedly add to the club's overall strength.

Antonioni's Red Desert, Tonight's Academy Film

From the early productions of Dovima, known only as "the dancer," Antonioni moved on to feature films. His first starring role was in "Il Grido," an Italian film released in 1957. Since then, he has directed several films, including "L'Avventura," an Italian psychological thriller released in 1960.

McWilliams To Speak On 'Need For Dissent'

Carrey McWilliams, editor of "The Nation," will speak on "The Need For Dissent" in a Forum on Politics lecture to be given tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Campus Center Ballroom. He is expected to offer a severe condemnation of American actions in Vietnam and call for widespread criticism of these actions.

"The Nation," which McWilliams has edited to be written with uncommon force and clarity, is the nation's leading socialist periodical. The lecture is part of the Forum on Politics series which has been in session throughout the semester.
