We Explain...
This year the college will no longer operate on a four-year basis, which has long been the tradition. The new system will be advantageous in several ways. First, it will allow us to carry out the traditions of a typical four-year college. Second, it will give us the opportunity to offer a broader range of courses. Third, it will allow us to make better use of our facilities.

The Board of Directors of the corporation, which controls the state college, has decided to change the system of classes. The new system will be called the "four-year plan," and it will be implemented in the fall of this year. The college will operate on a four-year basis, and each student will be required to complete a certain number of credits during each year of his college career.

We should like to extend our sympathy to [name] and his family. [Name] has been a valuable member of the faculty for many years, and we are sure that his absence will be felt by all who knew him. [Name] was known for his kind and patient nature, and he always had time for his students. We are sure that his memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
