Sense or Nonsense

"Nothing had any meaning, anything and only, the taught mind, nothing in a trap, no sense, no meaning.

There is a certain innocence captured by William Saroyan in that sentence, a proposition which characterizes the temper at State Pointlessness. Where are we going with this? We don't know.

One of the main themes of the present presidential campaign is crystallizing into an almost-pseudo "national" purpose. We would do well to apply this to State as "all highs purpose" for such phrases, indeed, there seems to be little purpose in evidence.

It is the purpose of this essay to be our basic purpose here and there is no denying that the opportunity do to as we please. But being a brain, lack... to be be leache, disregarded, beyond that, there is a being to be fulfilled and be such a time, it not ultimate concern. And this is the purpose.

Therefore, we tend these queries: Why isn't State College fulfilling its mission? Let's start with that.

Have these few been obscured by the pressing task of putting out our own—of the people's purpose? Why isn't the individual affecting himself of the opposition which are offered, and isn't he informed enough to seek the fulfillment in these needs not provided for at State?

To answer these questions might give some "sense", some "meaning" in the years we spend preparing to teach.

Compete, BUT Cooperate

"Saroyan, a competitive period of contests and fun be ieee the freshmen and sophomore classes" was tagged "to provide integration of the freshmen class through a set of planned activities, some in cooperation with the sophomore class." We feel that many of the student body have become sidetracked by this.

We were proud of the spirit shown by both classes at the sports events last Saturday and at the rallies on Dem field during the week, but just how far should we predict:Saroyan go?

Observation of the first week of Saroyan showed the freshman led by the sophomores on Dem field, their spirit, however, unfulfilled or underdeveloped. A large part of freshmen boys turn a head to their individualism on our way. Not only did they play for the Sophomore events but also were present at the variety store game. This is the type of spirit we need, and Saroyan should foster it.

We went, however, disappointed to see the Sophomore Club, it was rather disheartening to see the destruction of the "Gromow Tummy" by members of the Sophomore class even before it had a chance to make its appearance.

The freshman class is not ideally without fault, for it was a group of them that removed the warping letter from its place in BankHall. The lettering of this one class as well as an upperclassman, however, makes the freshmen comparatively free.

Rivalry has been completely divorced from everything except operation. If the enthusiasm that is apparent to many valuable events could be directed towards these objectives rather than towards this strife, the class might be which seems to be so evident. Saroyan would be serving the purpose for which it was created.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1960

Clarice Kline, NEA President, Offers Ideas, Opinions on American Education

The comparatively new, Clarice Kline, President of the NEA, the American Education Association, has recently been heard as a speaker at the University of New York. Kline's speech on "American Education: A Crisis," was well-received by the audience.

Kline, a statesman in education, spoke of the need for better education in America. She stated that "American Education: A Crisis" is the most important issue facing the country today. Kline went on to say that the crisis is not just in the schools, but in the entire educational system.

Kline also talked about the need for more money to be spent on education. She stated that "American Education: A Crisis" is the result of a lack of funding. Kline said that it is time for the government to realize the importance of education and to allocate more money to the schools.

Kline's speech was well-received by the audience. Many in the audience agreed with her statements and felt that the government should take action to improve education in America.

ISC States Rush Rules

Rush rules of ISC State, University of Nebraska, and New Mexico State University have been announced. The new rules are designed to make the rush process more on-time and less confusing.

The new rules state that the first two days of rush will be for pre-rush events and that the third day will be for the main rush. The rules also state that all students must be present for rush and that no pre-rush events will be held on the first two days.

The rules are being implemented to ensure that all students have the same opportunity to participate in rush and to prevent any unfair advantages.

The rules are being met with mixed reactions from the students. Some students are happy with the new rules and feel that they will make the process more fair. Others are concerned that the new rules will make rush less fun and that they will not have the opportunity to get to know the other students as well.

Regardless of the students' reactions, the new rules are being implemented and will take effect for the next rush cycle.
News Announces Religious Clubs' Activities

A Christian Society of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will hold its annual meeting for the purpose of installing officers, Thursday, October 6, at 9:30 a.m. in the Student Center. All interested students are invited.

Notice

It is mandatory that all students who are members of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship attend this meeting. Dr. Koppe will be present to answer any questions or problems that may arise. If you are unable to attend, please send a delegate to represent you. This meeting will also serve as an opportunity for informal discussion. A film called "Eternity" will be shown that night at 9:30 p.m. in the Student Center.

Christian Association

Friday, October 7, an opportunity for formal discussion led by a student panel on the topic, "Religion: At home and in the marketplace" will be held at 9:30 a.m. in the Student Center. This film is designed to help the viewer understand some of the concepts of the theory of relativity.

All members should attend the next coffee hour October 11 at 7:15 p.m. in Brubacher Hall at 7:15 p.m. This coffee hour will give the audience an opportunity to get to know some of the students who are involved in the Christian Association.

Next year's officers will be elected at the meeting. All interested students are invited to attend. For more information contact Christian Association officers.

KB Downs SLS in Thriller

By LEONARD COHEN

Despite winning the State "A" title last year, the KB team will face a tough task in the State Tournament this year. They will have to beat the SLS team, which is considered the strongest in the State. The game will be played on October 14th at 8:30 P.M. at RPI Field House. It is expected to be a close match, but KB has the edge in terms of experience and firepower. The team has been practicing hard and is confident of winning the game. They are looking forward to the challenge and are determined to bring home the title.

Frosh Take Softball, 6-5

By LOREN COHEN

Despite the loss of key players to graduation, the Frosh softball team has continued to perform well. They have won six out of the last seven games and are currently ranked second in the state. The team has been led by their Starting Pitcher, Jack Buchalter, who has pitched a no-hitter in two of their last three games. The team is looking forward to continuing their winning streak and taking the championship.
