Benecke To Pay Class $3,000

by Mark Petrie

Former Class of 1971 President Marc Benecke faces disciplinary action for alleged "misconduct" of student funds. According to Nation, Benecke was, in fact, involved in a scheme to defraud the Student Financial Aid Office of the College. A total of $3,000 was misappropriated from the Student Financial Aid Office over a period of time. Benecke had been president of the Student Council during this time.

An investigation was conducted by the Student Financial Aid Office, and it was determined that Benecke had been using the funds for personal benefit. The funds were later returned, and a formal investigation was initiated.

Benecke was suspended from all official duties and had his membership in the Student Council revoked. He was also required to pay the funds back to the Student Financial Aid Office.

Benecke is currently serving as president of the Student Council, and he has not commented on the situation.

Former Mohawkian Alde

Former Class of 1971 President Marc Benecke faces disciplinary action for alleged "misconduct" of student funds. According to Nation, Benecke was, in fact, involved in a scheme to defraud the Student Financial Aid Office of the College. A total of $3,000 was misappropriated from the Student Financial Aid Office over a period of time. Benecke had been president of the Student Council during this time.

An investigation was conducted by the Student Financial Aid Office, and it was determined that Benecke had been using the funds for personal benefit. The funds were later returned, and a formal investigation was initiated.

Benecke was suspended from all official duties and had his membership in the Student Council revoked. He was also required to pay the funds back to the Student Financial Aid Office.

Benecke is currently serving as president of the Student Council, and he has not commented on the situation.

The Student Reserve Committee (SRC) has proposed a fieldhouse for the College. The SRC has been working on the project for several years and has been successful in raising funds for the project. The fieldhouse will be a multi-purpose facility, with a gymnasium, a fieldhouse, and a library. The SRC is currently working on securing funding for the project and is hoping to have it completed by the fall of 1975.
Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.

Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.

Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.

Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.

Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.

Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.

Carter, Ford Argue Major Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) President Ford and rival candidates from both major parties have undergone a fundamental change in their political outlooks since their first debate in 1976. Both have moved toward the center, with Ford adopting a more pragmatic approach and Carter stressing moral and ethical issues. Ford plans to focus on the economy, while Carter will stress the need for a new approach to foreign policy.

One of the key issues that will be discussed during the debate is the role of government in the economy. Ford has outlined a plan to reduce the size of government and cut taxes, while Carter has proposed increasing government spending on social programs. The debate will also feature a discussion of the role of the United States in the world, with both candidates highlighting their differences in foreign policy.

The debate is scheduled to take place on October 20th, and will be held in a studio in the same location as the 1976 debate. The format of the debate will be similar to the previous one, with both candidates having equal time to speak and with a moderator guiding the discussion.

The debate is expected to be watched by millions of viewers across the United States and around the world. The outcome of the debate is likely to have a significant impact on the results of the upcoming election.
Students May Not Receive Ballots in Time to Vote

by Jonathan Latrobe

Over 100 SUNYA students who applied for absentee ballots for the upcoming presidential election were not prepared to handle the influx of mail-in ballots. SUNYA President Frank R. Kromoia said that the extenuating circumstances were "the result of a major funding gap" and that the university's Student Affairs Office was working to correct the problem. According to T. Wallace of the Student Board of Elections, the board was overwhelmed by the number of applications, and the university's mailroom was unable to handle the volume. As a result, many students have had to resubmit their applications, leading to delays in receiving their ballots. In addition, the university's mailing services were unable to keep up with the influx of mail-in ballots, leading to further delays. Students have expressed frustration with the process and have called for improvements to be made to ensure that all students receive their ballots in time to vote. The Student Board of Elections is working to address the issue and to ensure that all students receive their ballots in a timely manner.
Wallace’s complaint also charges that Chiang Ching, the widow of Mao Tse-tung, a.k.a. Chairman Mao, has illegally used his picture to promote its sales.

The interviews are mixed with vestiges of the Cultural Revolution and the sound effects and music of the period. The Beatles’ first album recording, made in 1962, is included in the book.

The researchers say they found that Kirlian photography adds a new dimension to traditional photography. The pictures show not only the physical structure of the body, but also the aura of the person and their inner workings.

The British medical journal Medical Journal of Australia reported that a team of researchers in the U.S. has confirmed the Kirlian phenomenon. They were able to photograph the Kirlian aura of people in the U.S. using a Kirlian camera.

The Kirlian camera is said to be able to record the Kirlian aura of people in the U.S. The Kirlian aura is said to be a special kind of energy field surrounding the body.

The Kirlian camera is able to record the Kirlian aura of people in the U.S. The Kirlian aura is said to be a special kind of energy field surrounding the body.

The Kirlian camera is able to record the Kirlian aura of people in the U.S. The Kirlian aura is said to be a special kind of energy field surrounding the body.

The Kirlian camera is able to record the Kirlian aura of people in the U.S. The Kirlian aura is said to be a special kind of energy field surrounding the body.

The Kirlian camera is able to record the Kirlian aura of people in the U.S. The Kirlian aura is said to be a special kind of energy field surrounding the body.
It's just a myth. The only result of a good destiny had in store for me, writing this column. Little did I realize what mother replied; "The one on the left is the doe-suspecting infants, asked for our identities. Stroll in the carriage. We happened to pass an while she was taking my cousin and me for a day. She was taking her friend, she was also handing behind her behind, put it together the station house. The right you said could be to me, as it was the altered charge against her.

Today, both these students were fined and possible additions to meeting current obstruction of government administration, and doubtless conflict which could result from NSF 100 distances from an administration is a problem. It is very true that discrimination developed for a better world, and it is important that students take a common identity, or are some "The". There are a few some of which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which which wh
Out to Lunch

By DAVID WELTINGER

Assistant to the Executive Vice President

She works from 7 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. each day, and if her meals are delayed by the weather, she has a half-hour's work and personal time left over. So it's no surprise that she's the mainstay of the university's food service negocio.

One of the most common complaints voiced by students is about the food available in the dining halls. Many students are frustrated with the lack of variety and quality of the food served. However, the university's food service is working hard to improve the situation.

By BEVERLY BEAR

The TV 6 Roving Reporter

By MARC ARKIN

Perhaps the biggest target for complaints and criticisms is the food service. Many students feel that the food is overpriced and of poor quality. In response, the university has taken steps to improve the food service.

One of the most significant changes is the introduction of a new menu system. This system allows students to select from a variety of options, which has led to increased satisfaction among students.

In addition, the university has also increased its use of fresh, locally sourced ingredients. This has helped to reduce the cost of food and improve the quality of the meals served.

Overall, the university's food service has made significant improvements over the past year. While there is still room for improvement, students are generally satisfied with the service and are hopeful for continued progress in the future.
My vision loses itself withal in vaster connections—above all in my general sense of the then grand newness of the Hudson River Railroad; so far at least as its completion to Albany was concerned, a modern blessing that even the youngest of us were in a position to appraise.

-Henry James

End of an Era...

A neglected relic of a forgotten time, Albany's Union (Delaware and Hudson) Railroad Station stands on lower Broadway near Pearl Street. It has been nearly 10 years since its tracks were uprooted, its hands on its massive clock stilled, and its loudspeakers silenced.

Declared the glory of modernity in its inauguration in 1898, the Albany station was a pivotal spot in the New York to Buffalo to Boston run. Trains carrying wealthy vacationers or soon to be re-united relatives roared into Union Station at all hours in all seasons of the year. Whether as a destination or a changing point, Albany gleefully greeted all. The handsome Beaux-Arts revival structures on Broadway invited the well off or the high aspiring to stroll and window shop. The City Hall and the Capital presented inspiring visions of democracy at work.

Soon however, the automobile began to assert its dominance and the era of glamorous train travel began to end. Highways and cheap bus travel began to supplant the railroads. Financial imperatives forced rail service to be curtailed and Albany's Union station went the way of its Beaux Arts cousin, New York's Pennsylvania Station.

So far, Union Station has been spared the wreckers ball. The station was sold at auction in 1974. Since then, plans to convert the station into a museum, library, or aquarium have not been realized. And while its fate is in doubt, nature has been claiming its prize.

Decay of a Monument

photos by ken amron story by stephen eisenman

The station today: decayed and returning to nature.

The rotting interior of Albany's Union Station. Will it see the wrecking crew?
When the week's just begun and already you're behind, it's time to get moving.

...it's no time to get filled up.

L lite Beer from Miller.

Everything you always wanted in a beer. And more.

By Prank Doris

With the release of their fourth album, Modern Music Beep Deluxe, a relatively unknown band from England, is suddenly finding themselves in the spotlight as one of the new generation's talents. Their quirky, energetic style and catchy songs have earned them a devoted fan base, and their rise to fame is nothing short of impressive.

The album, Modern Music Beep Deluxe, is a testament to the band's creativity and musical prowess. From start to finish, it's a journey through a world of sounds and rhythms, each track offering a unique listening experience.

Tracks like "Beep Deluxe" and "Modern Music" are instant classics, with their infectious melodies and playful lyrics. The band's ability to blend different genres seamlessly is truly remarkable, making Modern Music Beep Deluxe a must-listen for anyone who appreciates great music.

Don't miss out on this incredible talent. With Modern Music Beep Deluxe, the band has proven that they're here to stay, and we can't wait to see what they have in store for us next.

Modern Music Beep Deluxe

Recordings

Art of Film: Avant-Garde

By John H. Rand

The evolution of the motion picture industry is the story of a century of innovation, and nowhere is this more evident than in the realm of avant-garde film. These experimental filmmakers, led by artists like Viking Eggeling and Robert Flaherty, sought to push the boundaries of what could be achieved with film.

Vernon Deco's "Diapason" is one of the earliest examples of avant-garde cinema. It's a short film that explores the relationships between sound and image, using abstract shapes and patterns to create a visual experience that complements the music. The film is a testament to the power of collaboration between artists from different disciplines.

Another important figure in the avant-garde movement was Robert Flaherty. His film "Nanook of the North" is considered one of the first masterpieces of documentary film. It tells the story of a Native Alaskan community, and its impact on cinema cannot be overstated.

These early实验 filmmakers were not only interested in exploring new forms of expression, but also in challenging traditional notions of storytelling. The avant-garde approach to film was often radical and experimental, pushing the limits of what was possible within the medium.

In conclusion, the art of film has always been a space for innovation and creativity. From the earliest days of cinema to the present, filmmakers have continued to push the boundaries of what is possible with this medium.

Recording

Modern Music Beep Deluxe

The album's cover art is a striking visual representation of the band's sound. The colors and shapes are bold and vibrant, reflecting the energetic and dynamic nature of their music.

Tracks like "Beep Deluxe" and "Modern Music" are instant classics, with their infectious melodies and playful lyrics. The band's ability to blend different genres seamlessly is truly remarkable, making Modern Music Beep Deluxe a must-listen for anyone who appreciates great music.

Don't miss out on this incredible talent. With Modern Music Beep Deluxe, the band has proven that they're here to stay, and we can't wait to see what they have in store for us next.

Modern Music Beep Deluxe

Food Queries?

Widow Maker

By Bruce Conolly

In the time-honored tradition of the brass band, Widow Maker, vocals reminiscent of every second you linger on a track, takes his place in the pantheon of greats. His latest album, Widow Maker, is a masterful collection that combines rock, soul, and country influences to create a sound that's truly unique.

The album's opening track, "Goin' Back to Blue," sets the tone for the rest of the album. It's a powerful statement, a return to the roots of the band's sound. The song's melody is catchy, and the lyrics are relatable, making it a standout track.

Throughout the album, Widow Maker's voice is powerful and emotive. His delivery is masterful, and each song is a testament to his talent as a singer and songwriter.

In conclusion, Widow Maker is a must-listen for anyone who appreciates great music. His latest album is a shining example of the power of music to move us and inspire us. Don't miss out on this incredible talent.
Halloween Boogie Man's Bash

I.D. Required
60 lbs. of cheese and crackers

Albums given away for best costumes

Campus Center Ballroom

Not funded by SA

Innovative Voting

Before voters go to the polls next week, they should examine the candidates to determine who will be most innovative. It’s easy for candidates to talk about changes they’d make, but only the man who is resourceful enough to implement those plans will be a quality President. The innovative man has the ability to take what is bad and make a good thing out of it, the kind of person who sees a problem and makes it his own.

Yet the media have exposed him, there is no parameter by which to judge a candidate’s innovative quality, or lack thereof. The televised debates have befuddled voters with statistics, promises and allegations. No matter. Such expressions are more reflections of calculating research staffs and speech writers than of the candidates themselves.

The problem is that today’s voter needs a means of measuring the true merit of a candidate’s creativity. Apparently, none exist. Such a measure should be found in a sampling of the candidate’s past work, or in a sampling of his behavior.

Surprisingly, enough, a solution to this age old problem lies in one of man’s age old inventions—the calendar. Careful scrutiny of the calendar makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.

Ask not what the candidates said or did on the news or in the papers, ask instead what they did on Halloween. Only on this day will their innovative tendencies be evidenced in their purest form.

For men and women from the city, the heartland, the corn belt and the borscht belt, Halloween has a way of bringing out the innovative tendencies which makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.

Ask not what the candidates said or did on the news or in the papers, ask instead what they did on Halloween. Only on this day will their innovative tendencies be evidenced in their purest form.

For men and women from the city, the heartland, the corn belt and the borscht belt, Halloween has a way of bringing out the innovative tendencies which makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.

Ask not what the candidates said or did on the news or in the papers, ask instead what they did on Halloween. Only on this day will their innovative tendencies be evidenced in their purest form.

For men and women from the city, the heartland, the corn belt and the borscht belt, Halloween has a way of bringing out the innovative tendencies which makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.

Ask not what the candidates said or did on the news or in the papers, ask instead what they did on Halloween. Only on this day will their innovative tendencies be evidenced in their purest form.

For men and women from the city, the heartland, the corn belt and the borscht belt, Halloween has a way of bringing out the innovative tendencies which makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.

Ask not what the candidates said or did on the news or in the papers, ask instead what they did on Halloween. Only on this day will their innovative tendencies be evidenced in their purest form.

For men and women from the city, the heartland, the corn belt and the borscht belt, Halloween has a way of bringing out the innovative tendencies which makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.

Ask not what the candidates said or did on the news or in the papers, ask instead what they did on Halloween. Only on this day will their innovative tendencies be evidenced in their purest form.

For men and women from the city, the heartland, the corn belt and the borscht belt, Halloween has a way of bringing out the innovative tendencies which makes it obvious that some time-plotter foresaw the problem and built in the schedule of events a tailor made remedy. Election Day falls only a few days after Halloween—a day preserved in our society for the expression of the inner spirit.
Indian Quad Association Presents
Halloween Fantasia
Friday Oct. 29
9:00 p.m. - 1:00 a.m.
Two kinds of Beer, Screwdrivers, & Munchies
in the Indian Quad

Find Friday November 19 at 8:00 PM
at the Palace Theatre
Tickets: $3.50 with tax card
$3.50 general public

Available in the O.F.F. Campus Lounge from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Nov. 2 and 3

Starting Nov. 2, tickets will be available at:
H.M. noting
211 South Ave. Albany G.O.R.
Parking Records
327 Union Street Schenectady 778-1828

Funded by student association

Where's Inspiration?

by Todd Mills

As the 1976 Presidential campaign drags to a close, an important question remains unanswered. Where has the inspiration that our leaders provide us? Neither candidate has succeeded in presenting a compelling vision for the nation that he can make a reality. The result has been a disengagement from the political process, as fewer and fewer people vote. This is a dangerous trend, as the democratic process relies on the active participation of its citizens.

One way to address this issue is to encourage young people to become involved in politics. There are a number of ways to do this, including volunteering for a campaign, attending rallies and meetings, or even running for office. Whatever the method, it is important to get young people engaged in the political process.

Another way to inspire young people is to involve them in community service. This can be done through organizations like the Peace Corps or local service clubs. By working together to make a positive impact on their communities, young people can learn the importance of working towards a common goal.

In conclusion, the need for inspiration in our political leaders is critical. It is up to us, as citizens, to demand a vision from our leaders. We must encourage them to present meaningful ideas, and to actively seek the opinions of their constituents. Only through active participation can we ensure that our leaders are真正地 working towards a better future for all Americans.
Dealing with the International Association of Students in Economics and Business Management, is providing opportunities for students to work in various fields. These are paid positions, and interested students are encouraged to apply.

Wednesday

FAKON DA SETT card holder, $1.00 without.

Exclusive Sports Presentation or WSUA 640 AM.

For more info.

On Monday, Nov. 1, Ken 7-8814.

ISRAEL IS FIGHTING FOR HER SURVIVAL

The ability to face the enemy head-on is crucial. The courage of our soldiers is unmatched.

Thursday

Speakers Forum meets weekly on Tues. at 9pm in CC 370. All are welcome.

Friday

America, South America, Africa, and Asia. These are paid positions, and interested students are encouraged to apply.

Beginners welcome. Call Barry or Ray at 7-5219 for info.

Judo Club—practice, 2-4pm; wrestling room—third floor of gym.

Desperadoes take top pilot

by Michael Paul

Mark Coleman flamed a four-air hit, and with the help of Nick Wiseman and Captain Eric Summerlin, the Desperados captured the Full AMGA sub-championship with 75.84 over the observation Wednesday.

The Desperadoes having attack up early, ended 3-1-2-12-1-12, ahead of the Diplomats crucial for three runs in the 1-0. A spectacular run by centerfielder Mike Mitchell, under pressure from second baseman Paul Grady, who scored a long home run over the left field. The 1-0 run scored by the fourth, as Mickey Vontz struck out of the inning. Brown all over the middle, as in the bottom of the fifth, the Diplomats coming from behind, the big men being blocked. Full AMGA sub-championship.

Join the fun:

Dutch Quad Board

SAT. OCT 30 - 9 pm

15 Kegs Michelob
Taco Chips & Munchies
Apple Cider
Caramel Coated Popcorn

RUGGERS BEATEN, 28-10

Ronaldson Hocking is the All-American player of the year, now a top second baseman in the AL.

He didn't do much against the Yankees, World Series; next year we'll win it.

DAHIBOR

is in line to get the job at the end of the war. He will be the best, hands down.

Rugby's last lookout, he starred in his final years at SUNYA.

ISRAEL IS FIGHTING FOR HER SURVIVAL

Last year's SUNYA Campus United Jewish Appeal was held. It was called the KOACH Campaign.

KOACH is Hebrew for strength and it took the collective strength of a few committed students to initiate this endeavor.

KOACH is seeking interested volunteers to work, including dedicated students to help up campaign committees.

KOACH is also looking for a qualified, committed student to serve as campaign coordinator.

Return all forms to the KOACH Campaign office.

Dutch U-LOUNGE

Disco by TED FISH & CO.

HALLOWEEN COSTUME PARTY

SAT. OCT 30 - 9 pm

GOOD LUCK, LITTLE FROG, HAVE A NICE YEAR

Please don't tell us you didn't show up.

ANYTIME

The following activities will be held for the enjoyment of students:

GRAFFITI

TODAY

Korean Drama Club—weekly meetings, every Monday night.

THIS WEEKEND

Attention Graduate Students: Come to Boulevard's Hallowe'en Party. It's third floor of CC. All students are invited. Free to all students with ID. No alcohol will be served.

Tuesday

TUESDAY

ISRAEL IS FIGHTING FOR HER SURVIVAL

Last year's SUNYA Campus United Jewish Appeal was held. It was called the KOACH Campaign.

KOACH is Hebrew for strength and it took the collective strength of a few committed students to initiate this endeavor.

KOACH is seeking interested volunteers to work, including dedicated students to help up campaign committees.

KOACH is also looking for a qualified, committed student to serve as campaign coordinator. If you are interested in the post of campaign coordinator please contact David Kavounian at 457-4723 or Mike Fox at 434-4220 before November 3.

There will also be an interest meeting for KOACH volunteers to be held on Tuesday, November 16 at 7:30 in CC 375.

This is your chance to help. Don't let it pass you by.

OCTOBER 29, 1976

ALBANY STUDENT PRESS

Page 14
Fordham Alumni Down Ruggers

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Fordham Alumni Down Ruggers

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.

Invitational X-Meet
At SUNYA Tomorrow

by Mike Pekaske

Sure, kick a team when it's down. Tell them they're bad. It's easy; anyone can do it. But what it really means is...can you do it when no one's watching? Thursday night in Albany, the Alumni Nova Scotia team defeated Old Maroon School 25-22, with only the best of the best in attendance. The team is coached by Mike Bus, a former member of the Nova Scotia team. The game was held at the SUNYA campus in Albany, New York.
Albany Harriers Win Capital District Meet

Cortland's no. 2 player, Burns, Williams Excel

by Rich Salpeter

It was not meant to be. The Albany State cross-country team surprised everyone on Monday. They dominated a meet that they had been around for years but had never competed in.

The Harriers won the Capital District Championship in the freshman field and with a strong men's race.

The race was the center of attention for the Harriers, who had not competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in it before.

The Harriers dominated the race, with Burns and Williams leading the way. Burns, a freshman, took the lead early and never looked back. Williams, a senior, followed closely behind and took second place.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.

The Harriers' win was a surprise, as they had not been expected to do well. The team had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before. They had been around for years but had never competed in the meet before.