Venezuelan Lead

Group Discussion

Two Students Interview Latin American Delegates

Four Milne School students attended the Pan-American conference held in Hudson High School on December 11. They were Jean Chauncey, '43; John Morrison, '43; Margaret Hoclecker, '42; and Bill Long, '42.

The program opened with a panel discussion on the relationship of the United States with the Pan-American countries, led by W. Randolph in Foreign Policy Research Division.

Two RPI students, Antonio Fuenmayor and Alberto Uncoen, who are from Venezuela arrived with others to converse with students about their particular country. They were later interviewed by the two Ciscox and Wurte reporters. When asked about sports, they replied that they are nearly all the same as in the United States, with the exception of football. Soccer is the favorite, however.

A good education consists of completing the sixth grade, after which a person is expected to be an active participant in the government. The movie does not give us the right picture of countries to the south of us. With the cooperation of the government, South America can be industrialized and be even more important to world commerce than it is today, commented the Venezuelans.

The conference was divided into three groups, discussion cultural, political, and economic relations. Everyone participated and gained much valuable information.

There was dancing in the gymnasium, followed by dinner. Representatives from the three groups gave reports.

“Edna of the Annex” Explains the Candy Situation—Price Rise or Decrease in Size

"There will be no increase in the price of candy and other sweets, as far as we can tell at present." These are the words of Edna Wasserback, who is in charge of that well-known haven for Minilites, the Annex.

"It's really impossible for us to say whether or not prices will rise, continued Miss Wasserback. "So far, there has been no change. If there is a serious shortage of sugar, nickel candy bars will no doubt go up seven cents, and such things as ice cream cones will no doubt be seven cents lighter.

"At present, milk will remain seven cents, and sandwiches will not go up. There will be no decided change in prices." Miss Wasserback went on to say that lately candy manufacturers have been attempting to dodge any price rise by packaging in smaller quantities. They are hoping this will make things look as well as they are."

Office Discloses Honor Students

"Thirty-two students in the high school department achieved an average of 90% or better for the second quarter. Their names are: Walter Grace, 92; Walter Griggs, 92; Stanley Ball, 92.6; Robert Ostrander, 95; Blanche Packer, 95.75; Phillip Snare, 95.8; Robert Kirker, 96; Jo yce Knapp, 94.25; Louis Austin, 93.6; Arden Flint, 92.8; William Baker, 93.2; Aline Palatesky, 94.7; Dorothy Riker, 94.7; Pat DeRouville, 92.5; Jean Chauncey, 92.5; Melba B. Levine, 91.6; Marie Edwards, 91.8; June Brockman, 91; Jane Curtis, 90; Morton Swartz, 90.4; Edward Bookstein, 90.

Senior Class

Eleanor Gutterson, 96.75; Phillip Shore, 96.9; Blanche Packer, 96.76; Robert Ostrander, 95; Stanley Ball, 92.6; Walter Griggs, 92.5; Walter Grace, 92; Corrine Edwards, 90.25; Robert Kohn, 90; Morton Swartz, 90.4; Edward Bookstein, 90.

Freshman Class

Jane Trip, 92.9; Lionel Sharp, 91.6; Ted Carlson, 91.5; Janet Wiley, 92; Lois Meenan, 98.9; Lois Wade, 90.5; Ann Robinson, 90.4; Julia Bayreuther, 90.25; Robert Kirker, 90.00.

Sophomore Class

Joyce Knapp, 94.25; Louis Austin, 93.6; Arden Flint, 92.8; William Baker, 93.2.

Jean Chauncey, '43 Will Visit Capital

Jean Chauncey, '43, will represent the Milne School at the Student's Institute of National Government, which will meet in Washington from February 1 through February 7. Two hundred juniors and seniors from sixty-four schools in different parts of the United States will attend.

As the capital is crowded with the demands of the Defense Program, an invitation to use the dormitories of the American University while the college students are away for their inter-semester vacation, has been accepted. The dining hall, social room, and other resident facilities will also be used.

"Democracy In Action"

The theme of this institute is "Democracy In Action," and its purpose is to enable the students, by close observation of the working of Federal Government, to understand better the values of the democracy the nation is defending today.

The conference opens Sunday evening, February 1, with an "Institute Organizing Meeting. The first of the meetings with government officials will be held Monday morning. The session runs through Friday evening.

A very interesting program is planned for the participants. The Hon. Robert H. Hinckley, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, will address the Institute on "Present and Future in America's Air-Transportation. An official in the United States Maritime Commission, the Secretary of Labor, and several other people important in government will give talks. Those attending will participate in two panel discussions: one on 'Territories and Island Possessions,' and the other on "The Department of Labor's Service to the Wage-Earners of the Nation."

Tour Planned

Guided tours to places of interest in Washington are a part of the program. A few of the places included are the White House, Smithsonian National Gallery of Art, the American Museum, the Smithsonian Institute, and the FBI.

The benefits of an institute of this type are extensive. It is apparent that while the primary aid of such a conference will inevitably fall to the students attending as representatives of their schools, the values of their experiences in the capital are shared by each school as a whole.

School Closes for Christmas Season With Assembly

Nosy Baskets Displayed On Stage by Red Cross

School will be dismissed today at the close of the annual Christmas assembly, which will take place in Page Hall Auditorium at 11:00 a.m. The recess will end on Monday, January 5, at 9:00 a.m.

At the assembly, baskets of food which have been contributed by all, home roomers and faculty, will be displayed. Names of nineteen needy families in Albany have been obtained from the Ohi Welfare Department and have been allotted to the home roomers. A family is also being provided for by Phi Sigma Literary Society.

Milne Chapter of the Junior Red Cross is in charge of the food baskets.

According to Corinne Edwards, '42 president, each basket will contain the necessary articles for a Christmas dinner and will supply families with five to nine members.

Miss Edwards also stated that money for all perishable foods will be enclosed in the baskets. All baskets will be delivered to the families by the City following the assembly.

Mr. Roy York, instructor of music, will present the girls of the seventh grade during the meeting in a program of Christmas carols and songs. The Milne Band and the A Cappella choir will augment the program.

Alumni Dance Nears On Social Calender

The Christmas Alumni Dance will take place Saturday evening, December 27, from 8:00 P.M. to 11:00 P.M. in the Uncle Room of Pierce Hall, State College residence hall, which is situated on Ontario Street near Western Avenue.

Jack Lanny and his orchestra will furnish the music at the dance.

Senior School students voted to hold this dance instead of going on their annual excursion to Kingston Point in the spring. The Junior School has not yet decided how their half of the fund will be used.

Dr. Robert W. Frederick, principal, and Mrs. Frederick, together with Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Bulger, head the list of chaperones and patrons.

In the Annex

We appreciate the fact that there must be a certain amount of supervision in the Annex. There always has been in the past, and we at Milne have always cooperated to the best of our ability.

But this season, the campus supervision, we feel, has not accomplished its purpose. Instead of creating a feeling of helpfulness and cooperation, it does just the opposite—it creates an indifferent attitude and an ill-feeling.

The Annex must be kept in order, and in good shape, but there is a limit to everything. We feel that we have been unjustly accused of many mal­happenings and accused of many wrongs which we think are not out of order.

We're in the Annex less than an hour a day, and we would like to be able to relax while eating lunch instead of being reprimanded for unimportant, small things.

We offer the suggestion that Student Council appoint a committee of students to meet with the management of the Annex to arrive at a set of regulations which will be agreeable to both parties involved.

We realize that both student body and administration want to be satisfied, and we believe that this is a feasible plan of mediation.

Quiet, Please

"It is my ambition that Milne students will observe the following rules during basketball games and assemblies," Dr. Robert W. Frederick, principal, announced yesterday.

The regulations follow:

1. At basketball games, please do not boo the referee if he makes a bad decision. Let your cap­tain do any protesting that may be necessary.

2. Observe complete silence during foul shots.

3. Continue to applaud good plays, whether by ourselves or our opponents.

4. Remain silent during musical and dramatic productions in assembly programs.

If you wish to applaud clap, do not stamp feet or whistle.

How Do You Do Without Me?—It Isn't A Dream Anymore—Tommy Dorsey

This is the best record of this week and of many past weeks. Both sides, are well done by the whole Dorsey crew and vocalist Frank Sinatra and Stan Stafford. How Do You Do Without Me, was written by Dorsey's piano man and it goes at the tempo of Let's Get Away From It All. The vocal is very catchy and Sinatra puts it over with a carefree, easy-going manner that's absolutely unbeatable. Jo Stafford handles the ballad on the reverse side. This tune, It Isn't A Dream Anymore, is a new tune with a big future. The sax section is low-down solid on both sides and the Bubuhl piano blends into these perfect arrangements.

A String Of Pearls—Day Dreaming—Glen Miller—The Miller men do a grand instrumental job on A String Of Pearls. Trumpets, tenors, saxes and brass sections ride in unison and two of the sax soloists have real feeling in them. The trombones and trumpets are featured. Day Dreaming is a lovely, slow number which is top by Ray Eberle who is given back-ground by a humming chorus. The song runs along smoothly and the liner winds up the arrangement, sugar smooth.

It's Just a Dream—Walter De Leon—Theorchestra really does it. It is beautiful. The chorus and Ray do a swell job. Other side is however, very poor—Thorestation's Autumn Night is also along way back. Also recommended—It's a Beautiful Anniversary Waltz, Moonlight Masquerade and Blues In The Night.

Jimmy Dorsey just finished engagement at the Meadowbrook. He'll be here for Christmas.

Tips For Teens

You'd better prepare yourself for a shock because this war has affected quite a lot of things. The girls have started taking father's paint brush and painting themselves a pair of stockings, which don't look too bad, if you know how to do it. You've also heard that the skirts are going to be shorter; well, so are evening dresses. Skirts get short and short get long. They come to the tip of your dress. The sweaters are getting longer too. Some of them are three and four inches above the buttons of a skirt.

Well girls, we'll have to go without our saddle shoes for awhile because we can't get rubber or white elk for them. We'll have to be using plastic bobbie pins and curlers for awhile too. But don't get discouraged though. The manufacturers will find something for us to wear.

Did you see those quick, elusive, and flashy guards on the senior class team this year? They showed up well at the play day held last Saturday in Page Gym. Speaking of the play day, everyone I have spoken to, says that she had the time of her life. A few of the girls caught colds running back and forth between the big gym and the small gym. The doors were locked inside.

Margie Wright did some real playing for the juniors along with Harriet Hochstrasser. These two girls play either the forward or the guard positions, whichever will be better at the play day held last Saturday morning, December 13, in Page Gym. It was organized to help the girls of these schools to know more about the game and a little of the technique of the game.

The seniors of the respective schools played against each other in competition for the All-Star team. The juniors of the three schools played for positions on the 2nd All-Star team. While these games were going on in the Page Gym, the people who were not involved in basketball played tennis and had instruction in coaching technique, and zone guarding in the small gym under the supervision of the athletic directors for the three schools represented at the play day.

Girls Eat at 12:30

The girls adjourned at 12:30 to eat their homemade lunches in the cafeteria. After they had finished their lunch, some people went over to the same gym to dance to the nickelodian.

The All-Star game was held after the dancing in the small gym. The first All-Star team played the second All-Star team in a very exciting game. The second team, however, defeated the first team in a close score of 14-12. The girls returning to the first team were Julia Auffesser, Margarite Fellows, and Florence Ryan, for forwards. The guards were seniors at the Girls' Academy. The guards on this team were the seniors from Milne, Patricia Forward, Ethel Baldwin, and Florence Ryon.

Mr. Cochrane Forms School Fencing Club

Mr. James E. Cochrane, supervisor of English, is sponsoring a fencing club which meets every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 3:30. The group consists of three members: Robert Silverstein, Walter Austin, and Harry Mosher. The club has borrowed equipment from the Women's Physical Education Department at State College; however, if anyone who has any fencing equipment would lend it, its use would be greatly appreciated.

Mr. Cochrane, the club's instructor, stated, "Anyone who is interested in fencing should come to the club meetings and learn more about it."

Mr. Jansing said that if the group progressed satisfactorily, they would fence against the Hoosac School team in the spring.

Milne Hostess To St. Agnes, Academy Dec.12

Milne played host to the St. Agnes School and the Albany Academy School in a basketball game last Saturday morning, December 13, in Page Gym. It was organized to help the girls of these schools to know more about the game and a little of the technique of the game.

Milne Hostess To St. Agnes, Academy Dec.12

Milne played host to the St. Agnes School and the Albany Academy School in a basketball game last Saturday morning, December 13, in Page Gym. It was organized to help the girls of these schools to know more about the game and a little of the technique of the game.

The seniors of the respective schools played against each other in competition for the All-Star team. The juniors of the three schools played for positions on the 2nd All-Star team. The Milne Juniors won the preliminary by a 28-10 victory over the Greenville JV.

"Stockey" DeMoss was high scorer for the Juniors. This was the fourth victory for the Milne JV.

Now that the basketball season is in full swing we can really be proud of our team. They have made a lot of progress, and I believe they will do well this year under a fine coach.

With increased time for practice and a full time coach, the team has really gone to town. Their teamwork and coolness in the clutch is noteworthy. In such a short time, Coach Boyerhoff, the new coach, has done wonders with the team.

The JV remains undefeated after four encounters. They have passed the expectations of everyone so far. However, let's not look at past records; you can't win games with that. The season is early and there are still many games to be played.

The student body should attend regular gym classes.

Varsity Loses to Schuyler 34-30; J.V. Continues its Winning Streak

Detwiler and Poole Capture Scoring Honors, 7 Points

The Milne Varsity basketball team suffered its first setback Friday night at the hands of the Schuyler Falcons. Milne showed great strength in their first real test. The heavily favored Falcons won by four points, 34-30.

At the quarter the score was 7 all. Schuyler held a three point lead at the half, 18-15. High scorers for Milne were Poole and Detwiler with seven points each. It was the first defeat for Milne in three starts.

J.V. Wins 27-36

The Junior Varsity continued on the undefeated trail with a sensational 27-36 win over the Schuyler JV. It was a hard fought game and the best team came on top. Milne showed real speed and teamwork in their third victory. Ted DeMoss was high scorer for Milne.

"Sarily" Mort Swartz dropped in the last point for Milne on a technical foul about three minutes before the final whistle. It was a real Frank Merrill finish.

Sports Shorts

The December 1941 issue of the Crimson and White, a student newspaper, features articles on sports and extracurricular activities at the school. The content includes news about the sports teams, particularly basketball, and discussions on the upcoming Christmas vacation. The sports section highlights individual achievements and team successes, with a focus on the Milne Varsity basketball team's victory over Schuyler and their continued winning streak. The newsletter also mentions the formation of the Girls' Athletic Council and the upcoming Christmas meeting of the Council of Ten. The issue concludes with a list of sports shorts and an announcement for a Girls' Athletic Council held meeting for the small gym last Friday morning, December 7.
English Classes Buy New Books

The senior English classes decided to purchase currently featured books with the money set aside for the leisure reading booklets. Each senior wrote a list of the books which he wanted to own as a class. It will be possible for every book requested to be bought. The books on hand are:

- Botany Bay, Nordanoff, and Hall;
- This Above All, Knight; H. M. Pulham, Esq., Exh. of the Kingdom, Cronin; The Sun Is My Undoing, Stein; The Book of Claudia, Frank; Mr. and Mrs. Cugat, Rosic; I'm a Stranger Here themselves, Nash; Saratoga Trunk, Ferber; Big Family, Partridge; Berlin Diary, Shaw; Out of the Night, Vaill; Reveille in Washington, Leach.

Other new books on the list include Wuthering Heights, by Mary Ellen Chase, which is just off the press, and Tennessee Farmer by Carl Carmer, which has not been released to the public.

John Wilson, '42, is constructing a bookcase in room 233 for the exclusive housing of the senior library.

First Air Raid Alarm Is Success — Frederick

"Milne students responded in the best possible manner to our test air raid alarm on Tuesday afternoon when the first alarm was given." Robert W. Frederick, principal.

"They rightly observed calm and quiet during the alert. The Traffic Squad and faculty took their places in the corridor and had no difficulty in enforcing the air raid rules. Plans for orderly evacuation of the building are being drawn up and will probably be put into effect in another practice some time next semester," continued Dr. Frederick.

"In line with our policy of cooperation with the federal authorities during the war, Milne students will probably be asked to buy defense bonds and saving stamps in the near future. We of Milne wish to do everything possible to contribute to our nation's war effort," he concluded.

Senior Student Council Continues Full Schedule

The Senior Student Council, at its meeting on Wednesday, December 10, discussed appropriating money for the use of a photographer for the next senior high dance.

Edward Bookstein, '43, presented a report on the progress of the preparations for the alumni dance. Alton Wilson, '42, president of the Council, suggested that at least forty dollars be appropriated to buy new song books for the choir. The choir would use the books in the spring concert. The council decided to let the matter rest for a while.

The council appointed Richard Bates to find a more suitable date for the next senior high dance, which had been scheduled for January.

Name Milne Men In Armed Forces

History Department States Graduates In U. S. Service

Miss Elizabeth Shaver announced the first list of Milne alumni in the armed forces on Monday.

"This list is by no means complete, and the history department will appreciate cooperation in obtaining the names of former Milne students now in the defense of their country. If you have friends or relatives to the above applies, please notify the history department at once," requests Miss Shaver.

Grads All Over Nation

Frederick Hall Jr., '25, who attended West Point, is now an officer in the U.S. Army. Howard K. Eggertson Jr., '27, is with the Engineering Corps, Roger. K. Towne, '31, graduated from V. M. I. and is now stationed at Fort Dix.

Amos Moscrip Jr., '32, is now at Fort Benning, Ga., after completing an army communications course. Robert Harding, '33, is with the Marines after finishing his officer candidates course. Candidates Coast at the Coast Artillery School, Fort Monroe, Va.

Roosa, '33, In Pacific

James Roosa, '33, is now a first lieutenant in the Army, and is serving in the Pacific at Fort Kamehameha, Hawaii. Roosa attended West Point last year.

Frederick C. Carr and his brother, John J. Carr attended Milne for a year and both are now in the Army. Fred is with the Finance Department at Fort Dix, and John is a first lieutenant in the First Bombardment Squadron stationed at Trinidad, Arnold J. Davis, class of 29, is now a sergeant in the Anti-Tank Battalion. Robert Harding, '38, is also at Fort Benning.

Edward Bookstein, '38, is with the Army Air Corps at Jacksonville, Fla. Richard Selkirk, '39, is now a second lieutenant in the Army, stationed at Fort Benning. Roosa also is here and will probably be assigned to the 20th Bombardment Squadron stationed at Washington, D.C., where he has been stationed. At least one new member of the group is in the Pacific, and the names of former Milne students will probably be put into effect in April and some even till May. There is no indication of the money required for this purpose as the money received as the scholarships as the money is given to the early applicants.

Dr. Kenney, has also been interviewing sophomores and junior high in regard to their schedules all this week. Scholarship lists will be posted on the bulletin board soon. All students required to take the scholarship aptitude test of the college entrance examination board.

"All students required to take the scholarship aptitude test of the college entrance examination board should check their programs carefully and make sure they have selected the correct course in the early part of January," he added.

Milne A Cappella Choir Broadcasts Over WGY

The Milne A Cappella choir sang on station WGY on Monday, December 18, at 12:45 p.m. on "The Farm Paper of the Air." This is a regular monthly program on which Dr. Robert W. Frederick, principal of the Milne School, appears once a month.

The selections on the program were: The Milne Alms Mater, arranged by Mr. Roy York; O Bon, arranged by Walt Wider; Wider also did the Wall, Carol of the Birds, and Ades Fidelis.

A large transcription record was made of the broadcast, and a group of students listened to the recording in The Little Theatre at 3:30 p.m. Monday afternoon.

"Records will be cut for regular machines and sold to the students," announced Mr. York.

Hi-Y Passes Milne Bill At N.Y. State Assembly

The bill Milne sent to the State Hi-Y Assembly was passed unanimously by the Assembly. The bill will now go to the State Legislature for the early session next year.

"Reformation of Abarneed Farms" is the Milne Hi-Y bill presented to the State Hi-Y convention last weekend. It was passed by the assembly with only one dissenting voice. Charles Goldfinch, '43, and Stanley Ball, '42, were prominent in the campaign to get the bill passed.

Frieda Horn, '43, and Richard Horn, '33, were prominent in the campaign to get the bill passed. While in New Mexico, Plunkett hopes to see the Acoma Island, Carlsbad's Cavern and other interesting sites. He might go to Taos, New Mexico if time permits.

Dr. Hartley Addresses Senior School Students

Dr. William Hartley, director of the Audio-Visual education department, addressed the senior school students Thursday, December 11, in the Page Hall auditorium at 10:10 a.m. on the topic of "Movies for Milne Men and Maids."

The purpose of the talk was to inform and give knowledge of the mechanics and the advantages of an Audio-Visual education department.

Dr. Hartley spoke on the ways in which the students may benefit and presented. To illustrate his talk, he showed a movie which he made himself, and explained his methods in doing it.
