Seniors to Lunch
In Little Gym
To Relieve Annex
The senior class will take over its new lunch room, the Little Gym in Milne, on Monday morning, November 9, at 11 a.m., as a temporary solution to the seating problem in the annex.

This is the result of an investigation by the Student Council, which met on Monday morning, November 9, at 8:30 a.m., on the overcrowding conditions in the annex during the 11 a.m. lunch period.

The Student Council has looked over the facts presented to them and has approved the following plan to be followed by the students: Seniors will eat their lunch in the Little Gym every day of the week. All the other students will eat, as usual, in the annex or the cafeteria. However, the absence of one class each day, which consists of approximately 70 pupils, will be responsible for collecting contributions from the home room that get material directly from the Little Gym.

All Classes To Take Part
In the previous years only a few senior high boys and girls have taken part in editing the Bricks and Ivy. But this year it will be a project with all classes taking part.

At the meeting, the staff drew up an outline for the contents of the Bricks and Ivy. As usual, seniors will use the bulk of the book with each having a picture and other contributions. Societies and other organizations will be represented by group photographs. Informal snapshots collected during the year will be included.

The committee in charge of the book will be decided upon by the staff later in the year. Miss Grace Martin, supervisor of art, directed the staff and will be responsible for collecting contributions from the home room.

To Decide Theme Later
The theme and organization of the book will be decided upon by the staff later in the year. Miss Mary Elizabeth Conklin, supervisor of English, will have charge of the written material, and Miss Grace Martin, supervisor of art, will supervise the art material and the general appearance of the book.

Lee Mapes and Miriam Steinhardt head the art and literary staffs respectively. Other appointments of editing offices have not yet been named.

Home Room Representatives
Representatives who participated in the meeting are as follows: Bob Marsh, 333, Nancy French, 124, Meg Hunting, 233, Eleanor Yapuda, 129, Betty Stone, 138, Barbara Hewes, Art, David Packard, 323, Marilyn Miller, 136, Jean Pinnell, 236, Ann Silverman, 327, Lois Prescott, 329, Joanne Scott, 127, and Ruth LeVine, 339. Representatives from any home rooms not listed here should attend the weekly meetings every Thursday at 3:30 p.m., in the Art room.

Representatives to Plan
Yearbook for 1942, '43
Members of the staff of the Bricks and Ivy, the Milne yearbook, conducted their first meeting of the year on Tuesday, October 22, under the supervision of Miss Grace Martin, supervisor of art.

The committee met on Monday, November 2, at 4 p.m., in the Art Lounge, Richardson Hall.

Those representing Milne are as follows: Dr. Frederick, Mrs. Anna K. Barsam, Instructor in Home Economics; Natalie Mann '43, and Harry Mosher '44.

Vacation at Last!
Have you heard? There will be a holiday this Wednesday, November 11 on Armistice Day. This will be the first day of vacation that the students of Milne have had since school started in September 29.

For almost seven weeks, or 56 school days, to be exact, the high and girls of Milne have faithfully attended school while other students have had advantage of teachers conventions and minor holidays. The Milne pupils have worked hard and deserve this rest, so—have fun!

Literary Societies
Sponsor Dance
The Theta Nu-Adelphi Literary Society dance will take place in the State College Lounge November 13, from 8:00 to 12:30 p.m.

For the first time, this dance will be informal and decorations will not be used.

The committee in charge of the dance is headed by two co-chairmen, Russell Langwig, '43, of Adelphi, and Edward Bartstein, '43, of Theta Nu. Members of the committee are Ben Van Acker, Roy Rand, Nicky Mitchell, and Stanley Heidrich, seniors.

The ticket committee will sell tickets for $1.10 to any non-society member who wishes to attend the dance. Society men will be assessed tickets for $1.10 to any non-society member who wishes to attend the dance. In Broad Directive
Ten Rules Are Listed
In Broad Directive
Ten challenging rules have been drawn up by the Albany Student War Council for all pupils of Albany schools to follow. These rules were drawn up during the Council's fourth meeting, which was held on Monday, November 2, at 4 p.m.

Richard Bates, president of the Council, and also head of the Milne student organization, said: "This is the first concrete step the Council has taken to organize the schools of the city for war work.

We believe this is a big one, and it must have the whole-hearted cooperation of all of the various student associations in order to prove a success.

Buy War Bonds and Stamps

The rules are listed by Bates as follows:

1. Every student should make it a daily practice to buy War Bonds or Savings Stamps. Students must contribute their utmost through regular contributions.

2. No more joy-riding. Travel by automobile must be avoided wherever possible. Pupils must get to school walking, or taking a bus over longer distances. This holds true on informal dates.

3. No school societies or other organizations should order pins, rings, or other insignia until the war is over. These take away valuable metals from the war effort, as well as valuable manpower.

'Warsages' From Now On
In addition to cutting down on the number of formal dances to be held this year, corsages are going out, and 'warsages' are coming in.

"Just in case you didn't know it," said Bates, "warsages" are small bouquets made up of paper flowers and Defense Stamps. These may not be as pretty as the old kind of corsages, but they certainly are much more practical. So 'warsages' it is for the duration.

Don't mail your Christmas cards to people you see every day. This merely overworks the post-office staff. Try to deliver all the cards you can in person.

6. The purchase of useless Christmas gifts must be avoided this year. If you are buying a present for someone, think first of practicality. You can't go wrong on War Bonds or Stamps.

7. Students must be ready at all times for possible emergencies.
November 11, 1943 - - What?

Once again November 11 appears on the calendar. This date commemorates the signing of the Armistice closing the first World War. This signing occurred just twenty-four years ago this Wednesday. Today, millions of people all over the world are looking forward to the day when a new armistice will be signed to preserve democracy.

In years gone by, Armistice Day just meant a day of vacation from school for many of us. Today, more than ever before, it takes on a new meaning. Many of the boys reading this editorial now, will be in the armed service of Uncle Sam by next Armistice Day in 1943. It is truly a grave situation today. The drafting of our eighteen and nineteen year old boys for active military service is no longer a mere topic of conversation, but it is a reality, which everyone in our generation must face. The majority of boys in the senior classes in high schools all over the country are now eighteen or will be by next September, when they would normally enter college. It is these boys who are being deprived of their education and future plans. They are the ones who will fight to preserve the principles of our great country.

Armistice Day will be observed this Wednesday. This is a holiday and when we should give great consideration to our next Armistice. Are you doing all you can to do your part in the war effort? Why don’t you buy some extra war stamps or bonds this week to show that you’re behind those boys on the front, and that you will be behind your own classmates when they go to fight for you?

It seemed that everyone endured the strain of a hectic Halloween weekend and evenly tucked back to school Monday morning. There were more parties and goings on then we have room for. Peggy Stovall said that it was the season for witches and goblins. She had a few witches, or better known in these parts as “hags,” for the evening. The sophomore girls had her a better bet and needed the police to keep all those masqueraders away from their door. They said it was a bunch of sophomore and senior boys who all got the idea for the same costume. Isn’t it queer that they shouldn’t be wolves? So much for Hal­lo­we’en. . . . Election day—football—they always tie up with each other. The Albany High—CBA game had more Milnites there than their own students. Why, oh why, do the girls always prefer the CBA side, while the boys continue to cheer for their neighbor, Albany High? It couldn’t be those uniforms, could it?

From the looks of the cafeterias, the girls are going in for baking. Last week Janice Huff baked the most delicious chocolate cake for Audrey Blume’s birthday. It was a little better luck and needed the police to keep all those masqueraders away from their door. They said it was a bunch of sophomore and senior boys who all got the idea for the same costume. Isn’t it queer that they shouldn’t be wolves? So much for Hal­lo­we’en. . . . Election day—football—they always tie up with each other. The Albany High—CBA game had more Milnites there than their own students. Why, oh why, do the girls always prefer the CBA side, while the boys continue to cheer for their neighbor, Albany High? Senior Spotlight

Richard Bates

Some six years ago, there hailed to Milne a little brown-haired girl with great big brown eyes. Second in a long line of Bates, was Rich­ard Torrence who has won the friendship of all. Best known for his perpetual grin and wonderful sense of humor, Dick has taken part in many of Milne’s activities. During his junior year, he was a staff member of the CRIMSON AND WHT; business manager of Hi-Y; master of ceremonies of Adelphi; treasurer of Student Council; and in charge of the sale of war stamps and bonds.

5 Years in Council

After completing five years on the Student Council, he was elected president at the end of his junior year. Also this year, he is on the Music Council, librarian of the椅子 and president of the War Council.

Outside of school, Bates is an inactive member of the Boy Scouts of America.

There is nothing that Dick hates more than a quiet evening at home, unless it is a Good Friday or Good Saturday. Dick tries to do some reading or writing. In school, he is most interested in athletics and business law. Outside of school, he prefers to eat and walk. Anytime, he loves to laugh.

Dick Likes to Eat

Dick likes to eat anything but especially, waffles and sausages, also spaghetti. James is his favorite band and “Pray the Lord and Pass the Ammunition,” his song.

Dick wants to be a journalist but if he must go into the service he prefers the Army.

His vices are few, and he dis­approves of smoking and drinking. Dick likes blondes who are sincere and have a sense of humor. That’s a pretty good description of some­one we know, huh?

Girls Hockey Team Defeats Foes at Schenectady

Deaf at Academy, NYSC
And Nott Terrace High;
Scores: 1-0, 3-0, 4-0

Starting off the interscholastic hockey season, Milne girls varsity overcame three local high schools at the Schenectady playday, Saturday, October 31, 1942. Those teams falling before the invincible eleven were Albany Academy for Girls, New York State College for Teachers, and Nott Terrace High School.

Sparked by the brilliant playing of Captain Ruth Ketler, the team won by the scores of 1-0, 3-0, 4-0, respectively. Jean Figarsky, '44, goal keeper, prevented the attacking teams from scoring throughout the three games.

Win Hard Battle

The hardest fought battle, against the Academy, was won by the narrow margin of 1-0. In the opening minutes of the game, the forward line skillfully passed the ball to the attacking circle from where Marjorie Wright made the lone tally of the game. In the remaining part, both teams held their own, neither being able to score.

Girls to Attend Hockey Playday

After a successful playday last week-end at Schenectady, a group of Milne junior and senior girls will attend another this Saturday, November seventeenth to participate in a hockey playday at the Saint Agnes Academy. Other teams taking part are Kenwood, Bethlehem Central, Albany Academy, and State College for Teachers.

The day, which begins at 10:30 a.m., will be spent playing hockey. Teams from each school will separate and mix. For example, Milne's forward line will be composed of Marjorie Mann, center forward, Natalie Wright, left inner, Marjorie Steinhardt, center forward, Natalie Wright, right inner, Marjorie Mann, left wing, Captain Ruth Ketler, center halfback, Ruth Taylor, left halfback, Miriam Steinhardt, right halfback, June Brookman, right fullback, Harriet Hochstrasser, left fullback, Jean Figarsky, goal, Kitten Wheeler, center halfback, and Patricia Peterson, fullback.

BAC to Start Sale of Season Basketball Passes

"Season basketball tickets will soon be on sale, and we expect to make this year's drive a success," stated Hal Game, '43, co-chairman of the Boys' Athletic Council. Price of tickets this year are $1.50. A holder of a pass is entitled to admission to the eight home Milne games with only four cents tax each time the pass is used. Regular admission to a single game is $3.40. By using a season pass the purchaser saves $8.20, for the season.

The drive is under the sponsorship of the Boys' Athletic Council, as it was last year. The tickets will be sold throughout the home season. Last year the homeroom selling the most tickets was the Artroom. For his accomplishment, the BAC presented them with a trophy.

The schedule is practically all set for the season and it will be published in the next issue of the CRIMSON AND WHITE.

Outstanding was the defensive accomplishment, the BAC presented them with a trophy.

Game, Edick Are New Co-Chairmen of B. A. C.

The Boys' Athletic Council for this year has selected the following members: Hal Game, '43, and George Edick, '43, co-chairmen; Russ Steinhardt, '43, Tom Dyer, '43, Tony Detweiler, '43, Bill Ball, Robert Beckett, and Alvin Bingham, juniors.

The boys are recently working on the new boys' basketball team. They take care of procuring equipment and all other important matters in running the sports program. This year they have run into great difficulty in getting equipment.

War Bond Drive Keeps to Schedule

Citywide Campaign Nets Over $7,500 In Month

Richard Bates, president of the Albany War Council, has revealed that the halfway mark has been passed in the citywide bonds and stamps campaign. All the schools of Albany, under the direction of the War Council, are cooperating in a drive to raise $15,000 before December 7, the date on which America entered the war.

"Students in schools throughout the city have been spontaneous in their purchase of over $7,500 worth of War Bonds and Savings Stamps to date," said Bates. "If sales continue at the present rate, the goal of $15,000 will probably be surpassed before December 7. The War Council wishes to thank each and every one of you who have contributed to this campaign."

"However," continued Bates, "we must not fall back in our traces and take things easy at this stage of the game. We must not be satisfied to think of what we have already done, but we must constantly strive to do more. We should all try to increase our purchases of bonds and stamps, and make them on a regular weekly or daily basis."

Forrest Willis, master of ceremonies on the John G. Myers "Musical Clock," will cooperate with the War Council by broadcasting a day to day account of the progress of the drive. It is expected that this publicity will add greatly to the success of the campaign, according to a statement from Bates.

Milne Students to Journey To Hudson Conference

Milne will send representatives to the third annual conference of the Hudson High Forum on Thursday, December 17, from 1 to 7 p.m., in Hudson, New York.

The topic of the conference will be "Youth's Part in the War." Sub-topics to be considered are: After High School Graduation—What? What are the Schools doing to help win the war? What can I as an individual do to help win this war?

Following a general assembly program, group discussions will be conducted.

Students who will participate in the conference are Shirley Atkinson, John Culp, '43, Tom McCracken, '44, and Greta Beth, '44.

Inter-Society Council Elects New Officers

The 1942-43 Inter-Society Council met on Friday, October 30 for election of the year officers. William Soper, '43, of Adelphi Literary Society is the new president. Other officers are vice-president, Harry Culp, '43, Theta Nu Literary Society, and secretary, Dr. Carlton A. Moore, supervisor in Science.

The membership of the council includes Ted DeMoss, '43, and Bill includes Ted DeMoss, '43, and Bill Soper, '43, of Adelphi; Harry Culp, '43, and Stanley Hendrich, '43, of Adelphi; Harry Culp, '43, and Stanley Hendrich, '43, of Phi Sigma. The representatives from the girls' societies have not been included in the Inter-Society directory.

The faculty advisers of the council are Mr. Harlan Raymond, supervisor in industrial arts; Mr. James P. Connor, supervisor in English, and Dr. Carlton A. Moore, supervisor in science.

times to cooperate with the High School Victory Corps, or any other project which might be set forth by the government.

8. Students must cooperate willingly, and help whenever and wherever possible, all relief organizations, such as the Red Cross, and the Army and Navy Relief.

9. In general, we must all learn to follow this motto: serve, conserve.

10. Last, but perhaps most important, we must be willing to give our time to the prosecution of the war. This can be done in many ways. Any student who feels he or she is not doing as much as he could be doing to aid in the war effort has only to speak to Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald in the City Hall. Through her, many worthwhile student projects have been undertaken. Your help is needed, no matter who you are or what you are already doing.

"Since the Milne student body sponsored the Victory Council, it would be only fitting for Milmites to be the first to give their cooperation to Uncle Sam through this plan," said Bates. "We don't want the other schools to get ahead of us."

Whoever visits the Crimson and White:
1. In a previous letter which I received from my mother, she in­closed an edition of the Crimson and White. Although I am in the Army and supposed to be a hard boiled sergeant, I still do have soft spots in my heart. One of these soft spots happens to be my school days at Milne. Even though some of the names mentioned are unfamiliar to me, the news and the articles made me stop and think about the days when I attended Milne. My wife Virginia Nichols, class '39, spent the remainder of the evening reminiscing about the wonderful time we had at Milne.

2. I attended Milne 4½ years, and I fully believe that this year's Crimson and White tops all of them. I attended the newspaper conference in New York City last May, and I wish it were possible for me to attend the conference this year with your Crimson and White because I feel that it will take the highest award.

3. My duties at Tyndall Field are Chief Clerk in the Range Office of the Department of Training. We are endeavoring to turn out serial gun­nery students. These men, upon graduation will more than likely be sent to combat duty. Although my job is one that keeps me at a desk, I am doing my part to help win this war to preserve the Democracy of this country which we all love and cherish.

4. If, at any time, your paper needs a viewpoint from a soldier in need a viewpoint from a soldier in Army life, I will be more than glad to send you my view­point.
