New Instructor Joins Milne Staff

Frieda Klaiman Comes From Massachusetts

Miss Frieda Klaiman, new music instructor, comes to Milne from Malden, Massachusetts. She is a graduate of State Teachers College at Lowell, Mass., where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Education. Upon leaving Lowell, Miss Klaiman traveled to Teachers College, Columbia University, and received her Master of Arts degree in Music.

Miss Klaiman has a varied amount of experience. When she left Columbia University, she went back to Malden, Mass., her native city, to teach music for eight consecutive years. She is a member of the Boston Women's Symphony Orchestra and belongs to the Handel and Haydn Choral Society in Boston, one of the oldest choral societies in the country. Miss Klaiman was Concert Mistress of the Merrimac College Orchestra. She has taught in many settlement houses and at summer camps.

When asked her impression of Milne, Miss Klaiman replied, "It's one of the nicest places I've ever been, both as to faculty and student body."

Milne's Choir seems headed for a most successful year, if everyone belonging to the Choir co-operates fully with Miss Klaiman in every matter.

Cab Calloway Stars at Palace; Started in High School Band

Hi-de-ho or didn't you see Cab Calloway's show at the Palace? The repartee singer starred in and was M.C. for the Cotton Club Review, on tour. A variety of dazzling acts, all with colored entertainers, were presented.

Cab started his musical career in the Rochester High School orchestra, where he played drums in a concert. When he finished high school, he started to study law but gave it up in 1928 to sing with a small local band. Shortly after he started singing professionally, he organized his own musical group.

When Duke Ellington toured Europe, Cab Calloway succeeded him as the foremost Negro bandleader in America. He wrote "Minnie the Moocher," for example, that clicked, and in 1941 recorded "Blues in the Night." Nearly one million copies of this record were sold, and that ain't half, brother.

When asked if he knew any special reason why so many Negroes play exceptional boogie-woogie and hot lick trumpets, he replied, "It's because that's the style of music that they like to play."

Cab has made a number of pictures, the latest one, "Stormy Weather."

If you liked the zoot suit that Cab wears, you can get one like it for $13.00, if the O.P.A. doesn't catch you. Then you'll be quote, "A drip in a droop drop."

We would like to express our appreciation to David Goldberg and his father for aid in obtaining this interview.

Incidentally, the next time you think that you're working too hard, think of the fact that Hi-de-do Cab Calloway puts on and relax.

New Leaders Elected At Hi-Y Meeting

The Milne Hi-Y organization elected its officers for the coming year Wednesday evening, October 6, at the Albany YMCA. Alvin Bingham, president, who was elected last year, headed the meeting. The officers elected were: president, Bill Baker; vice-president, Bill Baker; secretary, Tom Dyer; treasurer, John Hutchinson; sergeant-at-arms, David Ball; and chaplain, Charles Hopkins.

Hi-Y plans to send the CRIMSON AND WHITE to alumnae in service again this year. Stated President Bingham, "We hope to have a successful year."

Typing Club Selects Officers

The Typing Club of the Junior School met in room 220 on Wednesday, October 6, to elect officers. The results of the elections are as follows: Mary Jane Fiske, leader; Catherine Bacon, publicity director; Dr. Robert W. Frederick, principal, Leonard Jones, president of the Senior Student Council, and Derwent Anger, president of the Junior Council, will preside.
Buy More Stamps!

A seeming reversal of purchase of bonds and stamps has taken place in Milne High so far this year. Only about $200 in war stamps have been bought so far, after three weeks of school, too.

This is not the kind of record Milne wants. Last year Milne and all the city schools exceeded their quotas. Now is not the time to quit. A quota of $25,000 has been set by the student war council for Albany schools, to be reached by December 7.

What we want is 100% of the students buying regularly. 90% is not enough. Don’t forget about this matter. Stamps and bonds can be purchased at the Milne bank by Dr. Cooper’s office. Betty Baskin from the senior class has again undertaken the chairmanship of the campaign along with several other students.

Let’s get behind the drive and get out all the spare money we can find. We must exceed the quota set for Milne.

Pay That Student Tax!

A surprising number of students have not yet paid either their student tax, book fees, or tuition. These all should be paid promptly so that the student functions can be successfully carried out. The student council, evidently, cannot make out a budget if it does not have the money on which to make the budget.

The older students are much more lax in payment of these debts than the younger junior.

milne merry-go-round

If anyone dares to mention worms, fisheyes, black stockings or alum to Pat Gouler, Janice O’Connell, Frances Morris, or Sue Hoyt, I’m sure they won’t get a hearty welcome. You see initiation for Beta Delta Nu was Friday night . . . Jean Dorsey, absent from the initiation, went to Boston for a delightful weekend . . .

Friday night seeing Cab Calloway were couples Roxy Becker, Bill Baker, Ann Graham, Jim Detwiler, Eve Morgan, Bob Phinney, Ruth Welch, George Myer. Stenam Second Class Johnny Mosher was home this week. He went back to Sampson Wednesday. To quote Johnny, “The Navy sure’s the stuff” . . .

The Junior High had its annual reception last weekend. The seventh grade was well represented with the old faithful tea step . . . Pete Ball was among the missing, another “Dutch” among our corridors? Ninth graders: who are they there are Winnie Haul, John Taylor; Mabel Martin, Tris Coffin; and Nancy Bearup and John Thompson . . . Let’s all hope that the Senior High Reception coming up the 23rd will be as big a success. It’s up to you boys.

Two football games held the attention of our Milne sports fans. One was an Academy game; attending the game were Jeannette Price, Pete Hunting, Eve Mallory, and Bertha Blee. The other was a Dean Brehm, Dick Grace, Loraine Weber, Larry Clarke, Nancy Clarke, Eugene St. Louis, Chuck Terry, Peg Gallivan and Ann Graham. Pat Galvin. Parano’s invasion of the Junior boys was successfully repulsed . . .

On Thursday Franklin Kirk and Barbara Smith joined the cheerleading squad. Perhaps now we’ll get some response from the boys in the bleachers. G.A.C. too, added new members: the Barabara-Arnold and Smith, Phoebe Heidenreich and Margaret Kibby.

Frank Ryan is waiting to join the Merchant Marines . . . Ensign Harry Grogan is the proud father of twin boys delivered Oct. 11, 1943.

Many Thanks

At the beginning of the year, the CRIMSON AND WHITE again found itself without a room which could be used all day. For last year, the paper fortunately obtained 224, but could not continue to use it this year.

Through the efforts of Miss Idna Waite, Mr. Roach and Miss Wheeling, the newspaper obtained its old headquarters, Room 233.

We want to thank Miss Waite immensely for her work in rescheduling class rooms and Miss Wheeling and Mr. Roach who kindly consented to have their classes moved around a bit.

The staff of the CRIMSON AND WHITE, on behalf of the student body, wish to express our most sincere sympathy to Dr. Ralph B. Kenney in the passing of his father, Mr. L. C. Kenney, who died last Monday, high students. Perhaps this can be attributed to the fact that many more of the senior high students are themselves responsible for paying these debts while the parents of the younger students pay these and quite promptly too.

The older students should realize that if they are responsible for paying these obligations they should get it done right away. This is the end of the fourth week of school.

Get these loose ends cleared up so that several different offices do not have to continually send notices around to the home rooms.

Senior Spotlight

Jean Dorsey

If I said I was writing about the little girl who was chairman of the Welfare Committee and chairman of the Camp Committee five years ago, I doubt if you would know whom I meant.

Maybe you could remember back four years ago, when she was vice-president of her homeroom (125). She also was very active in sports. In the freshman class she joined the cheerleading squad and since that year she has been cheering the team on to victory.

Zeta Sigma welcomed a new member in 1941 and the Hockey team acquired a new captain (all in one year).

Junior President

Again, in the junior year, she was elected by her homeroom to be the president to keep the class in order (and believe it or not, she managed).

This year this vivacious cheerleader is at the head of the cheerleading squad and working very hard at her new job. We know that the job isn’t easy but we all have confidence in her.

By now you know the name of the girl who is being talked about. Almost everyone knows Jean, either by her friendliness or by the habitual enthusiasm that she has for everything she undertakes.

Jean has a passion for yellow socks, chocolate cake with boiled icing, and conservative dressers (except for socks).

Pet Rates

The two things she definitely hates are: pumps and ankle socks together, and striped and plaid combinations.

This summer Jean divided her time between Poulincy, Vermont, Lake George, and Albany, New York.

Last Friday, a certain Miss Dorsey left the great city of Albany to journey to Boston, Mass. to see her sister-in-law to be, to take in the sights. She had a wonderful time, from all reports, and if she were given the opportunity, Jean would take the next train back—she liked the colleges very much.

A few P. S. s—This year Jean also holds that important job of business manager of G. A. C. and she is planning a very interesting program for Zeta Sigma as Mistress of Ceremonies.
Intramural Games Start;
All Boys Play Football

By Bruce Hansen

Boys gym classes from the 7th grade to the 12th grade are now engaged in stiff competition to see which of them will form football squads under Coach Tanno.

In the 7th grade, the Lancers are leading the league. They have won 2 and tied 3, against no losses. The Spiders are not far behind with one win, 3 ties and one loss.

In the 8th grade, the Termites are the present champs. They have won four of their games, tied 3 and lost none. The Tigers, Chicago Bears and the Slow Poles come next. The Tigers have won all of their games except one. The Cardinals and the Hopelesses are in the cellar. The Hopelesses seem to be really hopeless. They have tied 2 games and lost 6. So far in the 8 games they have played, they have not scored a single point.

Three- Way Tie

In the ninth grade, there is a 3-way tie for first place. The Warriors, Beetles and the Blackouts have each lost one game out of eight.

The Grasshoppers are in second place with one game won, 5 games tied, and 2 losses.

In Grade 10, the Clinkers are on top of the league. They have lost but one game out of 8 played. The Cheers and the Blackbusters are tied for second place, each of them losing 2 games. The Lemons, under the capable leadership of Jim Myers, '44, are third, but Jim says, "We expect to win the pennant." The Grapes are in fourth place with one win and two losses against no losses. The Stars are in the cellar, winning only one game out of 8.

Six- Team League

Grade 11 has a six-team league. The Hillbillies and the H.T.O.s are tied for first place, each of them unbeaten and unscorced against. The Butts are also unbeaten and unscorced against, but they haven't scored anything themselves yet. The Skuils are in second place with one win and one tie against two losses. The Murderers and Woodpeckers are tied in last place. They have not won a game.

The seniors have only a four-team league. Each team has played only one game so far this season. The Ball Busters beat the Dodgers 25-23, and the Jerks beat the Guns by a score of 12-6. This ties the Ball Busters and the Jerks for first place.

The seniors are having a great deal of trouble in keeping their league going. There have been complaints about the officiating. The seniors have been playing. This is due to the fact that hardly any of the boys attend gym classes for some reason or other. None of the other classes have encountered this trouble. All the games are played on the front lawn.

Milne Office Displays
Beets Picked by Pupils

By Jack McGrath

The beets that the senior school pulled last October 13 have been processed. If any seniors high school students wish to see the product of their labors they may regard the strained beets on display in the main office.

Mr. Holmes wishes to express his gratitude for the aid of the students who helped with the harvesting of the red beets.

The money that would have been paid to the harvesters will probably be used to purchase uniforms for the basketball team.

The G. A. C. has finally started for this year. Pete Spandau, '45, was named president; Sue Hoyt, '44, secretary; Barbara Broockman, '45, is vice-president; Jean Dorsey, '44, business manager; Robert Walsh, '45, assistant business manager.

The members, besides the officers, are: Janice O'Clellian, '44, Joyce Stanton, '44, Jean Figorsky, '44, Barbara Richardson, '44, Ann Robinson, '44, Jean Bronson, '44, Marion Arnold, '44, Barbara Smith, '44, Phoebe Heidenreich, '44, Mary Kilby, '46. It's a great lineup and with a council like that, Milne has a lot to look forward to.

Hockey Starts

Hockey is here again. The higher grades take every advantage to play, so it's going quite strongly. It's unfortunate to see that there hasn't been a real gym teacher to instruct the younger classes in Hockey. They want to play, but without instruction, they might hurt themselves.

Of course the hockey players now are much the worse. Barbara Leslie got a hockey stick in the head, Nancy Knapp fainted, and Neil Bright has a sprained ankle from it all.

Red Mixup

The games are even more interesting, trying to distinguish the boys' football games from our intramural hockey game. In the end, the boys have the stick and the girls are tackling themselves with the football.

The sophomores and the seniors played on Wednesday the first intramural hockey game. Jean Dorsey was the star of the game, being credited with three goals, while Elaine Blascham's finger is scraped, Ann Graham, '45, twisted her wrist and Joyce Knapp, '44, practically broke her leg.

The ninth grade girls are much the worse. Barbara Leslie got a hockey stick in the head, Nancy Knapp fainted, and Neil Bright has a sprained ankle from it all.

Ruth Welsh, '46, helps "beet" the Axis on the Holmes farm.

Red Cross Elects Gotier
President for Coming Year

The Red Cross conducted its first meeting last Friday to elect officers for the coming year:

President: Pat Gotier
Vice-President: Nancy Parks
Secretary: Betty Gallup
Treasurer: Norma Johnson
Faculty Sponsor: Mrs. Anna Barsom

The organization has meetings every Friday at 12:27 in the Home Economics Room. Anyone interested may join, according to Mrs. Barsom.

The organization is forming plans for giving collections of Christmas cards, and decorations for the boys in the Army camps.

Pat Gotier, the new president, states, "With the full cooperation of all Milne, we will have a successful year."
Senior High Hears Correspondent

Jack Mahon Tells Stories Of South Pacific Warfare

At a surprise assembly, Monday, October 4, senior high students heard first hand stories about war in the South Pacific from an accredited correspondent, Mr. Jack Mahon. Mr. Mahon, attired in the regulation army officer's uniform, addressed the students for almost half an hour. To distinguish him as a correspondent, however, he wore small green stripes on each shoulder with the words, "War Correspondent." Over his left breast pocket he wore various campaign stripes from the South Pacific area.

Formerly a sportswriter for the Daily News in New York and INS, he became an accredited correspondent and was sent to the South Pacific area. He flew from Hawaii to the Solomon area on a large army bomber. He had to stand up or sit on the floor of the plane for the whole trip.

When he first arrived, he was surprised to find that hotel accommodations were supplied to the reporters. When he first saw his room, he found that it really wasn't much of a hotel, but practically a pig pen, with plenty of bugs. Mr. Mahon said, "Some of the cockroaches were so big they had to put saddles on them." According to him this was no exaggeration.

Later he boarded an aircraft carrier with other correspondents looking for the Jap navy. He explained that reports of taking trips to see such wonders as the Japs were told of were not true. Later he boarded a small ship and almost came into contact with an enemy plane. What he saw in some 17 countries was so incredible that it could not be put into words. He was the people he had met who were most like our own people. He stressed more of what he saw in the Commonwealth, which he had never heard of, except perhaps the hillbillies. Not to be recommended is Victory canteen food.

Newest commodore among cruisers is Perry Como from the Copahee. High school girls have already started swoon clubs over the handsome and almost handsome, though the ban is officially suspended. Though the ban is officially suspended, the chaperones were Dr. Ralph Kelly, Claude Wagner, and Kitten Miami. The class of '45 was then received in the lounge. There the students of the eighth and ninth grades reassembled. As each student entered, he received a slip of paper. Each eighth and ninth grader was prepared to be turned to the best advantage by the Junior School. As each student entered, he received a slip of paper. Each eighth and ninth grader was prepared to be turned to the best advantage by the Junior School. As each student entered, he received a slip of paper. Each eighth and ninth grader was prepared to be turned to the best advantage by the Junior School.

Mr. Wilfred Allard's Homeroom 127, leads with a total of $575. An assembly was being held at this hour to future interest in the sale. Homerooms will elect representatives soon.

Mr. Ed Warder Cooper has ordered the Minute Man flag at least 50 cent of the student body must be regular purchasers to keep the flag.

The complete committee which will alternate periods of duty are as follows: Pat Goitler, Jean Figarsky, Joyce Knapp, Kenny Stephenhon, and Sue Hoyt, seniors, and Carol Wamsley, '46.

Betty Baskin, who is chairman, stated, "Last year Milne students had some difficulty in buying bonds. Let's keep up the good work and do as well this year."

Dr. Frederick Addresses Seventh Graders' Parents

Seven grade parents and faculty attended a meeting last Tuesday, October 12, from 8:15 to 9:30 p.m. in the Milne library.

Dr. Frederick addressed the group about the opportunities which were offered to students, the school curriculum and the advantages of class activities. He also introduced Miss Benny Sand, Mrs. G. nivey Moore.

Joyce Knapp, Bert Friedman Promoted On Crimson & White

Joyce Knapp, formerly news editor on the Crimson and White, was advanced to the position of senior associate editor. This now completes the number of associates on the staff.

Bert Friedman, '44, was named to Miss Knapp's former post as news editor.

Mr. Harley LeRoy Sensesmann, supervisor and teacher in chemistry, addressed Milne Senior School students at an assembly Tuesday, October 12, at 12:27 p.m.

Mr. Sensesmann told a little of what he saw in some 17 countries. He lived in these 17 nations in only a period of twelve years. He stressed more of what he saw in the countries than his own experiences.

He said that he thought the Turks were the people he had met who were most like our own people. With his wife, he traveled eastward through the huge Russian territory and almost came into contact with the German armies in their invasion of Russia. Seventeen days spent on a Russian train across Siberia was so confounding it became indescribable to Sensesmann.

Only two months before Pearl Harbor, he was held as a hostage by the Japs. Only by a clever ruse did he and his wife escape.

The students showed every evidence of enjoying Mr. Sensesmann's talk a great deal. One student said what was probably the desire of all the students, "It would like very much to hear much more about his travels!"

Special English Class Planned for Seniors

Miss Katherine E. Wheeling will teach a special English class for students who intend to graduate after the first semester of school this year. This is naturally only for seniors.

The class will be conducted from 11:42 a.m. to 12:27 p.m. Monday through Friday and the senior high school homeroom period.

Students who will attend these classes must be seniors. Miss Wheeling and Miss Martin and Miss Conklin, Miss Snader, Mr. Sensesmann.
