Dr. Roy P. Baker Commencement Day Speaker

Commencement exercises for the Milne class of '44 will be held in Page Hall on Monday evening, June 26, at 8:15 o'clock. Dr. Roy Palmer Baker, dean of students at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, will deliver the principal address.

Jeanne E. Scott, class valiantian, and Louis M. Austin, salutatorian, will speak for the graduating class which consists of 24 boys and 32 girls.

The Reverend Edwin T. Jones, father of Len Jones, will pronounce the invocation and benediction.

Musical selections will be furnished by the Minnettes, as well as solos by Felicia E. S. Schumacher and Helene V. Engle. Beverly Cohen will accompany the piano.

Dr. Frederick Heidenreich, secretary; Ruth Welsh, chairman-at-arms; Eve Morgan, representative; Helen Dethloff, secretary; and Betty Bates, critic.

Janice Hauf, inter-society council president; Greta Gade, secretary; Marcia Barb, vice president; Barbara MacMahon. The other officers are: Peggy Galivan, vice president; and Janice O'Connell, Pete Peterson, Jean Dorsey, Edwina Luce, and Inez Warshaw.

Sue Hoyt Named May Queen at Dance

Highlight of the twenty-third annual Q.T.S.A. dance conducted in the Milne library on Monday evening, May 29, was the annual ceremony of crowning the May queen.

Miss Hoyt, chosen by a vote of the societies, marched into the library. Miss Hoyt then took her place upon the throne and Tom Dyer, chairman of the dance, crowned her with a wreath of flowers.

Miss Hoyt was followed into the library by her court which included Pat Gotier, Kitten Wheeler, Janice O'Connell, Pete Peterson, Jean Dorsey, Edwina Luce, and Inez Warshaw.

Lois Messent does Art Work for Local Store

Lois Messent, one of the up-and-coming art students, has been chosen from Milne to act on Whitten's fashion board. There has been one girl chosen from each of Albany's schools to act on this board.

A couple of weeks ago, there were some very clever sketches in a local ad in the evening paper. These were drawn by Lois.

She has been in a fashion show and was one of the most attractive models.

Lois plans to be a designer after she finishes school and her present experience should help quite considerably in her chosen career.

Elections Follow Annual Assembly

The campaigns for election to the office of president of the Senior Student Council came to a stirring conclusion on Friday. The race was a close one from start to finish and had plenty of new and original twists by the candidates. The president of the Senior Student Council until next June will be Conrad Theodore (Ted) Carlson and his record gives promise of a good year in Milne next year under his leadership. He will have a job on his hands living up to the example set for him by the combined leadership of Len Jones and Ken Stephenson who did an excellent job while in office. Ted's manager was Bob Baldwin.

There was but one girl in the running, Elaine Sexton. The other candidates were A. Saunders and Dave Golding. Any one of the four candidates would have made a capable president.

Junior High Race

The winner in a very tight race for the president of the Junior High Student Council was Bobby Clark. All speeches by the candidates and managers were meritorious. A favorite topic was the swimming pool and a few ways to increase the sales of war bonds and stamps. This last is a platform board that is very important in these days of invasion.

The other candidates, of which two were male and two girls, were Bob Leslie, Sue Pelletier, and Mary Jane Fisk.

Last year's president, Derwent Angier did an excellent job and Bob will have to be on his toes to follow him.

Milne Music Council To Present Program

Tonight the Milne Music Department is presenting a musical program to show the students and parents of the school what has been accomplished during the year.

Those sections of the department participating are the senior and junior choirs, the band, the quartet and the Milnettes.

It has been the habit of the Music department in past years to have a rather lengthy and elaborate program, but this year it has been eliminated due to circumstances beyond our control. There is no admission charge and only students and parents are invited.

CARLSON, CLARKE, TO HEAD NEXT YEAR'S STUDENT COUNCIL

Seniors to Protray 'Typical Day'

A Typical Day in Milne' will be the theme of the Class Night program to be held June 16 in the Page Hall Auditorium.

The Class Night Committee, headed by Chuck Hopkins, has planned a very amusing and enjoyable evening for everyone.

The play is to be a satire but nevertheless attempt to portray a Milne day, including English class, gym, art, lunch and other typical Milne activities. In writing the play, Elinor Yaguda has tried to keep the parts equal in size so that no one has a 'lead.' Every member of the senior class will take part. Miss Whittington, Miss Martin, and Dr. Henriickson have acted as faculty advisers.

Inez Warsha is in charge of the event with a large group of dancers, headed a sizeable committee Ed Ketler will handle the curtains and lights.

The play consists of two acts, between which will be the class roll call, prophecy and history. As usual, these are written by class members. The class song as yet has not been written. The yearbooks will be given out after the program if everything goes as planned. Author Elinor Yaguda says the program is very unusual and novel, quite different from previous class nights and is bound to be very enjoyable.

Fillingham to Retire

It has been the habit of the Music department in past years to have a rather lengthy and elaborately program, but this year this has been eliminated due to circumstances beyond our control. There is no admission charge and only students and parents are invited.
What Do You Think?

We felt that you might all be interested in this letter from "Mrs. X" (not a mother), who takes such an interest in our welfare here at Milne. Dr. Frederick received the letter on Monday morning following the Q.T.S.A. dance and passed it on to the Crimson and White office as his only possible means of answering her comments.

Dr. Frederick, dear Sir:

Rather unusual to bring to your notice any part of school social life. I cannot resist the temptation of trying to bring a little more happiness to the girls. The boys have not extended many invitations to the formal dance this Saturday evening—forcing the girls to wishful waiting. It is so important to wear first formal dresses in early teens. I overheard some of the girls say they were so disappointed not to have the opportunity to ask a friend to the dance. I feel sure there is something missing from our activities though, our seniors.

The Q.T.S.A. was a huge success (even though in the library), and say, wasn’t Sue Hoyt a beautiful queen? The procession got a little lost, or maybe it was Tem Dyer, but the effect was good any how. Talk about talent right at home, Milne certainly has the same old “steadies.”

The junior class rings are really smooth this year, and do the juniors like them! Maybe the wait had something to do with it. Barbara Arnold and Marty Farrell, Janet Borst and Bob Gibbons went to Osterhout’s. Jean Figarsky, the lucky girl, was “Follow the Girls” in New York over the weekend. John Bulger, Dave Golding, Bob DeMoss, and Al Mendel went swimming out at “six mile” in the dark of night, Friday.

Crimson and White

INIZ WARSAW

Today we throw the spotlight on an always shiny face in the Milne Halls. Inez, better known as “Inky” to Warsaw. Inky was born in Albany, and spent her early school days in School 16. Then when the seventh grade rolled around, she left there, and was graciously accepted in Milne.

Inky has been Art Editor of the Crimson and White. She was on the senior class Movie Committee, and is now working on Class Night. Inky has been a member of Quin since her sophomore year.

Sailors top Inky’s list of “likes,” (she isn’t alone in her opinion, either). Another like that rates high is traveling. As yet, she has not traveled to any great extent, but she’s hoping. She finds New York intriguing, especially Broadway and Times Square.

Bricks and Ivy

Celebrating the great “D”-Day at home were Pvt. Marny Swarts, ’43, back from South Carolina and Pvt. Dave Fuld, U. S. A., ’41.

Seaman Third Class Harry Culp, ’43, has been transferred to Newport, Rhode Island. He is waiting to be shipped.

The engagement of Betty Tincher, ’39, to Douglas McKeen, ’38, has been announced. Another Milne romance with a happy ending?

If you want good service buying your jewelry, girls, don’t forget to stop where Faye Metcalf, ’43 is behind the counter.

Bob Bowers, U. S. M. C., was home last week. He looks swell.

Graduating from Brooklyn Methodist Hospital in October is Ruth Martin, ’41. She intends to go into the armed services after her graduation.

Many of Milne graduates are across the ocean fighting their best in this great invasion. We all say a prayer for you fellows and wish you the best of luck.

Plus the cost of flowers and the soda after the dance.

We feel that this is a large sum of money for a teen age boy to spend to bring a girl to a dance.

After the war has ended, we feel sure that the fathers will be glad and willing to bring their sons and hire a dance. This will enable more people to come, which will make better dances.

Very sincerely yours,

ROBERT W. FREDERICK.

Senior Spotlight

By Barbara MacMahon

By Barbara MacMahon

Alumnus

by Shanny

INIZ WARSAW

Today we throw the spotlight on an always shiny face in the Milne Halls. Inez, better known as “Inky” to Warsaw. Inky was born in Albany, and spent her early school days in School 16. Then when the seventh grade rolled around, she left there, and was graciously accepted in Milne.

Inky has been Art Editor of the Crimson and White. She was on the senior class Movie Committee, and is now working on Class Night. Inky has been a member of Quin since her sophomore year.

Sailors top Inky’s list of “likes,” (she isn’t alone in her opinion, either). Another like that rates high is traveling. As yet, she has not traveled to any great extent, but she’s hoping. She finds New York intriguing, especially Broadway and Times Square.

Bricks and Ivy

Celebrating the great “D”-Day at home were Pvt. Marny Swarts, ’43, back from South Carolina and Pvt. Dave Fuld, U. S. A., ’41.

Seaman Third Class Harry Culp, ’43, has been transferred to Newport, Rhode Island. He is waiting to be shipped.

The engagement of Betty Tincher, ’39, to Douglas McKeen, ’38, has been announced. Another Milne romance with a happy ending?

If you want good service buying your jewelry, girls, don’t forget to stop where Faye Metcalf, ’43 is behind the counter.

Bob Bowers, U. S. M. C., was home last week. He looks swell.

Graduating from Brooklyn Methodist Hospital in October is Ruth Martin, ’41. She intends to go into the armed services after her graduation.

Many of Milne graduates are across the ocean fighting their best in this great invasion. We all say a prayer for you fellows and wish you the best of luck.

Plus the cost of flowers and the soda after the dance.

We feel that this is a large sum of money for a teen age boy to spend to bring a girl to a dance.

After the war has ended, we feel sure that the fathers will be glad and willing to bring their sons and hire a dance. This will enable more people to come, which will make better dances.

Very sincerely yours,

ROBERT W. FREDERICK.

Senior Spotlight

By Barbara MacMahon

Today we throw the spotlight on an always shiny face in the Milne Halls. Inez, better known as “Inky” to Warsaw. Inky was born in Albany, and spent her early school days in School 16. Then when the seventh grade rolled around, she left there, and was graciously accepted in Milne.

Inky has been Art Editor of the Crimson and White. She was on the senior class Movie Committee, and is now working on Class Night. Inky has been a member of Quin since her sophomore year.

Sailors top Inky’s list of “likes,” (she isn’t alone in her opinion, either). Another like that rates high is traveling. As yet, she has not traveled to any great extent, but she’s hoping. She finds New York intriguing, especially Broadway and Times Square.

Bricks and Ivy

Celebrating the great “D”-Day at home were Pvt. Marny Swarts, ’43, back from South Carolina and Pvt. Dave Fuld, U. S. A., ’41.

Seaman Third Class Harry Culp, ’43, has been transferred to Newport, Rhode Island. He is waiting to be shipped.

The engagement of Betty Tincher, ’39, to Douglas McKeen, ’38, has been announced. Another Milne romance with a happy ending?

If you want good service buying your jewelry, girls, don’t forget to stop where Faye Metcalf, ’43 is behind the counter.

Bob Bowers, U. S. M. C., was home last week. He looks swell.

Graduating from Brooklyn Methodist Hospital in October is Ruth Martin, ’41. She intends to go into the armed services after her graduation.

Many of Milne graduates are across the ocean fighting their best in this great invasion. We all say a prayer for you fellows and wish you the best of luck.

Plus the cost of flowers and the soda after the dance.

We feel that this is a large sum of money for a teen age boy to spend to bring a girl to a dance.

After the war has ended, we feel sure that the fathers will be glad and willing to bring their sons and hire a dance. This will enable more people to come, which will make better dances.

Very sincerely yours,

ROBERT W. FREDERICK.
Muehleck to Head Next Year's Basketball Team

Ed Muehleck Named Captain

Dowling Speaks At Dinner

“Milne’s basketball team should be very successful next year, as we have five veterans returning and a very capable group,” announced "Dutch" Ball, retiring captain, at the Father's-Sons' banquet on May 26, 1944 at 6:30 p.m. at the Trinity Methodist Church where, for the second year in a row, the banquet has been held.

Capatin-elect Ed Muehleck has these words of retirement: "Little Lee" Aronowitz, Jim "Ace Williams" Detwiler, juniors, and Chuck Terry and Don Christie, both sophomores.

Jones Toastmaster

At the opening of the program, the National Anthem was sung. Robert W. Frederick, principal, then introduced the faculty and the fathers and sons on the committee. Dr. Frederick also told where the faculty members in service are.

Reverend Edwin Jones, father of Len and Al, was the toastmaster. He told several very interesting jokes while introducing each speaker.

The guest speaker of the evening was Mr. J. Emmett (Flip) Dowling, coach of football and track at Albam High. He gave a very interesting speech on the beginnings of football, basketball, baseball and track. John C. Tanno, Milne coach, gave a very short and snappy talk on juvenile delinquency. He gave the basketball and baseball letters to the fellows that had earned them during both seasons.

Ball Names Captain

After the Dutch Ball, this year’s basketball captain, announced that Ed Muehleck would head next year’s team. Both Ball and Muehleck mentioned that Jim Magilton would be next year's basketball manager and that Walt Wilkins would be trainer.

Mendelers Sponsor Music

John Farman and his Mendeliers sponsored the music. The other half of the quartet was Bob DeMoss at the drums and Wal Wilkins on the keyboard. Farman and Mendel played the sax.

Mr. Kelly, of course, led the group in songs in his own peculiar way. This is a much enjoyed annual occurrence. The dinner consisted of ham, mashed potatoes, carrots, salad, milk, ice cream, and cake.

The banquet concluded at about 9:45.

Rifle Club Gets Off To a Bad Start

The Rifle Club held its first match Wednesday night against the second team of the Marine Corps League. The Milne team won with 469 points out of 500. The scores were: Brown 99, Hayward 32, Volmer 93, Herrick 93, and Blanchard 91.

Milne Finishes In Second Place; Win Five Games

The high school basketball season has come to an end. After hectic and exciting two months of keen competition, the Milne squad came through very nicely. They ended the season being tied for second place with their close rivals, St. John's Academy. Milne won five and lost four. Bethlehem Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Central Cent
Final Examinations To Be Held Next Thursday, Friday

Final school examinations for the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades will be conducted on Thursday and Friday, June 15 and 16. Regular classes will be in session on June 12, 13, and 14. The following schedule will be in effect on the 15 and 16 of June, when school examination or review will go on for two class periods instead of one.

Thursday, June 15
9:35—Classes will remain in session until 10:51.
10:06—Classes will remain in session until 12:27.
10:54—Classes will remain in session from 1:30 until 3:03.

Friday, June 16
11:42—Classes will remain in session from 9:15 until 10:51.
1:00—Classes will remain in session from 10:54 until 12:27.
2:18—Classes will remain in session from 1:30 until 3:03.

Seventh grade examinations will be conducted on Tuesday, June 13, and eighth grade examination will be conducted on Wednesday, June 14.

The last classes for the seventh and eighth grades will meet on Monday, June 12; on Tuesday, June 13, the seventh grade is excused at 11:42 and does not come to school after that. The eighth grade does not come to school on Tuesday, June 13 and they are excused at 11:42 on Wednesday, June 14, for the summer. Examinations in mathematics, Home Economics, Industrial Arts, Art, seventh social studies and social language will be held during the last class period.

Dr. Moose Announces R.P.I. to Give Award

Dr. Carleton Moose, head of the science department, makes the following announcement:

Each year the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy, New York makes an award of a medal to the boy in the graduating class who has achieved the highest average in science and mathematics during grades 9, 10, 11, 12. The award will be made at graduation this June 26th.

Things to Come

Monday, June 12
3:45—Meeting to determine graduates. All desks and lockers to be cleared out today.

Tuesday, June 13
9:15—School exams. Grade 7 excused at 11:42 and does not come to school after today.
4:00—Class night rehearsal.

Wednesday, June 14
9:15—School exams. Grade 8 excused at 11:42 and does not come to school after today.

Thursday, June 15
9:15—School exams. Grades 9, 10, 11, 12.

Friday, June 16
9:15—School exams. Grades 9, 10, 11, 12.

Seventh Grade, Tuesday, June 13
9:15 Mathematics 124, 127, 128
10:06 English 124, 126, 128
10:54 General Science 124, 125, 128

Eighth Grade, Wednesday, June 14
9:15 Social Studies 124, 127, 128
10:06 English 124, 126, 128
10:54 Commerce 124, 126, 128

Sweet Dreams For "Street of Dream" Cast

"Broadway Can Be Beatenn" was the theme of the Milne Dramatics Club play, presented last Saturday night, June 3, in the Page Hall Auditorium. The play entitled Street of Dreams, and written by John Ross, was produced by special arrangement with Samuel French. The feminine half of the cast included Barbara Mouzalas, Linda Eastman, Ruth Welsh as Jean Weaver, Caryl Ferber as Evelyn Jones (or Justin), Betty Bates as Bonnie Griffith, Lois Meehan as Cecily Wane, Melisa Engle as Countess Anastasia Grekovichi, Nancy Bonculla as Ingrid, Jean Pirnie as Virginia Snow, Evelyn Miller as Mrs. Stockton, and Lorice Schen as Olive Daniels.

The masculine roles were taken by Dick Grace, who portrayed Tony, the young playwright, Phil Stoddard, the rich Mr. Justin, and Walter Wilkins, Roscoe, the stockbroker.

The play itself was a light comedy which proved very enjoyable. The frequent costume changes provided variety.

Director of the play was Miss Betty Marston of State College. Miss Mary E. Conklin supervised. Business manager was Jeanette Price. Sets, props and sound effects were handled by Frankie Kirk and Caryl Jacobs. Ushers were Helen Huntington, Grete Gade, Joanne Scott, Janet MeNiel, and Barbara Schamburger. The play was handled by Frankie Kirk and Caryl Jacobs. Ushers were Helen Huntington, Grete Gade, Joanne Scott, Janet MeNiel, and Barbara Schamburger. The play was handled by Frankie Kirk and Caryl Jacobs. Ushers were Helen Huntington, Grete Gade, Joanne Scott, Janet MeNiel, and Barbara Schamburger.

Alumni Scoop

The movies have been sources of many hit songs such as "As Time Goes By," "My Heart Tells Me," and "Passage to Mar­seille" comes "Some Day I'll Meet You Again." It's haunting, lingering tune makes it a coming favorite for the dance floor. Here is the story of the song, how it was recorded and who sang it.

Bing Crosby's latest release contains songs from his hit picture, "Going My Way," and "Passage to Marseille." The theme song from "Shine on Harvest Moon," a beautiful melody and one that has been written by Bing, is sure to become popular. "Passage to Marseille" will be the one Bing is singing this summer.

Charlie Barnett has a new record entitled "My Heart Isn't In It," a swell number that only Ban­net can do it. This is his first record in quite a while and well worth the wait.

The Mills Brothers, of Paper Doll fame, have another hit on their hands with "Til Then" and "You Always Hurt the One You Love," "Til Then" and "You Always Hurt the One You Love." Charlie Barnett has a new record entitled "My Heart Isn't In It," a swell number that only Barnett can do it. This is his first record in quite a while and well worth the wait.

Albania to Marseille

Glenn Miller has a new Decca Album containing some of Glenn's best and featuring the always popular "Star Dust." The album is worth the price, especially for that number. The arrangement is the prettiest we've heard yet.

"New American Jazz" Album is on the way. It will be available in music stores in early July. The eight sides feature such jazz immortals as Jack Teagarden, Hal Kemp, former husband of Dorothy Lamour, died recently.

An Apology

Our apologies to Nancy Bonculla, and Nancy Lee Clark, whose names we incidentally omitted from the honor roll last week. Their averages were, respectively: 92.8 and 91.2. Also to Thomas Brothwick, whose average was given as 90.2, and is actually 92.5.