Juniors Present Alumni Dance For Graduates

The Alumni Ball is to be held in the Page Hall Gym, December 29, from 9:00 to 1:00.

Plans for the annual semi-formal are being made by the junior class. The ball will be open to any member of the senior high school and invitations have been sent to recent graduates of Milne since 1942.

Five committees have been formed to make preparations for the dance. The Invitations Committee is led by Guy Miller. This group includes Anne Conigli from 9:00 to 1:00.

The invitations were printed by the Industrial Arts Department under the supervision of Mr. Raymond. The invitations were printed by the Industrial Arts Department under the supervision of Mr. Raymond.

FESTIVE SEASON

Christmas—a season of joy, and yet how joyous can you be with others so desolate? It’s not the first time you’ve been reminded of the many woe-filled, who are without home and shelter. But think about these same again.

Yes, it’s Christmas the world over, but do they have anything to be thankful for? Do they even have a place called home to sleep in? It’s not just the homeless in foreign countries. It’s right here in America and maybe just a few blocks from you.

Could you do anything to help? Could you do something to make this Christmas little better for just one person? Why don’t you try it and then you’ll realize the satisfaction in doing something really worthwhile.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

By “C.B.” and “JEFF”

What do you want Santa Claus to bring you for Christmas?

Malcolm Haggerty: “A report card with straight A’s.”

Jim Gayle: “A new fountain pen to do my history homework.”

Nancy Shaw: “A great big teddy bear.”

Barbara Dewey: “A trip to New Orleans.”

Charles Kritzler: “A good crowd at the Loudonville canteen.”

Marlene Cooper: “A horse.”

A. Milton: “A geometry exam I can pass.”

V. Miller: “A car to get to school in.”

Dick Flint: “All I want for Christmas is my two front teeth.”

Roni Vineburgh: “A little book that tells you how to roll your r’s in Spanish.”

Collin Kennedy: “A $50.00 share in Al Jolson.”

Malcom Haggerty: “A typewriter that doesn’t type.”

Dick Bennett: “A pair of argyle socks from every girl in the class.”

Dale Christie: “A comb to comb my hair with.”

Jay Lochner: “A map that tells you how to get to Loudonville.”

Janet Kilby: “I want to go to the Plattsburg basketball game.”

Bad Tallamy: “I want to go home and stay home!”

Eugene Cassidy: “I just want a lil’ old motor.”

Mary Strazzere: “Just lots and lots of new clothes.”

Robert Dorn: “I’d love a new radio or just a radio.”

Pat Costello: “I want a shiny new 1949 royal-blue Cadillac to match my new hat.”

Bill Wade: “One basketball will do me fine.”

Helen Cupp: “A heavy skating jacket for ice skating this winter.”

Paul Hubbs: “A pretty girl, and a million dollars.”

Jay Lechner: “A map that tells you how to get to Loudonville.”

Jim Gould: “A helicopter that flies to and from classes.”

Dave Shriver: “A combination Magnavox, library, television, radio, and long playing. Yea—I can dream, can’t I?”

Marge Norton: “A typewriter that skips.”

Over the vacation the annual “Gay Blades,” Bob Deppe, ’48, and Carol Noyes, ’48, travelled to the Cape Cod area to see the Cape Cod Bay, with and without skates. The visit included the Cape Cod Canal, near the head of Buzzard’s Bay. A grand time was had at the Loudonville post office this Christmas.

By “C.B.” and “JEFF”

“Dos-si-dos with your partner, dos-si-dos your corner!” was the familiar cry announcing that the Loudonville Canteen had opened. As far as the eye could see Minisites were seen greeting the people at the door were Dick Flint and Charles Kritzler. Their chief occupation was collecting admission fees.

Jan Hicks and Bob Lawton dismissed the waiters sellers serving looks. Ray Greenman found no interest that seemed to keep him busy the whole evening. The following week the canteen was taken over by a higher.

Keith Beswick was hunting on Loudon Lane when Marge Norton gave an “open house.” The big event, of course, was when the Gay Blades entertained. Although those present were mostly alumni, there were there the Bob Kelly, Bob Ball, Dick Bueer, Art Walker and Jim Clark.

“Calling New Orleans!” Nancy Shaw, Ellie Jacobs, Bobbie Dewey, and B. J. Tomlinson made a call to Jim Gross, ex-Minister, who now lives in New Orleans. It must be wonderful day down there these days and went as fast as usual. Many alumni who have moved far and wide. Paul Huprich of his University State College, Pennsylvania, was there. Also many went to New Jersey. Judy June Joan Farkon traveled to Vermont for the holidays. They went down to the gym with several alumni.

Helen Cooper, Marilyn Lynk who was in Germany, Doris Kaplan, Roxie Reynolds, Ray Glass, Homer Strohm, Nancy Prescott, Audrey Hofpen, Jean Gayle, Marilyn Shally, Marilyn Van Milt, Janet Hicks, and Carol Dobbs.

MILNE JUNIOR HIGH PAGE

Junior Council Honors Squad During Affair

The Junior High Student Council held its annual leap year dance in the lounge of Richardson Hall Saturday evening, December 4.

The event, in honor of the freshman basketball team, was considered an unqualified success by the Council.

Experimenting with something new, the Council featured a talent show, which it plans to continue in dances to come.

The floor show consisted of many of a basketball squad, participated by Colin Kenne and Bill Wade, heading the donut department, and Deforest Parker, Dick Jones selling refreshments.

The decoration committee used an idea somewhat similar to that of the Hi-Y dance. Instead of using boxes over the lights, the Council used bushel baskets encircled by crimson crepe paper.

Chaperones were Mr. Passeau, mathematics supervisor, and his wife, Mrs. Passeau, science supervisor, and her husband.

Students Elect Class Officers

Both the eighth and ninth grades held class meetings to elect officers and discuss future plans, Wednesday, December 7.

The ninth grade elected Dee Parker, president; Eric Dodge, vice-president, and Mary Alice Leete, secretary. Helen Kohn was appointed to further the class in charge of a meeting, due to the lack of time.

Bennett Thomson, Allison Parker, and Joan Sternfeld were elected president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the eighth grade.

Both classes, during separate meetings, discussed plans about sponsoring a dance. The ninth grade cela autonomy, and indicated they would have a dance because it would earn them more money for the class treasury, and give several members of the senior class their chance.

The tenth grade decided to have their dance every other year, like the junior and senior proms.

Previous plans for the ninth grade dance were discussed in class. Home room 233 sent a representative, Frank Parker, to the other two home rooms. Several home room talks the class met in a joint meeting and elected their representative to discuss possible plans with Dr. Fossick.

Frosh Challenge District Schools

The Milne freshman basketball team met defeat in playing the first three games of the season.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday of last week the frosh team played Cathedral Academy, Hackett High School, and Van Rensselaer, respectively.

Last Monday evening witnessed a close battle between the ‘Junior’ Raiders and Cathedral, with Cathedral boosting their score six points ahead of the Milne frosh, to win by 25-22 margin. John Scott, all star center, was high scorer for Milne, and Keane, Burke, and Lorteri each contributed to Cathedral high score.

On Wednesday, the Milne frosh went against Van Rensselaer, winning by a score of 37-35, with two points for Milne, as against 18 fouls with 28 points for Van Rensselaer. The ninth grade showed special interest in this event, like the junior and senior dance. The ninth grade showed special interest in this event being an annual event due to the senior class in it was also last year, the ninth grade dance was not included in the choir.

The reason being, as Mr. York explained, he has not seen the choir and has not met them. Otherwise he would be glad to have them in the choir.

This year the team is made up of the pros’ games.

Leonard, who is only twelve, has had no voice lessons but has gained much experience in singing in the choir of St. Paul’s Church.

He has been singing at St. Paul’s for the last five years and enjoys it greatly. His interest in music does not stop at this point, however, since he is also studying the slide trombone.

Before entering Milne in the fall, Leonard attended School 23. He is very enthusiastic about Milne, especially the choir and forthcoming concert. He expressed the hope that it would be a big success, and stated he was going to do his best.

Freshman Girl Shows Popularity

By PENNY THOMPSON

Mary Alice Leete, five foot two inch brunette, is the type of girl we are proud to have in our freshman class. She has been active in all extra-curricular activities since she entered in the seventh grade.

Praes Popularity

Her popularity was proven when she was promptly elected president of her class upon entering Milne. In the eighth grade she was home-room vice-president.

This year she holds the office of vice-president of the Junior Student Council, and is a member of the Red Cross.

Expresses Ambition

This young lady has an ambition, that of improving our school cheers, which she termed “not especially enthusiastic. She also looks forward to the time when Milne’s cheering section will be more enthusiastic. While she does not know what college she will attend or what path she will take in life, feel, however, that Mary Alice will be a success.
Christmas!

Merry Christmas gifts are sent to family, friends, and neighbors. The bills roll in.

Presents are flat, hearts are empty. But give also on Christmas a smile. Find laughter, that's full of joy. Give all your heart, and happiness. With genuine, sincere, true the real spirit of a Merry Christmas!
Red Raiders Bow 40-27
In Class “C” League Tilt

The Milne Red Raiders bowed to a faster, sharper Watervliet Van Rensselaer quintet 40-27 in the opening contest of the new Class C League at Page Hall.

The loss was Milne’s third in four games and the East Sider’s second in three starts. The victors stepped into an early lead and maintained it throughout.

Bob Nash and Ish Tonkin, who led the scorers with 15 and 14 points respectively, spearheaded the first quarter attack to a 13-2 Van Rensselaer advantage. The two teams played evenly in the second quarter and the score was 23-12 at halftime.

Milne Rally Fails

After the intermission, the Milne aggregation closed the gap to eight points in the third quarter with a 12-4 slight on the Watervliet defense with seven points. However, the visitors spurted to a 30-17 lead in the final stanza. Both teams were ten markers in the last quarter resulting in the final score of 40-27.

GAME TONIGHT, MA

Say, Mr. can I go to the game tonight?
I want to cheer Milne on in the fight.

What kind of game, you want to know?
Basketball, of course, well, can I go?

Isbasketball like a baseball game?
No, Mr. they ain’t at all the same.

Cause basketball’s another kind of sport.
It’s not played on a diamond, but on a court.

Is tennis what I’m talking about?
No, that’s sure different without a doubt.

Is a team in basketball small?
Sure, only five guys, but they gotta be tall.

That’s easier to shoot for a basket.
No, not with guns, but seems how you must.

“Young” means throwing the ball to the hoop and trying to get it through.

I sure hope that makes every thing clear to you.
It does? Well, that helps a lot.

Now, can I go to the game or not?
What? I have to stay here, aw gee.
All that explaining, and the game, I can’t see.

—Dave Bates.
Geneva Experiments

In the field of Genetics, a mystery has occurred in the Milne experiments with albino and hooded hybrid rats. Dr. Fossieck, who supervised the project, reported that all the hooded rats were produced by their albino mother and hybrid father in the following cases:

1. 3 hooded and 4 white rats. Case 1: 2: 5 hooded and 4 white rats.
2. 4 albino and 3 hooded rats.
3. 2 albino and 1 hooded rats.

The hooded rats hereditary characteristics came from the hybrid father, and the white rats, from the albino mother. The Milne Biology Department wants to know, is where the black rats came from?

Students Learn Money Matters

The senior Parents’ Night was held Wednesday evening on the campus. Approximately 110 parents met with the faculty of the senior class in the library.

Mr. Fossieck first gave an outline on the kind of education the senior faculty is attempting to get students and the possibilities of the future. Afterward the parents were given an opportunity to visit with student leaders, and supervisors of the various departments.

Mr. Fossieck later said, “Parents’ Night” has now been supplanted with the opportunity of meeting seniors parents again, and to discuss ways in which we are both working together to help the students make this a successful year.”

Senior Play and Class Treasurer this Year

The annual Senior Play contest was won by the “Who’s Who.” The authors of the Class History and the Class Prophesy are busy on their assignments.

Pep Assembly Starts Season With Cheering

A pep assembly on November 29 at 1:00, in the Page Hall auditorium, heralded the 1948 basketball season.

The junior varsity cheerleaders opened the assembly with many of last year’s cheers.

Varsity Introduced

Fred McDonald introduced the varsity basketball teams as the varsity cheerleaders did an individual cheer for each player, they concluded with others from previous years.

The assembly was closed with the “Tea Time” and “Whoop-up!” by the junior and senior school squads combined.

This year’s junior varsity cheerleaders consist of Mary Anne Lee, captain; Ruth Dyer, Molly Miu, head, Christine Brehm, Carolyn McGrath, Sandra Dans, and Carolyn Rutland.

The Milne senior class has under taken a profitable job. “Spring Dance,” was profitable, the masquerade dance.

The entire staff of the students are working hard to improve the attendance at basketball games.

A committee to find out whether and when dancing after the games would increase student interest was appointed, headed by Helen Pijors, Mrs. Howard, and Pete McDonald. They were asked to discuss plans on between-ballet entertainment with Miss Murray and Coast Grogan. No definite decisions were made on having a special section at the games for parents.

The chairman of the Alumni Ball, Ed Butler, reported all arrangements had been made for the dance on December 29.

All Photos Due Now!

Don’t forget all your “Photography Fiends!” Informal pictures are due in at Bricks and Ivy headquarters now! The Paul Wolfgang Memorial Award of $5 is for the best snapshot of school life. The prize is granted for the first time, this year. Get your photos in the collection box immediately—printer’s deadlines can’t be put off.

ANNE CARLough

The full of 1943 saw Milne being overrun by a mass of bright little faces representing the class of ’49. One of these faces belonged to Anne Carlough.

Anne has worked hard during her six years at Milne. This year she is class correspondent to the Crimson and White; president of Quintillian, literary society, treasurer of the Music Club, class secretary, and vice-president of her Homecoming.

Anne has always been very fond of music (in all shapes and forms, but particularly classical) and has been a member of the choir for the past three years. This year she achieved an added distinction by becoming one of the Melodists.

After the grueling work of the school year is over, Anne, like the rest of us, does her best to forget the strain during the summer. She usually camps for a month at Saratoga Lake and then spends another, more luxurious month at Lake George. Not bad, eh?

French fries, square dancing, summer vacations and “open houses” are high on Anne’s list of likes.

JIM CLARK

Theta Nu, the brother society to Quin, has a most able president this year in the person of James Anderson Clark, Junior.

Wow! That almost scares a person; it sounds so impressive. Seriously, though, Jim has built himself quite a standing in Milne.

Jim has been a manager of the basketball team from his sophomore through his senior years. The M.B.A.A. has claimed Jim’s other sporting talents and this year he was on the track team in his sophomore year, and played center on the football team last year and this season. Also in the Varsity Club and Hi-Y, Jim is chaplain of Hi-Y this year.

Other than being known for his sharp clothes and true friendliness, you might like to know that Jim was in the band in his sophomore and junior years, and is in choir and Male Ensemble this year.

Being Student Chairman of the Senior Play and class treasurer this year have kept him pretty busy so far and will for quite a while.
