The Christmas assembly will be held on Friday, December 20, at 1 o'clock. The Student Council decided to continue the annual practice of giving Christmas boxes to the poor, and these boxes will be judged at this assembly.

Every year all the homerooms in the school decorate and fill a box for the needy families in Albany. A list of the supplies necessary for a complete meal will be posted on the first floor bulletin board. Dr. Frederick urges that the committees take special notice of this so each box will contain all the necessary foods. He also states that frail decorations are not advisable because they get demolished when the boxes are delivered. Judges for the contest have not yet been chosen.

Student Council announces that too much stealing is going on in the girls' locker rooms in Richardson Hall. As there is no way of locking the rooms all the girls are requested to keep their lockers locked. The school is not responsible for any such losses. If this notice is not observed, definite steps will be taken.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS DECEMBER 18; THEIR CASTS ARE ANNOUNCED

The casts for the annual Christmas plays which are to be given December 18, have been announced. They are as follows; for "Off Nag's Head" - Ralph Norvell, Fisherman; Cora Randies, Old Woman; Virginia Tripp, "Gal"; Kenneth Leisher, Doctor; Pricilla Simpson, Sick Woman. For "Sham" - Walter Simmons, Charles; Virginia Kelsoy, Clara, his wife; Betty Potter, Reporter; Wilson Hume, Thief.

The junior high school will present "Knave of Hearts" with the following taking part; Fred Regan, Blue Hose; Robert Nattell, Yellow Hose; Mildred Mattice, First Herald; Ruth Soliker, Second Herald; Robert Gardner, Pompebile, King of Hearts; Edward Sternfeld, Chancellor; Robert Wheeler, Knave of Hearts; Elaine Breeo and Charlotte Kornit, Ursula; Esther Stulmker, Lady Violetta; Norman Andrews, Donner Atwood; Helen Cooper, Leah Einstein; Jerome Levita, and Jean Forchish, Pages.

This week-end the Crimson Tide will be featured in a double tilt against two strong Albany teams. Tonight the Milne squad will encounter the Phillip Schuyler quintet on the Page Hall court in our fifth game of the season. C. B. A. will be the Red Raiders' rival tomorrow night in the third home game of the season on the Page Hall gymnasium woods. Both contests take place at 8:15 following the preliminary games of the junior varsity.

Both of these squads are quite strong and should be quite an opponent for the Crimson and White team. Neither of these teams has ever been Milne's opponent but have been regular rivals of many city teams. Although last season was Schuyler's first one on the court they produced a fine team. The Cades usually put out a good basketball army so a hard struggle may be expected from them.

These two games inaugurate Milne's entrance into the city basketball circle on our own court. It has been many years since the Panthers have encountered any of the local teams. The boys received fine support at the Vincentian game thus showing that the Milnites are for the team win or lose. The cry for city teams as opponents has been answered, so let's go and put Milne on the map!

It is most probable that the new line-up which defeated Delmar but wasn't used in the Vincentian game will go against Phillip Schuyler tonight. This line-up which will be seen on the Milne court for the first time will be as follows; Huchang and Simms, forwards; Norvell and Roseinstein, guards; and Carvill, center. Hotaling, Cras, Corvill, and Slipperley will be held in reserve.

FRENCH CLASSES PRESENT ASSEMBLY ONE-ACT PLAY GIVEN; ALSO SONGS

The assembly program last Wednesday consisted of a Christmas play and accompanying carols sung by all the French classes. The cast of "A Christmas Dream" was as follows: Jean Graham, Barbara; Virginia Rechnitz, Helen; Leslie Slipperley, Esther; Barbara Birchamough, Jeanne; Cora Randies, Doris; Leo Minkin, Pierre; and John Graham, radio announcer.
ARE YOUR DREAMS WORTH WHILE?

"Mighty oaks from little acorns grow" is truly a correct sentence. All great men have had to start at the bottom and have worked their way up. Many of the most common miracles of today's civilization have been performed by these men who, in their school-day period, have had dreams of what they wanted to do.

These dreams are not just common day-dreams. If a person has enough grit, "stick-to-itiveness," and perseverance, he can make almost any dream come true. One must work, to be sure, but the final success will come, at last.

Professor Sayles, in his address on Wednesday, November 27, told about some of these famous men who had these dreams. Besides those that he mentioned, there are Henry Ford, Lindbergh, countless owners of sport champions, and hosts of others. Sir Malcolm Campbell, the speed-king, had a dream of being the fastest human on earth. He terrified the countryside by going twelve miles per hour on a bicycle. For this he was fined by a magistrate for disturbing the peace. Now everyone knows about Sir Malcolm. His dream came true.

Of course, not everyone can be world famous, but, surely, one can become well-known to some degree. Pick a worth-while goal and strive for it.
Quin:

At the weekly Quin meeting quotations were from Edgar Allan Poe. Cora Randies read one of his stories called "The Premature Burial." Barbara Knox gave Amy Lowell's works.

Plans for a Quin party were discussed and it was decided that it be at Sally Ryan's home.

Quotations next week will be from Sara Teasdale.

Theta Nu:

The meeting was called to order at 11:10. A committee was appointed to take charge of the banquet. Its members are: Messrs. Gypson, Bond, McKeen, and Selkirk. Sheldon Bond gave a report on 'The Painted Arrow," by Gaither.

Sigma:

The meeting was called to order at 11:03. After the minutes had been read, Frances Hornbeck gave a story of Mark Twain's life. The meeting was closed with the singing of the Sigma song.

Adelphi:

A discussion continued from last week was held concerning the outing. This outing has been postponed until after the Christmas vacation.

Martin Creasy gave a report on "Jokes" from the Reader's Digest.

LIBRARY NOTES

Twelve new books have been added to our library collection, which were selected from the Book Week exhibit.

Some of them are as follows: Cost Club, by Ransome, a sequel to Swallows and Amazons; Mary Poppins, by Travers, a ridiculous novel of a nurse-maid; Street Fair, by Fischer, a tale of children exploring France; and Swords of the North, by Anderson, a story of Caesar's conquest of Great Britain.

Glee Club Rehearses

The Glee Club, under the direction of Dr. T. F. H. Candlyn, has been rehearsing carols to be sung at the annual Christmas plays. They have been practicing the following songs: "Good King Wenceslas," "The First Noel," and "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen." In "Good King Wenceslas," June Weir will sing the part of the page as a solo.
At last the Milne team is clicking! The Crimson Tide broke into the winning column the night before Thanksgiving to give the large group of rooters something to be thankful for. Not only did the varsity swamp Delmar but the jayvees did a fine job of whitewashing with a 28-16 score. The game gave Milne its first victory of the season. This victory was certainly earned by the boys, and their steady playing showed that they are improving every game and that they've got something there.

Because of the size of the score you may be inclined to believe that the game was a set-up or a "walk over." The first misconception is disproved due to the fact that Delmar is a traditional rival. The game was fought in Milne-like fashion and was won only by hard playing and by quick and clever passing.

The new change in the line-up proved to be the thing for Milne. "Spike" Simmons, who is the regular center, was converted into a forward and "Bo" Taft filled his shoes at center. He really filled them and then some, as he held Scoons, Delmar's flash who has proved to be the thing for Milne.

The Alumni played in the guard position. It was his ability to "dog" many flashy forwards and keep them from scoring that proved his value to the team.

This year Ralph has proved to us that he still has that same old fighting spirit. There wasn't a minute of the State frosh, Draper, Delmar, or Vincen-

Ralph started his basketball career in his sophomore year after a season on the junior high squad. In that year he made the reserves and never failed to carry out his assignment as Substitute.

Last season "Scrappy" Norvell made the first string and did some fine playing in the guard position. This year he has proved to us that he still has that same old fighting spirit. There wasn't a minute of the State frosh, Draper, Delmar, or Vincen-

Bob Taft for his great defensive work in holding Delmar's "big gun" to three points and giving Milne a bigger chance for victory. Was his first game as a sophomore.

Those Milne rooters who supported the team through thick and thin. Their school spirit at Delmar aided Milne to a blazing victory. Their number lighten the burden against V. I.

Doug and Howie for their scoring in the last two games. They've tallied twenty-two out of thirty points in both games.

"Scrappy" Norvell for his continual fighting and scrapping throughout the games.

Our gallant cheerleaders who have done so well in making the gym's ring with cheers for the Crimson Panthers.
