CO-ED CONNIE SAYS —
"If you have a nose for news, nose about in the weekly editions of the
CRIMSON AND WHITE"
Welcome, off-campus activities!

After we have settled down and have relatively directed our course for the ensuing year, we begin to give our attention to extra-curricular activities.

Some go in for drama clubs, some for newspaper work and others for the glee club, as well as the other opportunities open to all. One of the aims that actually all of us are interested in is the fact that our respective societies and commanding their 1916-17 season, with the opening of school and the beginning of the societies activities comes the rush season. Here is the rivalry between the societies and here is the enjoyment of the sophomores as their companions vie for their selection in which our happens to be the favored society. It is with a hearty welcome that we greet these prospective members and trust that they will cause well the society with which they affiliate.

The text has written the J.7 on the old scrap, and to show the effect of multiplying by 10 a rub-out on the decimal point. "How, affably, she said, "but I had another point." On the other, replied affably, with a slight laugh.
The meeting was called to order by the president at 12 o'clock. The secretary called the roll and the minutes of the previous meeting were read. The treasurer's report was given.

The business consisted of discussions in regard to the coming rush, for which definite plans are now under way. This year the rush will take place on Oct. 30 from 5 to 7 o'clock.

The girls voted upon having a social get-together outside of school. The date is set for October 24 when a theatre party will take place for all members of Sigma.

Author for the week is John Milton. Betty Douglas gave his biography, and Harriet Stanley presented his "Works". The meeting was closed by the singing of the Zeta Sigma song.

Adelphoi:

The main event of Adelphoi yesterday was the taking in of new members. Foster Sipperly gave a very interesting talk on photography. He told how they photograph flowers and trees. This article from The Photography Association magazine.

FRANCES LEVITZ TO HOLD CHEER LEADING THIS YEAR

There will be seven regular cheerleaders for the coming year. The squad will be headed by Frances Levitz and Virginia Kelsey, with two substitutes. Six new cheers have been introduced by the leaders to their helpers and two new songs. These will be exhibited at the end of the school during an assembly program in the near future. Miss Levitz said that any new cheers or songs will be welcomed as the old cheers have been worn out over long years of activity.

The regular cheerleaders from the senior class are Frances Levitz, Virginia Kelsey, Janet Bremer, Dorothy Harrison, Robert Emerick, Lowell Gypson, and Roger Orton. Those representing the junior class are Mary Jane Pond, and Virginia Tripp. Frances Bremer and Elizabeth Simmons are the substitutes.
