OUT IN THE COLD

Tonight is the QUIK SIGMA dance. All know that, but are you all planning to be present? If not, there's something lacking in your attitude toward Milne and our various projects and social affairs. The girls in the two societies are working hard to make their annual dance a success, and it's up to the students of Milne to back them. Decorations and Lew Rider's music and a good gang will all combine to make this a red-letter night for everyone there.

Miltonites will be expected to support our dance tonight especially since no outside couples will be allowed. Certainly you don't want to be left out of an affair which is exclusively for Milnite. Of course a boy or girl from Milne can bring an outside friend. It'll be spiffy, alright, with every factor pointing toward its success. Other schools sponsor big dances without outside help. Let's show what Miltonite can do.

BOOK REPORT

Have you read "A Son of the Revolution" by Orczy? It's the kind of a book that holds your interest throughout, and for a long time after you have finished it.

With the French Revolution as its background, the story concerns the life of a young man who was made what he was by the stormy times and great questions at stake. A thread of romance is woven skillfully into the tale as Andre, a citizen, saves the life of his former master and his daughter in what seems to the two more horrible to death than his marriage to her.

The story contains enough true background to make the book worthwhile as it is gripping. I would recommend it to any real high student with a couple of hours to spare for reading a good book.
Fishy Phrases—"Look! Mother!" cried a little fish, "Isn't that a fly?" "Not by a darn-site," cursed his Ma, "that's just an alibi!"

Charles L. Collock, Ed. Hunting, Leonard Benjamin, and I went on a hike to Pine Bush, Saturday. Well, or, we rode a little. Boys, weren't the fried pork chops and the mushroom soup good?

Wee is me! I found a trout the other day in fishing jacket. I forgot to remove it, after the season folded up. How can I remove the smell? Home 80 nomics students please answer.

THREE SPRING HIKES

Nothing pleases me more than seeing either a group of Boy or Girl Scouts on a hike in the woods. It is there, they learn how to conduct themselves properly and also to enjoy the full benifit of the great outdoor life. Not only that, but they keep out of trouble, and off the busy city streets. The outdoors is responsible for the bringing up of these future American citizens with a wholesome outlook on life.

MILNE LOSS TO COEYMANS HIGH CREAMY STARS WITH 7 POINTS

Milne's Crimson and White basket... ers met defeat on the Coeymans High School court last Friday high when they engaged the Coeymans quintet.

After setting the pace for most of the game, Coach Ryan's men were nosed out in the last few minutes of play. Milne held a two point lead at the close of the first period and stretched the advantage to six points by the half. Late in the third period, with Milne on the long end of 20-17, the Junior Varsity went into action and did comparatively well against the Coeymans varsity until the Varsity returned.

In the closing minutes of the game the score "seesawed" due to a number of foul shots. When the final bell rang it was discovered that Milne had made one less foul point than did Coeymans, thus a one point victory for Coeymans. Individual honors go to Creesy, who chalked up two field goals and three fouled shots for a total of 7 points.

THRU THE HOLE

BY HIS AND GEEK

Bob Emerick seems to have quite a crush on Lois Nesbitt, at least for walking her downtown and around. Have fun, kiddies? You oughta.

We see Franklin Steinhardt gave Jimmy McDermott quite a rush last Friday at the Tea Dance. ..there wasobby Taft? Perhaps he was obeying coach's orders. Let that be a lesson to you, Beagle, Punk, and Davis.

Did you hear that Mary Winhurst has taken the attention of Buddy Reeder—at least for the Quin-Sigma. She's been doing all right for herself lately, the State College Junior Prom and all.

Points and People of interest at the Quin-Sigma -------- Marjy Charles with Otto Schneider----------novel decorations---------- Annabellle Vogler with a Sophomore Gordon and Gordon together again---------- Lew Ridur's fancy music----------Orton and Haynor; Schultz and an unknown blond---------- Peg Jantz will be in New York. Question; Will Doug Makoff come, and if so, with whom?

Well, I don't want to tell you everything that's going on because then you wouldn't have the fun of finding out for yourself.
