"You voted twice!"—"No, I didn't."
That was the kind of quibbling that took place last year after the presidential election. This year, our Student Council has taken steps to do away with any doubt concerning the validity of the election, by appointing Foster Sipperly to make slips for each homeroom. These he will put in an envelope, and must be signed by a homeroom teacher.

Student Council is temporarily suspending all plans for the Milne Alumni Association. This organization was to consist of all graduates from this school, and was under the direction of Bill Hotaling.

Professor Sayles, however, thought that the size of the school would interfere with this organization, since the number of students is and has been so small.

Next year, plans will be revived, with a possible dance during the Christmas vacation. The school will invite the alumni, and in that way, the two will unite.

The members in Council further discussed the budget for 1937-8, but no definite plans are ready for publication.

ASSEMBLY TO HEAR SPEECHES
BY CANDIDATES AND MANAGERS

On Wednesday, June 2, the school will hear the campaign speeches of the four contestants for office of president of Student Council. The four nominees, Soolcy Funk, Lois Nosbitt, Ken Lasher, and Mary Vinishurst, will follow their publicity managers.

Dick Andrews, in this position will introduce his candidate, Soolcy Funk. Frances Seymour will speak for Lois Nosbitt, and Elizabeth Simmons will debate for her opponent, Mary Vinishurst. Ken Lasher will rely on Al Wheeler for an introduction.

ZETA SIGMA SOCIETY PLANS
GIRLS' ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
APPOINTING SENIOR OFFICERS

Sigma's girl society in Milne is planning an alumni association. This is a new movement in the school, recently taken up by the Student Council.

The alumni branch of the society will include the Senior girls in Sigma graduating this year, and all past members.

Recently, the seniors met at Lucille Armstead's house and discussed the new organization. The gathering chose officers among themselves, of girls who expected to remain in the city. These are the officers elected:

President Peggy Waterbury
Vice Pres. Lucille Armstead
Secretary (Rec) Boto Potter
Sec. (Corr.) Ginny Soper
Treasurer Lillian Allen

This organization will continue as a part of the society, and more extensive plans will gradually enlarge it.

COLLEGE GIVES SPRING PLAY
AT REDUCED STUDENT RATES

The Dramatics & Art Association of New York State College for Teachers is presenting "Lady Windermere's Fan," by Oscar Wilde. Agnes Futterer is in charge of the direction of the play as this is the annual spring presentation which is eagerly awaited. Last night, the cast put on the play, and it will be repeated again tonight.

The price of tickets is only 75c, and reserved seats are $1.00. However, a special charge of 50c is the rate for students of Milne High.

The play will be enacted in the Page Hall Auditorium tonight at 8:30 clock. There are still some seats left, although the space is limited, and many tickets sold.

Miss Katherine E. Wheeling Faculty Adviser

Published weekly by the Crimson and White staff at the Milne School, Albany, New York.

Terms: $1.00 a year, payable in advance, Free to students paying student tax.

NOTICE:
The above staff is temporary and may be subjected to changes this spring. However, the workers on the remaining issues of this year will have the positions of responsibility next year. If there is anyone who is interested in becoming a member of the Crimson and White newspaper staff, please see MISS Wheeling.

In Praise of Milne

We wonder if you students appreciate this school? Do you realize just how fine it is, and how much pleasure and happiness you are deriving from it, mixed with the training in education which you are receiving?

Your position as a pupil in Milne High School is a post other children from all over the Capital district are seeking. An average of between sixty and seventy students comprise one whole class, while many more people are refused admission.

What about your faculty and your teachers? The supervisors are unequalled in directing a student body, and your teachers, usually seniors in State Colleges, are fresh from a complete education. Because of this, they are so much better prepared to teach you.

Now, don't you feel good?

With this issue the Crimson and White expires for this year. We, of the staff, have worked hard all year to bring this paper to you on time, and to give all the news which interests you. It has taken time, but on the whole, the paper has furnished real enjoyment to the staff who edited it.

We hope you have enjoyed reading it as much as we did publishing it. For almost a complete nine months, the Crimson and White has reached your horizons. This year Helen Kosbob and her competent crew were in charge, and did what we, speaking for the Junior staff, thought was a grand job.

Recently the Juniors supplanted the 1936-7 editors, and have striven to meet with your approval as the Senior class staff had done. It has truly been a satisfaction to see our share of the work ending this year. Next year, we hope to be back to edit a bigger and better paper with possible changes in the staff.

Since it is our aim to please our readers, we would appreciate any comments to staff members concerning improvements of the paper, and exactly what you would like on it. This is to enable us to include desirable new features in next year’s paper, which, we hope, will exceed this year’s editions in pleasing you, our readers.

Here’s hoping you will enjoy your well-earned and long-awaited vacation!

Signed,
Crimson and White

Goodbye, Now . . .

Well, what did you think about Society Day? Dandy, wasn’t it? It proved what cooperation and good feelings can do. Upon seeing it, we wonder who enjoyed it more, the performers or the audience. We’re inclined to think it was a draw.

But how about those of you who didn’t go? Did you gain anything by absence? Certainly you lost a great deal of enjoyment. We want you to come to everything. The old saying, “The more the merrier” always applies, and if the person in charge can look around at the beginning and see a crowd, that’s enough stimulus to put anything across. It’s surprisingly easy to put pep in an undertaking when the gang’s all there.

It always gives this old editor a sort of thrill when Milne presents its talents. There are quite a few really gifted students in Milne, and those who didn’t dare to come missed one of the best exhibitions of Milne talent that we’ve been able to see in a long time.
Quin:

The president, Lillian Walk, opened the meeting. There were no quotations. Candidates were nominated for all offices; the election will be held at the next meeting.

The annual Quin outing will take place at the Winsbury home, at Hampton Manor. The dates are June 25 and 26.

Theta Nu:

The president for next year was elected. The result will be announced at the banquet which will be at Keeler on May 28.

Mr. Haskins reported on the book, "We Who Are About To Die", by David Lawson. The story is of a condemned man's experience in the death house of San Quentin Prison.

Sigma:

Thomas Segal, the president, reported the Sigma outing will be held June 8 at White's Beach. The results of the election of officers for next year are as follows:

- President: Marjorie Stanton
- Vice-president: Betty Barden
- Treasurer: Harriet Richter
- Secretary: Esther Stulmcker
- Mistress of Ceremonies: Barbara Soper
- Critic: Isabelle Chapman
- Reporter: Janet Crowley

Adelphi:

"Adelphi keys and pins," announced Mr. Funk, "will be given at the banquet at the end of the year."

FRENCH CLUB HEARS TALK

Miss Browning gave a talk in French on her trip to New York with the State College French Club over the week-end. The members of the club worked a French crossword puzzle.

GLEE CLUB IN GRADUATION

The Glee Club has been practicing three songs which they will sing at the graduation exercises. The songs chosen are, "The Brems Lullaby", "Greetings" by Mendelssohn, and "Little Shepherd Boy".

The meeting of the Senior Acting Group was called to order at 11:10. A debate was held on the pros and cons of the Negro racial problem. Janet Brewer, Frances Brewer, and Virginia Sooper took the affirmative, and Barbara Knox, Betty Potter, and Warren Knox took the negative.

The Junior Acting Group enjoyed a party at the last meeting of the year. Miss Duffey, the Sponsor, read some stories from the State College "Echo".

The Sets Group has hopes of finishing their model stage before exams. The boys, Robert Emerick, Billy Saunders, Herbert Marz, and instructor, Mr. Van Horn of State College, are now quite expert carpenters. Miss Lam of State College, Janice Crawford, and Marion McCormack have the responsibility of making the curtains for the stage.

In the upcoming years, the stage is to help the sets group in planning sets for future plays.

The Costume Group is still working on the files of period costumes. They are also planning to go over the costume box to see that all the costumes are packed for the summer.

Last week they helped the boys get costumes for Society Day.

There was no business meeting in the Make-up Group as it was the last meeting of the year. The instructor spoke on the use of face putty.

HI-Y ATTENDS BANQUET

Jack's Restaurant, a week ago on Thursday night, May 20, was the scene of the HI-Y banquet, which proved to be one of the club's most successful affairs.

The new president, Jack Beagle received the gavel from the retiring president, William Perkins. The gathering saw some movies on the German Olympics, which were sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. Bill Hostelling followed with a talk on the accomplishments of the HI-Y during the year; he especially mentioned the Milne Cheering Contest, won by Norma Kapewich, and the "Pep" assemblies.

The members of the faculty, who attended this banquet, agree with all the members as to the success of the evening.

G.A.C. BANQUET

The G.A.C. banquet took place Thursday evening at the Ainslee-Hewitt Restaurant. Frances Lovitz was in charge. G.A.C. presented Miss Hitchcock with a bathing suit.
ADELPHI Defeats Theta Nu in Inter-Society Golf Game

The two Milne boys’ societies clashed last Friday morning, May 21, at the Municipal Golf Links in a golf match. Adelphi took the honors, winning with a score of 8-3. The line-up for Adelphi was: Cascade, Paland, Hotalin, Sipporly, and Fung. Theta Nu’s players consisted of Beagle, McCann, Walker, Smith, and Skinner.

This year except for this last golf match, Theta Nu won in a basketball game and a bowling match. There will be two more contests between the societies this year, consisting of a softball game and a tennis match. These will come in the near future.

Baseball Game Postponed

The baseball game with Rensselaer High school was postponed. It was scheduled for last Friday, but the schools called it off because of the bad weather.

Sille Skip Fun-ee

"Vagabond Lover"

"It happened in Monterey," when I met "That Girl of My Dreams." We were "Making Hay While the Sun Shines," when all of a sudden "From out of Heaven," the rain came down and made "A Gloomy Sunday," but not for long. We ran to the house and looked for a diversion. I turned on the radio and said, "Shall We Dance?" After a while we sat down at "Table for Two," "We held Hands Across the Table," between "Cocktails for Two," from that moment on, I knew that "You Were Meant for Me." The "Clouds" broke, then and "It Was a Lovely Day to Be Caught in the Rain." It was dinner time soon, and I called my butler to order dinner. "No more 'Dinner for One, Please, James!’, I said. Later we walked into a "Chapel in the Moonlight" and "Kissed in the Dark."

When it was "Three o'clock in the morning," we thumbed our way home. We got married that day, and "Shuffled off to Buffalo" on our honeymoon. Now there are "Ten Little Indians" who must each be told many times, "Go to Sleep. My Little Buckeraro.a," but, altogether our "Seventh Heaven is not a "Blue Heaven", when I'm with You."

B.A.C. Discusses Budget

The Boys’ Athletic Council is now discussing the budget for next year. The members voiced their opinions on school letters for baseball, golf, and tennis.

"What are you studying now?" asked Mrs. Chalute.

"We are taking up the subject of molecules," answered Betty.

"I hope you will be very attentive and practice constantly," said the mother. "I tried to get your father to wear one, but he could not keep it in his eye."

Boulder

"What are those queer-looking statues over there?" asked the visitor.

"Those aren’t statues," said the New Yorker. "They are workmen busy on one of the new WPA jobs."

Coach - "Funk, have you taken a shower?"

"No, Coach, is there one missing?"

Teacher - Roger, what is the formula for water?

Orton - H 2 0

Teacher - You know that isn’t right.

Orton - Why, you told me it was H to O.
