HI-Y
SPORTS
CARNIVAL
SATURDAY
8 - P.M.
SEE
THETA NU
VS ADELPHOI
Playing a clean decisive game, Milton Girls Varsity Basketball team defeated St. Agnes 25-20. The conversation was unusually swift and accurate as they led St. Agnes from the beginning of the game.

The going at first was slow as the girls were unaccustomed to the gym floor. Throughout the game Milton kept one jump ahead.

Excellently defensive guards and the accurate shots of the forwards made Milton emerge victor.

Those who played are: forwards, key Newton, Frances Seymour, Elizabeth Simmons, Lois Gossett and Virginia Tripp; guards, Denis Winchurst, Betty Gibson, Barbara Boyer, Ruth Rapp and Mary Winchurst.

JUNIOR HIGH CLASSES WILL VISIT PUERTO RICO

Some of the English III classes are writing to a group of Puerto Rico high school students. Miss Betty Studeroker, another Albanian girl, is teaching English there. The Milton pupils are planning to send their first letters soon. These letters will contain many interesting facts concerning American life.

This is really just an experiment but the English pupils hope it will work out alright for many reasons. First of all the customs and ideas of these two altogether different countries will be exchanged, and the correspondence will promote international friendship and good will, not to speak of the excellent practical.

LIBRARY BULLETIN BOARD
DISPLAY: BOOK COVERS

This week the bulletin boards outside the library are displaying the colorful pictures of adventure stories as well as some of our old favorites.

Each week, the boards are changed by the college library school staff whose original ideas of arrangement help to make the books more interesting to read.

The adventure stories listed are: "The Harries No", "Coast Guard to the Rescue", "Eating on the Bounty", and "The Dark Prizero". Some books are favorites no matter how old they are. Such books are these help to complete the selection: "Little Women", "An Old Fashioned Girl", "Eight Cousins", "The Three Musketeers", "Tap Van Winkle" and "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" and "The Story of a Bad Boy". These displays are arranged for the benefit of the students to arouse interest in the new books.

The Milton Hi-Y will present the first Sports Carnival for boys Saturday, March 5 at Page Hall Gym at 7:30 o'clock.

There will be four basketball games, two wrestling matches, and two boxing matches on the program.

The first three basketball games will be played in the following order: 7th grade vs. 6th grade, 9th grade vs. 10th grade, and 11th grade vs. 12th grade. George Schroade, a senior in Albany High School, will referee these games.

The fourth game of the evening will be Theta Nu vs. Adelphi. This game is played for a trophy. It promises to be a very exciting game. The fellows have practised faithfully for the past weeks. Jerry Amyt will referee this game.

James McClure is in charge of the wrestling matches. Robert Wilke and Charles Sanderson will wrestle in the feature match. The participants of the other match are William Long and Walter Frodenburgh. In the absence of Charles Sanderson, James McClure will wrestle in his place.

Russell Jones is chairman of the boxing matches. The flyweight match will feature Gordon Jones and Joseph Bunting. The participants of the heavyweight match are James McClure and Richard Appelaro.

Douglas McNee is general chairman of the event. Roger Ortin and James McClure are in charge of tickets. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Hi-Y for $2.00.

STUDENTS TO ATTEND PRESS CONVENTION

The annual Columbia Scholastic Press Convention will take place in New York City next week from March 10th to 12th. This year thirty Milton High students will attend the conference. This is the largest delegation that attended the conference in several years. Miss Wheeling will chair the group.

Dear Reader:

We hope you will not think it too bold if we offer you a minute pearl of personal experience. And have patience.

Like most other high school editorials, it has an excellent moral in the end.

It seems that last Sunday we did not get up until the morning sun had fled, and then we did not get up until the afternoon sun was almost the evening sun. This was in turn due to the regrettable fact that we had not gone to bed until the evening sun was almost the morning sun. Let it suffice to say that we got up late.

When we did, we went to a very fashionable resort, patronized only by intellectuals, pool room bums, the Club V/o. With our chums, also gathered, we downed two or three pitchers of ginger ale in order to make nimble our brain for the coming struggle with our homework. We had one limburger on rye in lieu of dinner; then we crawled onto a shuttle for the ride home. That was the last thing we could remember until somewhere in the middle of our second class Monday morning.

"To all you young things in the Junior class let me address the thought content. Do Not Go Out on School Nights. Repeat this slowly three times. Take this horrible and do your homework.

dear kids to say I am jolly well furious is to put it rather mildly. I think the gum all the way was an exciting bit of a dance but I wore out my best spots and my friends tell me I have developed a bad case of dandruff. I shall advocate program dances from now on everybody had such a ripping good time here's three throaty hurrahs for gum and ginger ale from now on as a member of the crimson and white staff and an eager student of Milne I shall go everywhere and see everything. I am accompanying the staff to New York as soon as we return pip pip timothy termite

Miss Katherine N. Westfall Faculty Adviser

Published weekly by the Crimson and White staff at the Milne School, Albany, New York.

December, please.

Once or twice a year a crusade or general drive is undertaken to remind a few happy Hillites that all candy, ice cream, etc., bought in the annex must be eaten there. We do not imply that this is done deliberately but we realize that the rules may slip our memories. We confirm these conclusions by the discovery of candy wrappers, ice cream sticks, etc., found about the halls and in desks.

So, with a pretty please, we are asking you to take heed.
Quia:

Quia, you all remember, won the Blue division from Carl Sandburg. Virginia Nichols gave a report on his life and Katherine Newton read a list of his works.

The different committees gave their reports on the Quin-Sigma Dance. Joan Lochen, the new girl, joined.

Theta Nu:

There was a discussion of the coming banquet. Plans were made concerning the keys, initiation, etc.

Theta Nu played Albany High School and will play Adelphi in the Hi-Y Carnival tomorrow night.

Theta Nu extends its heartiest congratulations to Quin and Sigma for sponsoring such a successful dance.

Theta Nu will use the following cheers at the Hi-Y Carnival.

Color Cheer:

Come on Blue, Come on White
Theta Nu - Fight, fight, fight!

Train Cheer:

T-r-r-r-r, H-e-r-r-r, A-r-r, N-o, N-o
Theta Nu No, Theta Nu
Fight-forever-Fight

Signia:

The President appointed Betty Stuart and Janet Jansing on the committee for judging the posters for the Quin-Sigma Dance.

Miriun Freund gave a report on the dance.

June Phillips gave a report on the life of Dorothy Canfield Fisher. Bryna Ball listed her works.

Next month, there will be reports on the lives and works of such composers as, Gilbert, Sullivan, Debussy, Berlin, and Gershwin.

Schenectady - the Oneida Junior High School's January class of 1938 just held their graduation exercises.

Our old friend, John McAllister, has just been made the class shack up at Watervliet High School.

The English class at Watervliet held a short story contest and Betty Holmes (not ours) won it.

The Senior Girls: "Rain makes the flowers beautiful. Why, oh why can't it rain on ours."

Stanton: "You ought to change your style of dancing."

Greens "If I may."

Stanton: "Well you might stop on left foot once in a while."

Bryna Ball: "Speaking about baseball, I've got a baseball dog."

Sherman: "What makes you call him a baseball dog?"

Bryna: "Because he wears a muzzle, catches flies, chases fowls, and beats it for home when he sees the catcher."

Dramatics Club

The Special Acting Group discussed the program for the coming semester. The Sophomore Acting Group gave charades and will continue them the following week. They also rehearsed the play which they will present in assembly.

Hobby Club

At the last meeting of the Hobby Club, Alfred Metz gave a report on the book, "Cancan Joe," by Commander Richard Elsberg. This is a Book of the Month Club.

(continued from col. 1)
SIDE GLANCES AT THE QUIN-SIGN

First as we entered, we were impressed by the huge scores, pardon us snow man. Secondly we became aware of the fact that we were on time (which really isn't fashionable but since it was a program dance, we felt we ought not to disappoint those future partners signed up for us. Gliding gracefully out onto the floor on a dare to see (or was it cotton), we collided in no uncertain terms with a snow man trucking on down. Regarding our damaged dignity, we continued to swing and sway with the Opera Bonnets, excuse it, the High Hatters. The next thing which caught our eye was Morgan Pond, down on all fours, busily replacing the snow drifts around the posts—my, my, tidy little piece, that Pond girl. Of course we had to be careful not to dance between Brad Davis and the mirrors as he was getting a big kick out of making faces at himself, his new theme song being "I See My Face Before Me". This breeze that just went by was Al Metz again. Things are beginning to happen fast. There goes Wilt Plummer, separating several partners by his pump handle method of dancing. Of course we had the devoted twosome, Dolc and Carvell gazing fondly at each other for only twelve short dances, and Betty Holmes and her new man (an acquaintance of only nine weeks) making the most of it. Naturally we couldn't overlook the "Muxedo Boys", therefore we looked them over and we were happy about the whole thing. Snowballs next began piling up from all sides until the upturned heels of that man of all hoos—Al Metz. We noticed Ed Walker and Barbara. Soper wiping the tears from their eyes during the last dance, because it was the last, Quin-Sign. Don't give up all hope yet girls, you may still be with us next year. We became slowly aware of the fact that the music had stopped and tuples were leaving, so gathering our remaining energy, we struggled thru the hour. With a backward glance we saw Al Metz still alive and kicking, the floor tipping dizzyly as he pounded up and down. Oh well, we've had optical illusions before and after all the impressions (and we do mean impressions), Al had made on us during the evening, it's no wonder we can't forget him.

STUDENT BLUNDERS

Who Just Used the Trung Words—The Little Devils:

Billy Saunders:
Who held up the earth? Germany.

Joyce Murdock:
Louis XVI was beheaded.

Brad Davis:
The Tropic of Cancer is a rare disease.

Ed Walker:
A passive verb is one in which the subject is the sufferer, such as, "He married her."

Nisha Hunte:
The Australians are very fond of the boomerang which carries its young in a bag outside its stomach.

Roger Orten:
Write what you know of The Last Supper. I was away for that. I had the measles.

Lola Hayner:
What does a cat do in the Winter? It splits if you don't oil it.

Ed Miller:
Correct. The toast was drunk in silence.

Answer: The toast was out in silence.

Skip Skinner:
Dialect is a language we speak among friends.

Sueley Funk:
They gave Wellington a glorious funeral. It took six men to carry the beer.

Wilson Hume:
Where was Caesar born? Caesar was born in triumph to the Capitol.

Helen Barcer:
Belle is the feminine for Ben.

Doe Andrews:
A sculptor is a man who shapes rocks and busts.

Jean McCannell:
Quarts is a number of pints.

Jack Feagles:
Venus was the chief of love in ancient Greece. She was immortal, but the Romans called her something else.