BOYS SOCIETIES PRESENT DANCE

Tomorrow night, from 9:00-12:00 P.M. in the State College Commons, formally dressed Milnites will swing to the music of Clayton Albright and his orchestra. The big occasion is the annual dance which the Theta Xi and Adelphoi literary societies are sponsoring. Many tickets have been sold for this dance. It is the second one of its kind.

REPORTS PROVE FAIR SUCCESS

The recent Book Fair which the senior English classes sponsored was a great financial success. Milne pupils should be interested to know that there were 210 extra visitors at the fair, not counting the mothers of Milne pupils.

Sixty-four dollars was taken in but that, ten dollars and forty cents was used for the following expenses:
- Decorations $2.75
- Stencils, etc. $1.65
- Tickets $1.00
- 20 lbs. cookies for the tea $5.00
- Total $10.40

The senior English classes agreed to allow Miss Wooling to purchase eight copies of Types of Literature and four copies of Adventures in Literature, which will cost about twenty-four dollars. They will use the remaining thirty dollars to buy the volumes which they believe will be of most value to the school. They will then give these books to the school library.

BARROW LEAVES SCHOOL

Charles Barnes, a prominent junior, will leave Milne in the near future. On December 15th, he will move to New Hartford, near Utica, N.Y. The New Hartford High School, which he will attend, is a new and up-to-date building, a little larger than the Milne building.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS TO BE WEDNESDAY

The fourteenth annual Christmas Plays will be presented in the Page Hall Auditorium on Wednesday, December 14, 1938 at 8:15 P.M. Tickets are 25¢.

The sale of tickets is under the direction of Fred Regan, Dramatics Club Business Manager. Tickets may be purchased at the door if desired. Tickets are also being sold by members of the Dramatics Club and at the Information Desk outside of room 124. Ticket agents will sell tickets in the homerooms next week.

DR. MOOSE SPEAKS TO MILNE STUDENTS

An excellent character and a good reputation are priceless possessions for which every person and every institution should strive. These qualities are difficult to acquire and hard to retain once they have been won. The road to attainment of good character and reputation is often filled with obstacles, and it may take considerable time to reach the goal, but the road back toward loss of these two assets is steep and slippery so that the individual or institution that starts downhill will find that the good work of years can be undone in a short time.

Just as a chain is no stronger than its weakest link and the value of that chain depends on its individual links so is the character and reputation of a school dependent upon the extent to which the individuals making up that school possess those qualities. It takes years for a school to build worthwhile character and reputation, but thoughtless action on the part of some of its members can very quickly tear down what has been built. Off campus conduct on the part of students is just as important in determining the character and reputation of their school as conduct on the campus. When groups of students go into a restaurant and cause so much disturbance that adults get up and leave or enter and leave immediately, those students are certainly lowering the standards of their school as well as their own personal standards.

MILNE FIVE PLAYS
DELMAR TONIGHT

When the Crimson Crushers of Milne take to the floor tonight, they will face an unusually strong team from Bethlehem Central High School.

Bethlehem having a veteran lineup, there promises to be stiff competition from Coach Kurd's strong defensive team. Last year the Milne raiders defeated the Delmar team in both court encounters, and if the Milne boys continue their fine playing of last week, Milne will mark down the third victory over Bethlehem Central in as many contests.

In a preliminary tilt the J.V. team will play Bethlehem Central Junior Varsity at 7 o'clock. The Varsity squad will make its appearance at 9 o'clock.

GIRLS' VARSITY BEGINS PRACTICE

Monday night the first varsity basketball practice for the girls took place in the large gym, under the supervision of Miss Hitchcock. The girls were divided into teams according to classes, each squad playing several practice games.

The girls who came to the first practice were: Dey, Murdick, Nichols, Rasp, Snattuck, Welsh, Bell, Fratag, Terhier, Lazarus, Mann, Machnic, Schreiner, Doran, Vedder, Cooper, Hunting, Lyon, Smith, and Tincher.

MILNE J.V. TEAM BATS TO BOY'S CLUB

Last Friday night on the Page Hild court the Milne J.V. was defeated by the Albany Boy's Club by a score of 21-7. During the first quarter of play the contest was close, as Milne led 5-3. However, the taller and more experienced Boy's Club steadily forged into the lead.

Stockholm led Milne with 4 points.

MILNE SKI CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock the Milne Ski Club inaugurated its season by a meeting of the members at the Municipal Golf Course. Although skiing conditions were not very favorable, a suitable spot was selected and the skiing lessons began.

The first lesson, taught by an instructor acquired by Miss Hitchcock, was a demonstration of the snow-plow and the stem turn, which the members of the club then practiced. Further lessons will be continued when the club meets tomorrow at 10 o'clock at the Municipal Links.

MILNE TRIUMPHS OVER GALWAY
IN OPENING COURT ENCOUNTER

Last Friday night in Page Hall gymnasium, the Crimson Tide defeated a hard fighting basketball team from Galway, N. Y. in its opening game. The opposing squad was held down so tightly by Milne's defensive playing that not one point was scored from the floor. The final score was 31-10 in favor of Milne.

Milne took an early lead as Fink and Childs succeeded in scoring in the first minute of play. From then on Milne kept the lead through fast floor work and skillful ball handling. Captain Dick Faland and Johnny "Flash" Fink were tied for high scoring honors with twelve points apiece.

For an early season game, the Milne defensive was excellent. A zone defense was set up by the Milne team, and not one field basket was scored by Galway; all points were made by foul shots.

(Continued from Page one) these disgraceful exhibitions of poor taste for every person attending Milne knows what constitutes good conduct and what constitutes bad conduct. Everyone knows that politeness and consideration of the rights of others are marks of the person of good breeding. Everyone knows that the taking of "Souvenirs" is thievery just as much as is shoplifting or bank robbery.

Is it not possible that Milne Students think enough of themselves and their school to practice those habits of self-control which will reflect credit to themselves and to Milne High School? Are they not proud enough of Milne's reputation and character to wish to keep up the standards set by those who have worked to build those qualities in our school?

Yours truly,

INTRODUCING THE TIP BOX

Unfortunately, the staff of the Crimson and White does not have enough time to cover every aspect of the school each week.

Perhaps you know an interesting bit of news—a novel class program, a special club activity, or something about an alumnus or even an undergraduate of Milne. We also welcome new ideas for improving the paper.

Please jot down your news tip or suggestion on a scrap of paper and drop it in the tip box. You will find it on the journalism bulletin board in room 233.

TOMORROW NIGHT AT THE THETA NU-ALPHAS FORMAL, MANY MILNE LADS AND LADIES WILL "TRUCK ON DOWN" IN TUX AND GAY EVENING GOWNS. WE TRUST EVERYONE WILL REMEMBER HIS EMILY POST, BUT HERE'S A FEW REMINDERS—JUST IN CASE.

LADS, ARE YOU SURE YOU ASKED WHAT COLOR DRESS SHE'S WEARING BEFORE YOU ORDERED THAT CORSAGE? IT ISN'T TOO LATE YET, Y'KNOW. AND DON'T TELL HER "WASH UP" AHEAD OF TIME WHEN SHE MAY EXPECT YOU ON THE BIG NIGHT.

CONGRADULATIONS!

Milne turned out full force last Friday night to cheer their basketball team. The effect of this action by the students was very evident in the final score of 31-10 in favor of Milne. Besides showing the team we wore with them, the cheering section demonstrated good sportsmanship.

Let's not forget our basketball manners at tonight's game. Here is the Milne spectator sport code:

1. Don't throw papers on the playing floor.
2. Be perfectly quiet while foul shots are being made.
3. Cheer the other side when they make an extraordinary shot or play.
4. Don't leave your seat between halves just as your cheerleaders attempt to organize a song.

If you have any doubts about the proper etiquette, just follow your kinder, most considerate thoughts. And if you can spare the time, read a page or two from Etiquette, Jr. or It's More Fun When You Know the Rules. Those guides to politeness may be found in our library, on one of the lower shelves next to the conference room door. Here's hoping you will have the grandest evening of your life!
BIG DANCE!

Well, well, well, if that little dance given by the young gentlemen of the Theta Nu and Adelphoi Literary societies hasn't rolled around again. We feel sure that, after the magnificent gain of $1.66 for their treasuries from last year's dance, will be very anxious for a second venture of this type.

All the popular little bollas who are attending this grand fête are all excited, and just can't wait for next Saturday night to arrive. Of course there has been the usual hurry-scarrying and buying of snappy little numbers to wear to this, the first real dance of the year at the Hilmo school. We might add that we have great expectations towards seeing all the gals with their golden tresses up.

We hear from a hidden source that we shall see some "new and different" couples at this shindig. Lillian "Bob-Eh" Edelshymor will enjoy her first date with that new man. Jack Boughton. We cannot hope that this first attempt will go well. Also on the sly we hear that Joe Ledden is escorting that "two-eyed terror", Millie Mattice. Millie was noted as saying that she hoped all would go well, as she is always nervous on her first date with someone as different as Joe hope from the bottom of our dear little hearts that Posy Freund and Dick Swift get along well.

There will be many a broken heart this year over the fact that "Tavern" Livernoro will not honor some lucky devil with his company.

Another thing we shall all anticipate with pleasure is the stag line or, as the fellows state it: the "He Couldn't Get A Date So He's Bothering My Girl" type. These strange creatures will undoubtedly fell lost without their leader that stages of all stages, Al "Aniush" Wheeler, this year, but perhaps, with the proper training, brother Bob can learn to replace him.

We'll see you there!

BUZZING

This selection is entitled "Buzzing around with the bee," or "What are those juniors up to lately?"

If Harriet (you know who) chatter seems more or less off motor, just have to excuse it. Of late, she's been walking on air, and all because of a little chemistry mark! And that subject is so easy to pass, too!

If someone has given you the impression that the ceiling was coming down in Activity period the other day, you have been misinformed. The former inhabitants of room 127, new in 329, decided to move that gorgeous picture, (known in some circles as the result of Bob Megrobin's artistic efforts), to their present room, that's all. However, this task proved to be more difficult than they had anticipated, after they had tangled everyone in the room in the wires. Everyone had a wonderful time, but the homework to be done was sadly neglected.

Joan Ledden attributes her worries on that recent Algebra test to the fact that she absent-mindedly forgot to bring M. Bonheur. You know, M. Bonheur is a charming red and green dump-truck which by some means helps Jeanie pass all her exams. If anyone likes the idea, you can buy them in the tonestore store. Fortheloss, Miss Ledden will not guarantee behavior like that of M. Bonheur.

OUR IDEAL

Sometime, sooner or later, (we hope sooner), we are going to be faced with the yearly task of selecting who's who in the senior class. Now, with nothing to do, we have chosen the next perfect girl. However, she is not one but a composition of many. Our ideal has:

The face of Joyce Murdock
The hair of Posy Freund
The figure of Janet Jennings
The eyes of Lillian Edelshymor
The smile of Joan Layman
The voice of Bette Fincher
The dancing of Doris Wilshah
The athletic ability of Emy Houton
The disposition of Miriam Fletcher
The "clothes-peep" of June Grace
The posture of Ruthie Rasp
The laughter of Nancy Glass
The understanding nature of Ducky
The gentleness of Millie Mattice
SUPERSTITIOUS?

Have you ever happened to think that almost every person has at least one superstition?

The mannerism of covering your mouth when yawning was handed down from the ancients. Although today it is only considered polite, it is really a superstition. The primitive people, believing in evil spirits, dared not leave the oral cavity open, unprotected, for any length of time, for fear that a sinister creature would leap in. So, knock on wood, there you are!!

Music Comes to Milne

Music has definitely come to Milne; the orchestra, the band and even the singing students. Dorcas Simpson's congruent tune is "Small Fry," What do Hewt and Mickey sing? Why of course, their song is "I'm Gettin' Sentimental Over You." The Junior Class is musical too. "I Love to Whistle" is Bruce Clement's song. Sue Roberts thinks "There's Something About A Soldier." Did you know that Shirley Baldwin boasts that "I've Got a Pocket Full of Dreams? Have you noticed how forgetful Al Hutz has been lately? What could be more appropriate for him than "I Can't Remember"? The Seniors' musical disease is marked. Nancy Glass has been infected by "Dizzy Spells." Doris Walsh is crooning "Have You Forgotten So Soon?" Our recent article on cars has made us choose "Night Ride" for Ed Starkweather. Did you know that Joan Laddon is musical as well as Joe? Joan's refrain is "Somebody Cares For Me." Of course brother Joe plays "Sweet and Lovely", to a certain young lady, on his piano. Even the faculty express themselves in music. Their favorite piece is "Readin', Ritin', and Arithmetic."

In concluding, we predict that the Theta-Ju Alcholoh Dance will be "Mid-Night In a Madhouse."

---Prospective Groom Sees Papa

"Well Fredrick, so you've come to ask for my daughter's hand in marriage? You are my friend John's son, aren't you? I've been wantin' to palmer off on somebody for a long time. Son, how can you support my little girl?"

"I think so, Sir."

"What do you work at?"

"I do most anything, Mr. Raymond. For a while I was a Taylor, but my Sayles kept falling until I went bankrupt. Then I dug Wells, but now I am in the selling business."

"Just what field of selling?"

"Well, I'm in the Hatfield. I Kinella man a hat before he can catch his breath."

"How are you accepted socially?"

"I'm a hooey and you know that they are a very select group. May they ever Barsam of the most prominent men in town."

"Are you a gambler?"

"To, Sir, I never make bets. I save my money for Eaton."

"What luxuries can you give my daughter?"

"I have a wonderful new Buick with easy shift, free Wacoling, and all the other gadgets."

"Well I guess it's O.K. then, you can have my little Shaver."
