PALACE THEATER OFFERS MILNITES REDUCED RATES

Do Milne students want to see movies at the Palace Theater for $.15? Anita Hyman, a Senior, has arranged with the manager of the Palace, that any number of people from the Senior High School may attend any movie there, provided it is in some way connected with school studies, for this reduced fee.

weeks of careful study and coaching, Coach Hatfield, Coach Havko, from State College, and Coach Donowitz, also of State, have made eliminations from the large number of boys who went out for basketball this fall.

This year's varsity squad of eleven men is headed by Captain John Fink. Others on the team are Guy Childs, Robert Clarke, Donald DeHure Carl French, Joseph Hunt, Kirk Lanning, Charles Locke, Robert Saunders, Bob Stevenson, and LeRoy Smith. Of these boys, Childs, Fink, and Stevenson made the varsity team last year. Coming up from last year's Junior varsity are Clarke, Donald DeHure, Charles Locke, Robert Saunders, and Smith. Two fellows this year deserve the distinction of landing varsity positions without previous experience under Milne tutelage. They are French and Hunt. Childs and Smith are the tallest men on the team, averaging well over six feet. Childs held down varsity center last year, while Smith was center on the junior varsity team.

BOYS SOCIETIES WILL HAVE FORMAL DINNER

Theta Nu and Adelphoi Literary societies are formulating plans for their annual dance under the direction of Gifford Lantz, Theta Nu, and John Schamberger, Adelphoi, co-chairmen. The dance will be on Saturday, December 9, in the Page Hall gym from 9 to 12 o'clock P.M. The occasion will be formal, and tickets are $1.50 per couple.

The committees working with Lantz and Schamberger are: Decorations - Bruce Clements and Robert Megherbilian; Publicity - Frank Neves and David Wilson; Orchestra - Robert Saunders and Robert Stevenson; Tickets - John Fink and Alfred Metz.

Miss Antoinette Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Shav, and Mr. Thomas Kasea will chaperone the event.

HISTORY C FEATURES LINCOLN

The History C classes, in connection with their study of the Civil War, are to present programs on Abraham Lincoln during their respective class periods. The programs will be in the form of plays, pantomimes and discussions.

Betty Mann is chairman of the committee of the 9:30 class with Anita Hyman and Gifford Lantz to assist her. In the 11:35 class, Armon Livermore is in charge with Shirley Baldwin, Doris Holmes, Robert Wheeler, Evelyn Wilber, and Roy Williams on his committee. Marilyn Smith and Fred Hegen are co-chairmen in the 1:30 period.

COLLEGES HOUSE WILL PRESENT "EAST LYNN"

College House of State College will present that famous old melodrama, "East Lynne," in Page Hall auditorium on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, December 6 and 7, at 8:15 o'clock. Student admission is $.25, general admission, $.35, and reserved seats are $.40.

This production is the successor to the widely acclaimed "Ten Nights In A Barroom," which College House presented last year. Playing it in a serious vein, as they did last year, College House under the direction of Al Weiss is expecting to provide another evening of side-splitting entertainment. The production will feature an all male cast, with five of the roles being female parts. This program promises to be equally as great a success as its predecessor.

"The tear-jerker is a tragic story of a married who is racked by jealousy and deserts her home and family for the unprincipled villain. Her death at the family home where she returns in disguise, will melt the heart of the coldest Puritan," State College News

FORGER MILITATE HARRIES

Miss Barbara Joyce Bladen, Jr., was married recently to Mr. Joseph L. Stevenson. The ceremony took place at the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity house at Dartmouth College.

Mrs. Stevenson, while in Milne, was president of Alpha Sigma Theta Society. She was also active in other social and scholastic activities.
The basketball season will open for our squad on December 2 when they play Berlin on Berlin's court. In case you don't realize it, it is tomorrow night and you just about have time to make arrangements to go on the bus. Let us show Manager Al Matz that his pleading words have reached home and that we will do our best to help the team, which has five more members than last year, on to its first victory.

From previous experience, we found that it is to your own advantage to go to away games. The cost is nothing compared with the fun you can have meeting students (both boys and girls) of other schools, watching our team swamp the rival basketeers, and don't forget the good times the bus to and from offers.

We would like to know of any fellow or girl who has not thoroughly enjoyed his or her self at an away game.

WHAT MILNE READS

The following list of books, which is a part of the readings of the senior class in Milne, was compiled by a roving reporter from a series of interviews.

Carl French is reading "The Red Knight of Germany" by Floyd Gibbons. "This is about the German Air Forces during the World War and of special interest at the present time", stated Mr. French.

Evalyn Wilbur has just finished a story about an escape through Germany written by Ethel Vance entitled "Escape".

Edward Starcheather is reading John Steinbeck's best seller, "The Grapes of Wrath". This is the story of a family who migrate to California and of the hardships they endure on the trip.

Barbara Thompson stated: "I have just finished 'Coediquette' by Elizabeth Eldrich and enjoyed it because it gave good advice about life in college."

Fred Regan explained he had just finished John Gunther's "Inside Europe" and said, "This is an interesting accurate account of the happenings in Europe during the last few years as seen through the eyes of an American Newspaperman."
Dear Students,

This Saturday the 1939-40 basketball season opens. The team has been practicing hard the last two weeks to be in shape for the first game. Through the generosity of the "Man's Association" a complete new set of varsity uniforms has been acquired. Schedules have been printed and distributed to all students.

Arrangements have been made for a bus to carry students to Berlin for the opening game. The Athletic Council, the Man's Association, and the team itself have done their part in getting the season off to a good start.

You must do your part now. This is your school and your team. It is up to you and the most capable person will be chosen each year to be head cheerleader for the following year. You can do this in many ways. First, the members of this year's squad are come to all the home games and as many as possible: M. Chase, B. Schreiner, A. Vedder, L. Einsteir, W. Jordan, Mochrie, J. Vedder, L. Ambler. Stands yelling for their team to win, the incentive to win is increased tremendously. Second, cooperate with the cheerleaders. Learn the cheers and school songs. When they call for a cheer you've got, Milne used to have a great cheering section but this year it seems rather weak. It's up to you to make it one of the best in the city. The third way you can help us have a big season is to bring your Mother and Dad, or friends to as many games as is possible. They will enjoy them as much as you do, and we will enjoy having them.

I want to take this opportunity to explain several things. This year, as in the past, all Milne students will sit in the right hand stands. The seats on the left side are reserved for visitors. After each home game there will be dancing. An excellent orchestra has been engaged and all students who attend the game will be admitted to the dancing. I would like to make it clear, however, that no roughhousing or fooling around will be allowed on the dance floor. We are trying to make these games popular and they won't be if dancing is made difficult by antics.

So please cooperate with us in every way and I am sure we will have a great year. Be sure and come to all the games.

Sincerely yours,

HOARSENESS COMES TO MILNE

Tomorrow night opens our basketball season for this year, and what a whizz-banger it promises to be!

Our first game, being at Berlin, has given the cheerleaders a problem as to whether or not there would be any cheering section, but with the Student Council chanting: "Now is the time for all good Milnites to come to the aid of their school," it seems probable that there will be quite a few spectators to inspire the team.

If, however, they don't shout any louder than the senior high did at the last "pep meeting" the cheerleaders are apt to groan: "Oh where, oh where has thy little voice gone?" Speaking of cheerleaders, we hear this year's crop is bigger—better. Several of the senior lads, it is rumored, have joined the cheering line! (Did we hear someone say something about tumbling?)

We do not feel it necessary to urge Katie Morrison, for with tall, handsome Johnny Pink as captain—well all right! Then too, it is said another junior gal known as Jessie Doane will keep her fingers crossed for another Guy. We imagine the chief star of the "sideline situan"—namely Stanley Addison—will also show up. After watching the boys almost every day since they began practicing, it would be a pity if he didn't see them "in play".

ON MILNE HIGH SCHOOL

"On Milne High School" is printed by the request of a Milne senior who can't understand why almost everyone sings: "Fight on for her fame" instead of the original second line: "Plunge into the game!"

On Milne High School! On Milne High School! Plunge into the game,
Aim the ball right for the goal The basket's cure this time.

On Milne High School! On Milne High School! Fight on for her fame,
"Hit, fellows, hit!" And we will win this game.
 Everybody eats a lot and sleeps (we won't say how much) and goes about getting re-acquainted. After being separated from the watchful eye of the family for several weeks, the Thanksgiving vacation does its best to retie the family ties.

Joyce Lardick, the magnetic motorist, conducted tours throughout Albany for the "home-saved" college kids. She could frequently be seen with eight (or so) cronies piled into the car.

Charles Sanderson, home from Blair Academy, was duly outfitted with shoes. Three pairs ought to last until Christmas, unless the Blair "boys do an unusual lot of stepoingo

One of our perkiest graduates of a couple of years ago, Frannie Seymour, is wearing a flashing diamond. To us, the gentleman is not known, "but if he suits Fran, it's OK by us"

MORE ABOUT NOTHING

Should a girl go into a faint, a regular Eighteenth Century swoon, don't be too surprised. It's an art that is being practiced. At a recent hen session, occasionally called a bridge party, something just brought it on. The gals claim that they are getting pretty good at it, too.

Anita "the lark" Morley had a nice idea when she thought of envelining the ticketholder at the theater to grant a lower admission price to Milne students for a picture with historical significance. Last weekend, numerous ones trouped to the Palace to see "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington."

Have you seen the pictorial exhibit in the library? Miss Eaton, whom we often see with a camera, has displayed the "snaps" which she took last year. Many a pose of an industrious Milnite may be viewed there.

"Laboring" Livermore may soon be the title accorded to Armon with a lead in one of the Christmas plays and seventy some-odd lines to learn before the thirteenth, he is one Milne fellow who won't be saying: "I haven't a thing to do!"

Speaking of the Christmas plays, new talent has been placed or opportunity. This year Bill Macy will be doing his bit to make our evening's entertainment a success.
