The Capital District Scholastic Press Association will convene for its semi-annual conference at Milne on Saturday, May 10. President, Fred Bagley, and Robert Gordon are directing the plans for the conference, and Milne extends a cordial invitation to all journalists to attend.

Delegates will register from 9:00 to 10:00 in Page Hall, following which, they will attend sectional meetings until 1:00 P.M.

Dr. Robert Frederick will deliver a welcoming address to the guests. Leading sectional meetings will be Joan Murray and Miss Sally Young, of State College and advisers to the Crimson and White, A.F. Schwebel, of Millay Livingston Junior High School, and Edward J. Hurley, of the Knickerbocker News editorial staff. These groups will discuss the College Reprint, Gathering the Edit, and the Part School Journalism Plays in Newspaper, Bulletin, and Radio. These have, respectively, Under supervision of Warren I. Benak, supervisor of English, a convention newspaper, The CKP Observer, will be published and distributed to delegates.

The Milne Glee Club, directed by Dr. T.H. Channing, will present a musical program for the guests, and members of the Student Council will act as ushers.

The Crimson and White will issue no paper next week due to the holiday.

ASSEMBLY TO FEATURE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The joint assembly program on Wednesday, May 15 at 11:45 A.M. will feature the State College Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Bernard Perlman.

Mr. Perlman has selected a tentative program which will commence with the first movement of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. Following this, the orchestra will play The Russian Sallot Dance, an overture composed by H. Rimsky-Korsakov. Mr. Perlman has chosen as the concluding number The March of the Blacksmiths, by H. Gilmore.

The strong ensemble of the orchestra previewed a program of fine assembly music for the season.

SIGMA DRINKS TONIGHT; SENIORS TO BE KEYS

Sigma Literary Society will have its annual banquet tonight in Jack's Restaurant at 6:30. Miss Margaret Hayes, Mistress of Ceremonies, has charge of arrangements.

From Martin, Vice-President, will present the senior girls with keys. Seniors to receive keys are: Martha Frothing, Doris Holmes, Margaret Chase, Betty Mann, Jane Phillips, Jean Basha, Evelyn Wilbur, Elba Wagner, Eleanor Parsons, Shirley Smith, Ada Snyder, Anita Hymen, Shirley Flinn, Adele Lang, Ar- dell Chadderton, Bynia Ball, Alora Bank, Harriet Gordon, and Alma Brown.

SOCIETIES CONDUCT BALL IN COMMONS TONIGHT

The four literary societies, Sigma, Qbina, Theta Xi, and Mheta, will have their annual spring formal dances, the Sigma last May 12, tonight in the State College Commons from 9:00 to 1:00.

The occasion will feature Max Broder and his orchestra, and the assessment is $1.50 per couple.

Robert Bingham, chairman, will announce the names of Milne's May Queen, for whom the societies voted at their respective meetings.

Miss Margaret Hayes, Miss Margaret Bet, and Wilfred H. Allen will chairperson the event.

SIGMA DANCES TONIGHT; SENIORS TO BE KEYS

Mr. Bingham will announce the names of Milne's May Queen, for whom the societies voted at their respective meetings.

Miss Margaret Hayes, Miss Margaret Bet, and Wilfred H. Allen will chairperson the event.

Mr. Perlman has selected a tentative program which will commence with the first movement of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony. Following this, the orchestra will play The Russian Sallot Dance, an overture composed by H. Rimsky-Korsakov. Mr. Perlman has chosen as the concluding number The March of the Blacksmiths, by H. Gilmore.

The strong ensemble of the orchestra previewed a program of fine assembly music for the season.

Dr. Robert Frederick will deliver a welcoming address to the guests. Leading sectional meetings will be Joan Murray and Miss Sally Young, of State College and advisers to the Crimson and White, A.F. Schwebel, of Millay Livingston Junior High School, and Edward J. Hurley, of the Knickerbocker News editorial staff. These groups will discuss the College Reprint, Gathering the Edit, and the Part School Journalism Plays in Newspaper, Bulletin, and Radio. These have, respectively, Under supervision of Warren I. Benak, supervisor of English, a convention newspaper, The CKP Observer, will be published and distributed to delegates.

The Milne Glee Club, directed by Dr. T.H. Channing, will present a musical program for the guests, and members of the Student Council will act as ushers.

MOVING-UP DAY GIVES MILNE HOLIDAY, MAY 17

Milne will have no classes on Friday, May 17 due to the annual Moving-Up Day exercises of State College.

The Crimson and White will issue no paper next week due to the holiday.
ANNUAL MILNE HORSE SHOW FEATURE OF MAY 17

Milne's annual Horse Show will take place on Friday, May 17, at 2:30 o'clock in the Troop B Armory on New Scotland Avenue. The riders will compete for ribbons in several drills and there will be an intermediate group which will give everyone a chance for a prize.

Those taking part are: Jane Davis, Jean Figar-sky, Marjorie Gede, Patricia Forward, Betty Hoyt, Marjorie Mack, Doris Specter, Mildred Specter, Marion Sjolund, and Inna Warshaw.

Also, Ralph Loomis, Harry Mosher, Mervin Riley, and Luirel Ulridhe.

This week-end the Milne theatre goers will have a difficult time trying to decide which movie to see. The Strand Theatre features Bing Crosby and Gloria Jean in "If I had My Way." A second hit is "Charlie Chan's Murder Cruise."

The Palace will attract many Milnites with "20 Mule Team" starring Wallace Beery and "Two Girls on Broadway." Probably the Mules that paraded through Albany on their way to the Palace will be the reason for a trip downtown.

Of course we can't forget the Madison where many happy little romance buds in the spring. The long-waited for "Innoc- chia" will make its appearance from Saturday to Tuesday inclusive. See you Saturday night.

HERBERT VVIS SCHOLARSHIP

Florence Herbert, Milne senior, was awarded a special scholarship by Oberlin College. The award was made on the basis of excellence in scholarship, character, leadership, and future promise. The competition for the scholarship was very keen as 310 candidates competed.

MUSIC RECITAL TOMORROW

Tomorrow night, May 11, the Milne Girls' Aesthetic Dancing Class will conduct a recital at 8:00 o'clock in the Page Hall Auditorium. The State College class will also participate in the recital. This type of dancing has become very popular in many schools in the last few years.

DISPLAY IN LIBRARY

The City Club of Albany has a photographic exhibit in the library on "View of Albany—The Need of City Planning." The exhibit will be on display until May 17.

MOVIES

SOCIETIES ADMIT MEMBERS; THETA-Nu PLANS OUTING

The members of Phi-Sigma recently admitted these new members into the society: Frederick Betweiler, Walter Griggs, Robert Lee, Robert Os-trander, and Gerald Plum-kett.

Theta-Nu will have its annual outing at Thatcher Park Saturday, May 10. The boys will start for the Park at 10 o'clock in the morning. During the day, the following new members will be formally initiated into the society: Donald Faucault, David Neck, Edward Poole, and Frederick Stut.

Stanley Hall was initiated into Adelphi.

MILNE LOSES TO GREENVILLE

The Milne nine was again the victim of a close decision by the score of 2 to 0. John Fink was the pitcher and gave four hits. Fink starred with 12 strike outs to the opposing pitcher's 8. The team as a whole showed comparatively much better fielding than in last week's game, Greenville tallied twice in the fourth inning and failed to see the home plate for the duration of the contest. Their runs however, were due to few hits and an error.

The game was played on the Lower blecker Stadium diamond. There were few scattered Milnites there.

The infield lineup was the same but there was a slight change in the outfield. Al Wilson played left, Bob Clark—center, and Guy Childs-right.

The final score in the game was Greenville 2, Milne 0. The next game on the Milne roster will find Milne journeying to Bethlehem Central Today.
CHILDREN'S CRUSADE

As we glanced through the Children’s Crusade story in last week's issue of the Crimson and White, we came to the conclusion that Milne students did not all respond to the plea for a contribution. Of course, as a school we did give a fair sum, but did you work out the problem arithmetically, as we did? We found that if four hundred students all gave at least ten cents, the total would be forty dollars. There are more than four hundred students in the school, and the faculty contributed to the drive. In this way it is easy to see that Milnites were way below “par”.

It does seem to us that students of a school like Milne should have been more thoughtful of children in other lands who, through no fault of their own, are stranded, penniless, and homeless, and should have contributed more to this extremely worthy cause.

IV. A HISTORY OF THE CRIMSON AND WHITE

Since the early 1900's Milne students have published five times a year, and later quarterly, a magazine called the Crimson and White. This magazine was put out by an organized staff of students and contained such items as the running of important events, the activities of societies, and organizations, and student literature.

In 1931 journalism was established in Milne, and the quarterly magazine was changed to semi-annual, the Christmas Literary issue, and the Senior issue, or yearbook, and in addition a weekly mimeographed newspaper we inaugurated. Both publications retained the name, Crimson and White, until, for the sake of more distinction, in 1939, the magazine was renamed Bricks and Ivy.
Special Note for Senior Girls:

Be on your very best behavior tonight. You may be chosen May Queen.

Advice to the Lovelorn: (For Men Only)

What To Do When You've Got Nothing To Do And Lots of Time To Do It

This Little ditty is dedicated to all those who frequent that highlight of Madison Avenue, that place where you're bound to meet your friends, (bounding out on their face), that haven for the hungry with booths for the very, namely Herbert's, and to all those who stick to good old coke and potato chips, instead of slopping it up, and egging it on with pretzels.

With apologies to Christopher Morley and his Animal Crackers---

Potato chips and coke to drink,
That is the best to eat I think.
When I grow up and can take what I please,
I think even then, I'll insist upon these.

Do you choose when your escort says, "What will it be?"
Do you answer, "Why, you ought to know me."
Is it pretzels and beer, or a highball to toast?
No, it's potato chips and coke that I love the most.

Herbert's the cosiest place that I know
The nickelodeon is playing, the people aglow,
And there in the soft lights, how Jolly to see My coke and potato chips, waiting for me.

Most people come here, to talk and drink beer,
But they don't have nearly as much fun
as I
Who drink my coke with the fellows standing by;
And they all say they'd like to to me
Having coke and potato chips for a change, free.

Question: Does your girl go out with other fellows?
Remedy: If she doesn't, you're lucky.
If she does, you could---

1. Let her get away with it
2. Go out with another girl
3. Tell her not to

If you choose number 2, the girl will get mad and maybe tell you to go jump in the lake. If you tell her not so, she will do it all the more.
So, all in all, you had better let her get away with it. You can't win!

Question: Do you like a girl, but she goes out with someone else?
Remedy: If she doesn't, it's a miracle.
If she does, you could---

1. Just sit back and don't do any thing about it.
2. Ask your rival politely to step aside.
3. Ask her out.

If you don't do anything about it,
you won't get anywhere. If you use remedy No. 2, you will probably end up with a piece of backfat over your eye. If you ask her out, the other fellow will got mad, but what he doesn't know won't hurt him. Are you nice or men?

Question: Does she keep you in the dark?

1. If she doesn't, well well! If she does, you could---

2. Keep her in the dark,
3. Turn on the light of understanding—yes, we said understanding.
3. Grin and bear it.

If you keep her in the dark, she'll leave you. If you force her to turn on the light, you'll be sorry. So you had better grin and bear it.