LA FIN DE L'ANNEE

The most important step of the ladder of the school year, the final decisive part of the climb to the end of the season, is rapidly approaching. Needless to say, we are, of course, speaking of final obligations and Regents, following exams and nights, and then the concluding events of the year—Commencement.

In this issue of the Crimson and White the final issue of the season, goes to press, the staff and the Editors, take the opportunity to express a two-fold message: To the Class of 1940: The best of luck and success; To all Milnites who have not yet established residence in either Room 130, or the Little Theatre, wishes for a happy summer, and a successful 1940-1941 school year.
The tennis squad will end the 1940 campaign by playing Mont Pleasant at Schenectady June 6th. The game will be played on the Central Park courts. In the last meeting between these two teams Mont Pleasant won a close match. The Milne team hopes to end a rather poor season with a victory if possible.

Fink was the Milne hurler yesterday.

As the season draws to a close, with only one more game to be played at Greenville, we can only see a fair season for Milne club. Although losing some ball games, Milne played hands up ball all season. The best contest all season was the Bethlehem Central game which was played in Delmar. Milne whipped Bethlehem Central 5 to 1.

The last game of the 1940 season is scheduled to be played June 7 at Greenville. This will be the farthest trip the team has made all season. Milne has a good chance to end the season with another sparkling victory.

GOLF CLASS TO COMPLETE SEASON

The Girls' Golf Class has progressed rapidly. Miss Hitchcock plans to take the girls around the Municipal Golf Links June 6 at 4:00 in a full game to complete the season's course. Girls taking the course are: Doris Spector, Helen Hitchcock, Laura Lyon, Helen Cooper, Dorothy Rider, Marie Edwards, Joyce Stanton, Melba Levine Marion Malvey, Mirian Steinhardt, and Valley Paradis.

The Girls' Varsity Tennis Team Schedules Last Games of Season

Tidbits

That's What They Keep Telling

To Down At The Office

According to the calendar, the days are growing longer and the nights shorter (as if they weren't short enough already.) However, the fact remains that in spite of these glad tidings, the period until the end of another scholastic year, is drawing to a close.

Not being the sentimental type, we don't believe in dwelling too long on the subject of the departure of our seniors, so instead, we shall observe a brief preview of the coming attraction—the Senior Brawl.

The usual heroic couplets will appear in the form of Gif (Jackie Rooney) Lantz and Doris (Old Faithful) Lockheed, not to mention Betty and Bob, from the radio program of the same name. Our esteemed president, Art (third term) Bates seems to be deviating from his usual drinking habits; we hear that now he prefers Canada Dry—otherwise known as Madame X. We oughtn't to mention it, but All (deed I do) Watts is fortunate enough to be escorting the queen of the Bushe tribe. Of course we expect to see Carl (umphrey Bogart) French, alias "Frenchy, the Killer" with his favorite partner in crime, Bette Farnam, toting the guns.

Fred "efficiency plus" Regan will be properly soothed during the dance by the sweet words and music of Betty Candlym. It is also rumored that Bob "Treasure Island" Stevenson will exhibit his latest discovery in jewels—namely Tahitian Silver.

Don't tell a soul, but Eleanor "Niagara-Falls—Here-I-Come" Mioli will be seen with an engaged man. Guess who? And we don't mean Yahoodi.

Quin and Stuff

The Quin outing was a terrific success from the looks of all the Quin girls that struggled into school this past Monday.

June Glanzbitz was so sunburned that she couldn't even go to bed that night.

Were we surprised! It seems that Barbara Thompson went in swimming with her shorts on, and in the midst of all the hullabaloo, the strap on her halter broke. Of all things! But some gentleman was on hand, and helped her fix it with a piece of tow rope.

Joan Huntington swam from the dock to the float with Flo Berber's lunch and didn't get it wet. It's all in the way you go about it.

And last Friday night, Johnny Dyer and Chuck Locke were sooooo mad because they didn't have coats on. They were given tickets to a dance and, not having coats, couldn't go in. But, gentlemen that they were, they handed the tickets over to two Milne girls so that they could have the good time.

The only thing we are sure of about Margaret Chase is that she is definitely a C.C.C. girl, (as in Chase, Cleveland, and Cregan). There will always be a "Hann" after Betty. This time it is rumored, he will be a Union man(n).

Of course, this little bit is just between you and the lamp post, but who thinks Jean (of the May) Ledden will feel the need of lessons in French at the annual soiree. Who knows!

Lois Ambler has made some Guy happy by her acceptance, and we feel sure that Suzanne Roberts will be using the Leaning Tower more.

---Milne Senior Brawl to be held next Friday night—edy LaMarr is comin' as guest. (Continued in next edition).

ADVICE TO LOVING~ (Girls, only!)

Question: Does your best beau whisper sweet nothings in your ear, while all the time he is thinking of some other girl?

Remedy: You could——-
1. Tell him to go and never darken your ear lobe again,
2. Tell him that he wasn't fooling you and have a woman to man talk with him,
3. Talk about another fellow in front of him.

If you tell him to go, you will most likely regret it. If you talk about another fellow, he will go. So you had better have a woman to man talk with him.

Question: Does he vex you by doing little things like calling you babe, splashing mud on you, or, (of all things, boys), walking on the inside.

Remedy: You could——-
1. Slap his face,
2. Correct him,
3. Pout.

If you slap his face, he may slap you back, (don't be surprised, girls---there are some fellows that would!). If you pout, you only spoil your own good time. Correcting him is the best bet. If he doesn't respond to this, then use your own judgment, but do be careful!

Question: Does he always come late?

Remedy: You might——-
1. Leave before he comes,
2. Act mad at him,
3. Tell him to come a half an hour earlier.

If you leave before he comes, he will blame you and never come again. If you act mad at him, he will act mad and the night will be miserable---plus. So the best remedy is to tell him to come a half an hour earlier.

Of course, these are all just suggestions. If anything goes wrong, don't blame us.

STYLE NEWS------ by Sally Fashion

Oh, the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la, are likened unto our Milne sub-debs as they blossom out in gay array to greet the sunny weather.

Cottons take the lead placing on their platform, piques, chambrays, and seersuckers.

Big "cash-and-carry" pockets are popular, also those adorable pinafores that take us way back past Grandma's childhood.

Then there are the classics; pastel striped chambrays and shirt waist dresses, especially with "action-backs" are ideal for golf and spectator sports.

While you are shopping, don't forget to consider sharkskin. This crisp fabric is ice-cream cool for those hot summer days, and it comes in the smartest styles.

As to your feet ensembles, moccasins and wedgies are very "in the groove", and who could possibly forget the faithful saddle shoes?

Special Note: Saddle shoes are being worn clean this year.

Anything goes as to style. Be feminine, tailored, frilly, or dress to suit your mood. Fashion is at a crossroads, and either way you choose to go is bound to be fashionable.
