PAPEN, BOYD, AND STEIN WINNERS
IN MILNE RIDING MEET LAST FRIDAY

The Milne School's first riding meet was held Friday, May 25, in the Troop "B" armory on New Scotland Avenue.

The exhibition began at 3 o'clock with a drill by the entire group. It included sets of "four" and columns of "twos", with commands given by Helen Papen. Next came the form riding which was won by Helen Papen, with Huldah Classen of State College, second, and Mitchell Ford, third. Betty Boyd won the blue ribbon for jumping, with Frances Levitz and Helen Papen second and third, respectively. The final event, the "chair" elimination, was won by Robert Stein.

The show was under the personal supervision of Sergeant-Major Vaughn of Troop "B".

BARBARA BIRCHENOUH TO BECOME CRIMSON
AND WHITE ASSOCIATE EDITOR NEXT YEAR

"Barbara Birchencough has been appointed associate Editor of the Crimson and White for next year," Helen Gibson, last year's editor-in-chief, announced Tuesday. Miss Birchencough is well fitted for this position since, besides attending the Crimson and White Cub Class this year, she was in her Freshman year both editor-in-chief of the Junior High Crimson and White and president of the JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL. She has also been an active member of the Quintillian Literary Society in this, her Sophomore year, and conspicuous in girls' sports having made the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team. Miss Birchencough commands the respect and esteem of both faculty and her fellow students.

CLASS NIGHT AND SENIOR BALL
TO BE HELD FRIDAY, JUNE 15

The Milne High School Class Night and Senior Ball will be conducted Friday, June 15. The Class Night program will be held in the Page Hall auditorium at eight o'clock after which the Senior Ball will begin at Wolferts Roost.

At the beginning of Class Night, the senior class will march in singing the class song, which was written by Betty Pitts and Kenneth Gill. The program includes: The reading of the prophecy, which was written by Sylvia Akerfeld and Donald Glenn; the reading of the class history, which was written by Thelma Miller, Dorothy Clark and Dorothy Wallace; reading of the class poem, which was written by Thelma Miller; Dorothy Clark and Dorothy Wallace; the reading of the class prayer, which was written by Corinne Peterson and George Perkins. Margaret Gill and Robert Stuts are in charge of Class Night.

All of the faculty will be asked to the Senior Ball. At the senior class meeting last Friday Christine Ldes and Edwin Blockridge were chosen as the marshalls and Mary York, Carolyn Mattle, Virginia Hall, Duncan Cornell, Dunton Tynan, Edward Masterson were chosen as ushers for Class Night and graduation. Thomas Watkins and George Perkins are in charge of choosing the orchestra.

STATE COLLEGE GIRLS DEFEAT
MILNE GIRLS' BASEBALL TEAM

After a brilliant fight Monday, the Milne girls were defeated by the State College girls' team in a baseball game. The final score was 21 to 16. Elsbeth From, captain and pitcher for the Milne team, accounted for a home run. Minnie McKeelie pitched for the State team.

Milne held the lead in the beginning of the game. At the end of the first inning, the score was 8 to 0 in their favor. The later decline was the result of too much self-confidence. The Milne Girls' Varsity team is scheduled to play St. John's in the near future.

The girls' tennis tournaments are being finished up this week. Elimination is the system by which the champion is being found.
WE CHOOSE A STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Once again, Milne must choose its president for the coming year. It's always a difficult thing to decide upon the respective merits of each candidate and vote fairly and squarely. Just as there are party politics in the national elections, so have we influences from the various school cliques.

Now student government is a difficult task, since it includes the balancing of the budget, the direct or indirect management of all social affairs of the school, and the handling of all questions concerning conduct. Therefore, (1) The president of the school and the Student Council must of necessity be one who can make cool, calm, judgements, thus influencing all major and minor decisions of the council. (2) He must be well-liked by the students and faculties as a whole, thereby insuring the harmonious cooperation of all. (3) He must be able to take on new responsibilities without relinquishing the old, since his scholastic work and other extracurricular activities must not suffer. These are the most important requisites of a good leader—but, may we ask, "How can we tell who is best fitted?"

Now, we all want the best man to win, really more for the good of the school than for what is his due, since only a responsible person can hold such a position successfully. But the only real way we may judge who can meet these requirements best is to take an account of the nominee's past deeds, and they need not have anything to do with the Student Council. Ask yourself if your favorite candidate is trustworthy, a hard-worker, faithful, likeable, and level-headed. Then, if he is, vote for him by all means.

PLEASANT MEMORIES

It is almost time to bid our Senior class goodbyes, and, perhaps, we had better take one last look at them. Many of us probably wonder how it feels to be on the verge of being graduated, and to be spending last days and hours where we have had so many pleasant times. But for seniors to have really pleasant memories a great deal of careful planning is necessary.

The motto "pleasant memories must be carefully planned for" ought to be taken into consideration by the undergraduates so that when they finish high school they, too, will have pleasant memories, but that pleasant memories are the direct result of careful planning of what you wish to do, and a real choice of how to spend your leisure time.

And the Seniors there have been some outstanding examples of those who planned carefully what extracurricular activities they would engage in and who will be able to look back upon their high school days with pleasure and satisfaction. I am thinking of those who have given their time, energy, and interest to the promotion of athletics, to the carrying on of the Student Council, to the publishing of the Crimson and White and the furtherance of the activities of the clubs and societies. Let us all take heed, and learn from their example to choose wisely and plan carefully for our coming year at Milne. - G.T.

JOKES

Prof: And what is your greatest sin, young lady?
Olive: Vanity—Every night I sit for hours before the mirror admiring my beauty.
Prof: That's not vanity, that's imagination.

Get something in your eye?

No, I'm just trying to look through my finger.
ISSUE OF CRIMSON AND WHITE;
FUTURE STORIES ON BULLETIN BOARD

This is the last issue of the CRIMSON AND WHITE this year, making thirty-one times that it has gone to press, or rather, to the mimeographing machine. Although the results of the June 6 elections for the presidency of the Milne School, results of the elections of officers in Sigma, Qain, and Adolph, schedules of future baseball games, and the name of the speaker for the Senior graduation exercises are yet to be announced, this is the final edition!

All important information during the next three weeks will be posted upon the Senior High bulletin board.
—The Editor.

SOCIETY NOTES

QUIN:

At the regular Quin meeting Tuesday at 11 o'clock in room 130, nominations for the elections for next year's officers were held. The pianist will be chosen next year by a committee.

A report on the Quin outing which was held last week-end at Betty Pitts' camp on Indian Lake was given by Dorothy Stephenson. The outing was a complete success. Canoeing, fishing, tennis, and swimming were among the activities which the girls enjoyed.

The quotations this week were from an American author, James Russell Lowell. Next week they will be from Mark Twain.

SIGMA:

Sigma held its weekly meeting last Wednesday at 11 o'clock. Quotations were from George John Nathan. Lois Lentz gave the biography and Isabella Sisson gave a brief resume of his works. Nominations were made for next year's officers. The outing which was planned for last Saturday was called off because of the weather. No further arrangements about it, however.

ADOLPH:

Donald Glenn gave the literary report at the weekly meeting of the Adolph literary society Tuesday at 11 o'clock.

The society decided to hold its Annual Banquet on Friday, June 28. Dr. Adkins, Mr. House, and Professor Fones, will be invited to attend the banquet. The election of officers for the coming year will be conducted at this banquet.

MISS FAY PRESENTS NEW BOOK
TO MILNE HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

A new edition of Washington Irving's LEGEND OF SLEEPY HOLLOW, illustrated with clever etchings by a noted artist, has been given to the Milne Library by Miss Helen T. Fay, manager of the State College Co-op.

Formerly Miss Fay has presented a book each year to the Senior in the Milne School who has been most proficient in English and History. This year however, Miss Fay broke her precedent, and donated it to the library, feeling that it would do more good there.

CLUB MEMBER WITH HIGHEST
FRENCH III MARK TO WIN PRIZE

At the meeting of the French Club May 28, it was decided that the boy or girl receiving the highest mark in French III and belonging to the French Club should be awarded the French Club prize. The person receiving the regular French III prize will be barred from obtaining this one. Miss Crooks spoke to the members concerning the prize.

Virginia Hall announced that Friday was the final date for the participants in the French literary contest to hand in their papers. As yet only one paper has been handed in.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION:

The Board of the CRIMSON AND WHITE magazine wishes to thank Miss Crooks Martin and the following students: Alice Addler, Leslie Sipperly, Ruth Mann, Doris Shults, William Crawford and Emily Buchanan for their cooperation in making the cuts of the illustrations for the Senior 1934 issue of the CRIMSON AND WHITE.
