THE DECEMBER ILLUSTRATION

FROM
1935 CALENDAR MADE BY MEMBERS
OF THE ART AND SHOP CLASSES

CHRISTMAS SCENE

THE PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF THESE CALENDARS
WILL BE TURNED OVER TO THE MULL L FUND
MILNE SCHOOL TO PREPARE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BOXES FOR ASSEMBLY COMPETITION

The Milne School will again make a Christmas offering to the families of Albany's poor this year, it was announced in Student Council Tuesday. As in former years each homeroom is to organize its own contribution in the form of a box of food-stuffs, including both necessary staples and those small luxuries of fruit and candy.

Each box is to be decorated in any original Christmas motif which appeals to its donor. A special assembly will be held at 1:00 on Wednesday, December 19, 1934, the last day of school, for a special Christmas program and consideration of the merits of the contesting boxes. A judging committee of faculty members will name the winning box on the basis of originality in decoration and content of the box.

Howard Rosenstein is chairman of the distribution committee which will take the boxes to their respective destinations. The Albany Family Welfare League will supply the names to the Student Council.

COUNCIL CAUTIONS STUDENTS CONCERNING TRAFFIC SITUATION

Through the medium of the Crimson and White the Student Council wishes to bring to the attention of the senior school students the fact that the traffic situation during the lunch hour must be remedied.

Before the Student Council takes drastic measures, the students are asked to co-operate in this matter with the powers in authority. "The senior school students through continued rowdiness in the halls will force upon themselves an embarrassing and unnecessary system of traffic regulations," stated Danton Tynan, president.

NOVEMBER HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED

Eleven Senior High students attained averages of ninety per cent or above for the month of November. They are: Seniors Carolyn Mattice, Olive Vroman; Juniors - Barbara Breinhorn, Jane Bulger, Robert Mapes, Doris Shultes, Vivian Snyder; Sophomores - Ethel Fosoldt, William Hotting, Lillian Walk, Jane Weir.

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS WITH JUNIOR AND SENIOR SCHOOL CONTESTS TONIGHT

Tonight will mark the start of the Milne School's '34-'35 basketball season. The team will meet Stratford, one of its last years opponents, coached by Roy Harris, who coached the Milne team two years ago. The Junior High will play a preliminary game with the Academy Third Form team at 7:00 p.m. The main game will start at 8:00 p.m. There will be singing between the halves directed by Olive Vroman. The probable starting lineup will be: center - "Vall" Simmons, guards - Rosenstein and Thompson, and forwards - MacHarg and Captain Blocksidge. Substitutes will probably include Dearstyne, Norvell, Smith, Hotting, and Carvill.

In the Senior "pep" meeting Wednesday Frederick Dearstyne, president of the Boys' Athletic Council, cautioned the school not to forget that all guest cards must be secured before the game tonight.

Milne plays its second game of the year tomorrow night when it resumes its old rivalry with the Albany Academy. The game will be played on the Academy court Saturday at 8:00 p.m., and the admission will be $0.50.

HI-Y CLUB SPONSORS "PEP" MEETING IN SENIOR ASSEMBLY

Wednesday at 11:00 the Milne Hi-Y Club sponsored a "pep" meeting in a senior assembly. Edwin Blocksidge, president of the Hi-Y, conducted the program. Due to the absence of Coach Clifford Hall, William Allard, his teammate speaking for him, urged the student body to support the team Friday night.

Frederick Dearstyne, president of the Milne Athletic Council, explained the plan which the organization drew up for outsiders at games. Arnold Davis announced that Milne needs an Alma Mater, and challenged the students to write one. The student presenting the best original song with words will receive a key at graduation.

The main part of the assembly was turned over to Olive Vroman, captain of the cheer-leading squad. With the aid of the new leaders, Betty Boyd, Virginia Kelsey, Christine Ades, Virginia Slipperley, and Dorothy Harrison, songs and cheers were rehearsed.
FRIDAY CRIMSON AND WHITE DECEMBER 7

Helen Gibson Editor-in-chief
Barbara Birkenough Associate Editor
Carolyn Mattice Literary Editor
Edwin Blockidge Sports Editor
Oliver Vroman Sports Editor
Osmond Smith Humor Editor
Calvin Butcher Art Editor
Christine Ades Alumni Editor
Luise Morrison School Editor
Lois Lants S. C. Editor
Sara Kessler Exchange Editor
Virginia Hall Reporters
Mary York

Business Department
Casson Taggart Business Manager
Harry Witte Printer
Robert Hauer Mimeographers
Seldon Knudsen

Miss Katherine E. Wheeling Faculty Advisor
Mr. Daniel Van Lewan Student Teacher Advisor

Published weekly by the Crimson and White staff at the Milne School, Albany, New York.

Terms: $1.05 one year, payable in advance. Free to students paying student tax.

WE NEED YOU

It's here; Milne's first basketball game of the season. Well, practically here. And you can bet your last nickel (the one you've been saving to buy your Aunt Kelly some boot-ends for Christmas) that we'll be there when the kiln-butt plants Stratford High tomorrow night in the Page Hall gym. We'll be there, we'll watch our team (richt: richt) and our first opponents' team battle over that basketball until finally one wins, and we'll cheer, too. There's nothing like good loud cheering that comes from close-packed bleachers to laud the victor and hearten the defeated.

Will YOU be there? Will YOU be there? We need YOU. How will the cheering squad accomplish anything without YOU? The team needs you. People may claim that in a hard-fought contest a crowd isn't necessary, but they are wrong. YOU'll make them win. AND YOU will have a good time while you do it, too. We've got a brand new cheer squad which puts a band new "pop" into every yell and cheer. We have a good team which has worked hard and faithfully for their coach, "Cliff" Rail. We've got a good gym, and tomorrow night we'll play a worthy opponent. All we need now is YOU. Come out for the big game tomorrow and make Milne win!

AN IDEAL CHRISTMAS PRESENT

... Have you seen the 1935 calendars that William Crawford is selling? They are very attractive, startlingly so. The calendar is composed of twelve 8½ x 11 inch 9 x 12 sheets in green or cream and contrasting colors. Each sheet is a calendar of the month and a hand printed line cut of scene befitting the time of the year.

Now for the big surprise! Each of these cuts were made by Milne students under the direction of Miss Grace Marin and the printing was done by the shop classes under the direction of Mr. Raymond. So you see, the entire business of making the calendars was done right here in school by our own students.

The calendars sell for a small sum and the entire profit of the sale will be turned over to the Mural Fund. They will make anyone a lovely gift for Christmas and will be nice to have as a souvenir. The calendar with a human editor will appeal both to the spirit of those who love and have been so nurtured in this school as well as to such an extent that they have chosen created a worthy piece of art and hardened interest in another worthy piece of art.

THE JOLLY MILNER

Verse:
I have a Milne teacher named Cons.
All day at the blackboard she stands.
With erasers and chalk she will stand there and talk,
And gesticulate well with her hands.

(thanks to 0-g)

Morals:
It has been suggested to this column that "hot dogs" and candy be sold during assemblies for benefit of the mural decorations.

C. G. (take notice)
I suggest that some member of the Rod and Gun Club shoot Whisky Bauer's goose.

Warning:
A warning to Milne gals against that dashing young senior (who said anything about chowder?) who is sporting a new car.

P. S.
Get a load of that new title.

- William Tarbox
G.A.C. SELECTS NEW SWEATERS
FOR GIRLS' ATHLETIC AWARD

A new style of sweater will be awarded those girls who are especially proficient in their gym work. After several weeks of deliberation on the models submitted by Ruth Campbell, business manager of the organization, G.A.C. has finally selected a white, lightweight sweater in a stockinette stitch with an ecru neck-line. Three styles in both lightweight and heavy-weight with a price range of $2.00-$4.00 were offered for inspection.

* * *

SOCIETY NOTES

QUIN:
Both the literary program and quotations were omitted from the regular meeting Tuesday. More names of the girls eligible for membership were voted on. When the proposal of Adelphoi concerning a three-society dance in place of the annual Sigma-Quin dance was put to a vote, the question was defeated. In a joint meeting with Sigma in room 108, Quin combined with that society to reject the proposition.

The meeting on November 27 was devoted to voting on the names of eligible candidates for membership. The literary program and quotations were omitted.

SIGMA:
In the meeting on November 27, Sigma voted on the new members to be admitted this year. Quotations were from Kathleen Norris. A motion was made and passed to abandon literary programs for the next few meetings.

The meeting on December 4 was called to order with quotations from Noel Coward, and more candidates for admission were voted on. Adelphoi sent representatives to ask for permission to join with Sigma and Quin in their dance. Sigma, however, voted to accept their proposal, but later rescinded their vote in a joint meeting with Quin.

ADELPHOI:
The weekly Adelphoi report was given by Donald Glenn. A group discussion was held after his talk on Russia. Adelphoi discussed a motion to ask the sponsors of the annual Sigma-Quin dance to permit them to join. Douglas McCrady and Raymond Hotelling were appointed to present the proposition of a three-society dance.

At the meeting on November 27, Raymond Hotelling gave a report on the "Land of the Saar," the territory now in dispute by Germany and France.

SOKE CHRISTMAS POETRY
(by one who dribbles)

Under the hanging mistletoe,
The homely maiden stood.
She stood and stood and stood and stood.
And stood and stood and stood.

P. S. Are we going to stand for this? - S. B.

ADVANCED ACTING SECTION
WILL PRESENT FIRST PLAY

The advanced acting section of the Dramatics Club has announced the name of its initial venture into actual play production, "The Florist Shop," a farce-comedy in one act by Winifred Hawkridge, will be presented in assembly to the school sometime before the Christmas vacation. The exact date cannot yet be given.

The first try-outs for the play were held Wednesday at 11:00 in room 228. This afternoon at 3:30 the remaining try-outs will be conducted in the auditorium. Members of the advanced acting section only are eligible, although those members who are cast in the Christmas plays will not be permitted to try out.

FRENCH CLUB TO PROVIDE ASSEMBLY PROGRAM SOON

Le Cercle Francais will present a French play in one act entitled "Nous Verrons" in assembly some time in the near future. Some of the try-outs for the play have already been held, but no further data on the play, its direction, and its players are obtainable since all the business is being carried on during the club meetings.

It was decided to extend the range of the club programs to include songs, games, stories, poems, and literary reports. At the meeting on December 3, Olive Vroman explained the background and meaning of "Le Marseillaise."