SEVENTH GRADE HOMEROOM PRESENTS PLAY

Home Room 224 presented a play entitled "Do You Believe in Luck" in assembly last Thursday. The characters in this one act play were as follows: Jane Crandon, Barbara Rosenthal; Peggy Cramden, Glenna Smith; Almata, Billy Lang; Mrs. Crandon, Rita Figarsky; Sofia Jones, Lolla Santz; Mrs. Jones, Margaret Bo- decker; Margold Alice, Jean Novak; Aunt Penelope, Barbara Haskell; Bob, John Canning; Prof. Livingston, Philip Snavy, a reporter, John Cheeseboro; a newsboy, James Huskins.

The plot was centered around "Aunt Penelope's Opel Necklace." The dialogue was very clever and the acting was good. It seemed as though the whole audience jumped when an unearthly scream was heard announcing that "Aunt Penelope" knew about the missing necklace.

Among those that gave an outstanding performance were Barbara Haskell, Barbara Rosenthal, Billy Lang, Rita Figarsky, and Glenna Smith.

WHAT'S THE EIGHTH GRADE GOT THAT THE 7 AND 9 CAN'T SEE?

The second annual (perhaps) Hobby Show will be produced for the parents of the eighth graders this afternoon from three thirty until five o'clock. Martin Edwards, chairman, has assured everyone that the show will be a great success.

One of the feature attractions will be the presentation of Mrs. Wiggs thru the kindness of homeroom 126. Mrs. will bring her children along also to entertain.

The Milne Library will be the scene of the actions and it is expected to bring many parents.

Prizes will be awarded for the best exhibit to add a bit of competition.

that familiar name reminds us again of the annual memorial day for our best friend, our mother. One day, only one day, out of a whole year is set aside to remember our mothers. It really is a shame, isn't it, that for this day only we are kind to that person who is so dear to us. Our tongues are always making us talk about how nice Miss Blank, a school teacher is, but do we often think about how nice our greatest teacher, our mother is? Do we often think of all she does and has done for us? Do we often think of how little we do for her? Remember, won't you, that even though Mother's Day is once a year, our mothers do for us all year. Remember, too, to do the same for them.

They're All Phoney

Maybe some of you students have been hearing rumors of another change of hours next year. These might have cheered up some of you who didn't like the new hours. Well, they're fakes as it has been announced by Dr. Frederick that there will be no such change and that they weren't even planning to.

The rumors traveling around were probably gathered from some eavesdropper who got the wrong idea. You won't have to get up early and petitions probably won't make a change, so you'd better give up.

Humor

Friend: "I see you are reading a book on travel."
Reader: "Yes, I'm on a vacation. As I cannot afford to travel, I read travel books and make believe that I go places."
Friend: "But you are reading the back."
Reader: "Yes, I'm on the return trip."

Boy: "You remind me of the sea."
Girl: "Because I'm wild, restless and foppish."
Boy: "No, because you make me sick."

Weekly Fun

Mr. and Mrs. Jolly were going over the month's budget book, checking the expenditures. Mr. Jolly noticed one item reading "Hok $3, and another, "Hok $7."
Besides others scattered throughout the book.

"What are these Hoks?" he finally asked.

"Heaven only knows," replied his wife.

Whether you spend your vacation on the beach or in a camp you will look smart every minute if you follow these suggestions.

At the beach a bathing suit of course is in order. There are many style bathing suits and so get one to suit your taste. Although you will spend most of your time in a bathing suit you will want to dress up a little in the afternoon. Any wash dress or tub silk will make you feel quite dressed up after the bathing suit. Besides wearing a bathing suit on the beach there are shorts or slacks. With these get a halter so you can get a nice tan.

If you have a camp that is not near a lake or pond you won't need a bathing suit. You may wear slacks, shorts or culottes, though. In the afternoon you will get dressed again as above.

Next week: What to wear while traveling.

Character Sketch

He or she is in Home Room 121. He or she is tall, light haired, and often given to blushing.

Put your answer in the Junior Crimson and White drawer.

The answer to last week's character sketch was Gorrinne Edwards of Home Room 130.

Annual Outing

The annual outing of the Milne boys and girls will be held on June 9. By a vote the excursion won out ahead of the proposed Field Day. The people who want to go will go down the river on the Day Boat to Kingston Point. The admission will be the showing of your student I.D. card.
