THANKSGIVING
REACTIONS

BEFORE DINNER

BE PREPARED!!

STUFFED TURKEY

Day After

AFTER DINNER

DISHES!!!!!!
A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Folks,

Well here comes again after a slight vacation and I think we have a bit of news because the thing we have been waiting for is finally here, the "back seat" for you. Here you taught you closely watch the time you read while, as it will be almost over, but you should go as only for this term ends.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday they have had plays- niters ones, too. Thursday was the parents' night, Friday will be an auction for you, so you better be there.

Goodbye,
Your Editor.

SEE AND HEAR

Next week is vacation so I thought maybe you would like to take in a movie. At the Palace next week is everyone's favorite, Jeanette MacDonald, playing for the first time with Allen Jones in "The Firefly." It is filmed in a new soft shade of brown which is very new and different. At the Madison playing now is a picture that everyone should see, "Dead End," with Spivik Sidney.

If you want to spend an evening at home tune in on the radio to "The Lux Radio Theater" at nine o'clock Wednesday evening. It is a musical entertainment Monday evening, at eight-thirty. Eddie Harton is on with Deanna Durbin, Friday night at nine is Hollywood Hotel which is grand fun.

Well, I hope you have a happy vacation. Goodbye now.

THE ANNUAL OUTING

As you all know Milne has an Annual Outing every year at the close of the school year. It is either an Excursion or a Field Day. The Excursion is held or is on the Hudson River at Kingston Point, The Field Day is usually held at Lyons Lake where you have the privilege of using the grounds.

Kenneth Earhart took a vote on the Annual Outing a few days ago from the entire school, and the votes are very close.

Excursion 190
Field Day 179

Let's all make the Annual Outing a happy one at the end of the year.

HOVERBACK STUDY

During a study of superstitions the seventh-year Social Science class found that the majority of Milne students are not superstitious. This conclusion was reached by choosing five most common superstitions and then asking pupils whether they believed in them or not. Many believed in wishing on the first star. Are you among these in this group?

ARE YOU SUPERSTITIOUS??

A mistake was made in the Homeroom News. Crimson and White for October 29. Homeroom 124 made the rule that no one who wasn't in that homeroom should enter it after 8:45 unless on business of some kind. The committee decided that there was too much unnecessary noise in the room. The pupils of that homeroom will not go into any other homeroom after 8:45.

HOMEWORK NEWS

Faculty Advisor
Miss Waterbury
HUMOR

College lad (arrested for speeding):
But, your Honor, I am a college boy.
Judge: Ignorance doesn't excuse anybody.

-C. W. Song and Joke Book

"Stop up and see the current rose-colored horse - rose-colored from the tip of his nose to the tip of his tail."
"Hey there, nice city slicker, I don't believe you got any rose-colored horse in Fort der show."

"Buy your ticket and see for yourself. If that horse isn't rose-colored, you get your money back."
(After one look inside the show tent): "Hey there, Jimmie get money back. But isn't this rose-colored horse. It's a white horse."

"Well, ain't they no white roses where you come from?"

-C. W. Song and Joke Book

FET SAYINGS

Chuck: When did you leave heaven?
Don: '41?
Mickey: You're a genius.
Audie: If I weren't a girl I'd hit you!
Johnny: Oh, sugar!
Dribble: I've got my eye on you!
Betty: You low-down, common, ordinary.
Dex: Do-ra-me.
Mark: Don't be ignorant.
Bob: You shilly-shally.
Mike: Let's buy a Ford.
Betty: Bling, bling.
Bev: The wheels go round and round!

DO YOU KNOW

Do you know that 47 doors and 137 windows in Milne? That ought to let you out.

Do you know that a few weeks ago the Milne faculty went to a masquerade party for the faculty in full costume?

Do you know that there are 178 staircase steps in Milne?

Do you know that Dr. Frederick has helped to write three books?

Do you know that there are 689 desks in Milne?

Do you know there are 427 boys' and girls' lockers?

CLUB NEWS

So far the typing club has learned the parts of the typewriter, and at present are learning how to type without looking at the keys. They also have new officers. They are:

Prep. - L. J. Watters; Trans. - H. Callow
Type. - S. A. Flash; M. Bower;
Registrar - Miss Johnson.

THE FASHION PLATE

OF MILNE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Remember last week, I said I was going to have a questionnaire? Well, here it is. Let's see what you can do to it.

Three questions:
1. What is the most popular hat?
2. What skirt do you see much of wherever you go?
3. What is a favorite style jacket?

True-false questions:
1. Jewelry is being worn more than ever.
2. Low heels are considered proper for dresses.
3. Tyrolean skirts, belts, etc., are out of style.
4. Too many buttons make a dress look dowdy.
5. Feathers are not being worn at all.

Fill in the blanks:
1. Many belts are being made of_________ in place of negligees.
2. ________ are being used in place of negligees.
3. ________ may be worn in place of floor length formal dresses.
4. Fastenings are used for many purposes.
5. ________ is a famous designer.

ENGLISH 9 CLASS ALBUM

The English 9 class from 11:45 to 12:30 have finished their class album. We have a feeling of achievement and accomplishment that we have finished it. The main point we desired was originality. We worked in groups making a unique jet-black oil cloth cover, sewed around the edges with bright orange thread. This work was done by a group of girls at home. Another group worked on the prologue, a black page with orange symbols and pictures illustrating each incident in the album. Before each contribution there is inserted a black page with orange letters telling what section it is. These letters are pasted in the form of a question mark. We, the English 9 class have decided to present the class album for exhibition on parent nights.
Next week is Thanksgiving, and little Bossie has been taking inventory of all the things she has to be thankful for. Perhaps you can find that you have many more things to be thankful for than you ever realized. But among the most important is adding to your list (and you probably to yours) is that I am thankful for the many books of plays, biographies, travel, fiction, and poetry we have in our library.

Perhaps after you have your feast in food you will like a feast on a good book. It may be able to help you to digest your food. Who knows? I found Dickens' David Copperfield very easy to digest.

"The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year, Of winter, winds and naked wood and meadows brown and sore."

But who thinks of dreariness when the family gathers on Thanksgiving Day. Especially when it's to eat Grandma's turkey and her pumpkin pie. Surely you can not be dreary then. Nor could you be dreary if you had an interesting book to read. How about Tumbled by Booth Tarkington or something by Mark Twain, such as Huckleberry Finn or Tom Sawyer. I am sure you can fill plenty more in the library, so let's all have a feast on books. Shall we?

FISHING

I'm a Tring fishin',
Wannah come in, too?
I've got some worms a squishin',
in a can.
You bring long your guitar and
chose me with a song,
An' soon we'll have some vittles,
Fryin' in de pan.
-Jean Hevenor

SPRING FEVER

When it's such a sunny day,
I hate to stay inside,
I wish that all my study books
would nuthin' happen to hide,
Why I can't let work alone,
When the sun is buckin' me,
And the blossoms is leavin' so purty
for the old apple trees,
When I got so blue and lazy,
Neither says, "I do wish these lazy spells
Would leave her"
But I Jes' can't help it 'cuz I ain't what
I used to Spring Fever.
-Jean Hevenor

LOST ON THE FLORIDA KEYS

Around the Keys I walked all day,
Over coral and thru thick brush
Until finally I found that I was lost;
And once that I had lost my way
Around the Keys I walked all day.

And when I see the pull and haul-back weed,
I think of it in all its terror.
It caught me in a trap of wirey weed.
Then I yell and shout for help,
When I'm in the pull and haul-back weed.

When I hear the ghastly silence,
Then I try to get away;
But it cuts you in your silence;
Then I try again to get away,
When I hear the ghastly silence.

When I hear a train not for away,
Although I know "will call me over,
I yell and shout and try to say,
"Chie Please, come and let me out of here."

When I hear a train not for away,
When the night draws nigh,
I feel sick from hunger and exhaustion,
Then I live a long and drawn out sigh;
Then I try to go to sleep;
When the night draws nigh.

All that night I never slept;
But I must admit the sorrowful tears
Rolled down my face, as thru the night
I wept and wept,
And they kept on rollin',
For all that night I never slept.

The next morning I found that I was free.
I looked about the desolate Key,
The lonely, desolate Key
I was tired and hungry, but I could not lie up
The morning I found that I was free.
That day I walked near twenty miles,
In a straight but crooked line,
Around fences, thru orchards and over stiles.

"Will I come to the town of Matacumbe?
The day I walked near twenty miles.
I heard then say, "He won't be found."
That was what the town folk said.
I walked into town around and 'round;
I was free at last from the ghastly Florida Keys.
-Carroll Wilson Boyce

THANKSGIVING GREETINGS

The Crimson and White offers you its best wishes for a happy holiday.
-Jean Hevenor