Our present traffic club

The Traffic Club and their methods is one of the greatest mistakes in this school. They have more members in the club than a police force. This part is all right if they would do something. Visitors to the school would certainly have a very poor opinion of this school. The grounds are being walked on, people are running in halls, candy is being eaten while walking from the cafeteria, and papers are being thrown at people, while the Traffic Club members dance, sing, and talk to their friends instead of keeping the students in order.

We believe that there should be a regulation that officers can’t be silly and that they must set the example themselves. Remember that President Roosevelt must be above criticism, and so must the Traffic Club officers.

We also believe some of the members joined because they could get out of class five minutes early; some of them joined because their friends did; and still others joined because they could get five points for their service (which is unjustly deserved).

Fellow Milinites! Are we going to stand here and see the school ruined and rubbish thrown around just because a few traffic officers are too lazy to take care of the grounds, and because they show partiality to their friends?

We believe that the club should cut down their members to the best people and reform. By this we mean to begin over and see that the ground is neat and the school is taken care of to the best of our ability. By doing this we will develop a fine school.

ETIQUETTE CLUB QUESTION BOX

Question: Is it all right for both the boy and girl to clap at the end of a dance?
Answer: The boy may clap indicating his pleasure in the dance. But a girl must not express feelings in this way.

Question: When I invite a boy to a dance should I dance every dance with him?
Answer: No, it is a poor policy. The usual ones you would give to your partner are the first and the last and others scattered through the evening. If there should be a time set for refreshments, dance the dance before and after refreshments with your partner.

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK’S PUZZLE

A pale sickly lady
With tears in her eyes,
Put in a plea for
The cause of the dry’s.
At the first peal of laughter
Which followed her cries,
She jumped in a leap—
’Twas such a surprise.

HUMOR

Teacher—“How many pets have you in your home?”
Erastus—“Fifty.”
Teacher—“Fifty?”
Erastus—“Yes, one dog and forty-nine fleas.”

QUESTION BOX

Question: Should the faculty members give an assembly program?
Betty Ruodemann: Yes, we always entertain them and it’s time they entertained us.
Miss Martin: No, the faculty members have too much to do without giving assembly programs.
Gordon Robinson: Yes, it would show us how to go about giving an assembly program.
