Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council, Inc.; Records apap193

This finding aid was produced using ArchivesSpace on April 14, 2017.
English
Table of Contents

Summary Information .................................................................................................................................... 3
Administrative History ................................................................................................................................. 3
Scope and Contents ........................................................................................................................................ 4
Arrangement of the Collection ...................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information ........................................................................................................................... 4
Controlled Access Headings .......................................................................................................................... 5
Summary Information

Repository: M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections & Archives
Creator: Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council
Title: Capital District Gay And Lesbian Community Council, Inc. Records
ID: apap193
Date [inclusive]: 1972-2002
Physical Description: 5.33 cubic ft.
Physical Location: The materials are located onsite in the department.
Language of the Material: English
Language of the Material: English
Mixed Materials [Collection]: X
Abstract: Founded in 1970, the mission of the Pride Center of the Capital Region is to promote the well-being of all lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer-identified people and those affected by discrimination based on gender identity and expression.

Preferred Citation

Preferred citation for this material is as follows:

Administrative History

Founded in 1970, the mission of the Pride Center of the Capital Region is to promote the well-being of all lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer-identified people and those affected by discrimination based on gender identity and expression. Based in Albany, the Pride Center meets the diverse needs of LGBTQ people in a ten county region. Their programs, both at the Center as well as held throughout the region, meet the health and human service needs of the LGBTQ community as well as educate and advocate for those needs in the broader Capital Region. As the oldest continuously-operating LGBTQ community center in the country, the Pride Center has worked to build a welcoming and empowering community for all people.

Scope and Contents

The records of the Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council includes primarily publications, correspondence, news clippings, and publicity materials. The publications include CommUNITY (1974-2002), Speak Out (1974-1978), Northeast Alive, and Capital District Alive among others. The inventory provided here covers only the publications in this collection. Additional records created by the CDGLCC are also available in the Department of Special Collections and Archives, but have not yet been inventoried.

Arrangement of the Collection

[The collection has no series, arranged chronologically.]

Administrative Information

Publication Statement

M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections & Archives

Revision Description

Converted to EAD Encoded in EAD by Conversion and encoding by ArchProteus 2015 December 2015
Processing Information

Processed in 2006 September by Kayla Misner and Tajon Rice.

Acquisition Information

All items in this manuscript group were donated to the University Libraries, M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives by the Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council, Inc. February 2005

Access

Access to this record group is unrestricted.

Copyright

This page may contain links to digital objects. Access to these images and the technical capacity to download them does not imply permission for re-use. Digital objects may be used freely for personal reference use, referred to, or linked to from other web sites.

Researchers do not have permission to publish or disseminate material from these collections without permission from an archivist and/or the copyright holder.

The researcher assumes full responsibility for conforming to the laws of copyright. Some materials in these collections may be protected by the U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.) and/or by the copyright or neighboring-rights laws of other nations. More information about U.S. Copyright is provided by the Copyright Office. Additionally, re-use may be restricted by terms of University Libraries gift or purchase agreements, donor restrictions, privacy and publicity rights, licensing and trademarks.

The Department of Special Collections and Archives is eager to hear from any copyright owners who are not properly identified so that appropriate information may be provided in the future.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Controlled Access Headings

- Social Activists and Public Advocates
- Human Sexuality and Gender Identity
- Albany, New York
- journals (periodicals)
- Capital District Gay and Lesbian Community Council (Albany, N.Y.)