Historical Note

The Legislative Correspondents' Association of the State of New York (LCA) is composed of journalists covering the State Capitol in Albany. Since 1900 the LCA has held an annual dinner in which it pokes fun at New York politics and politicians.

Scope and Contents

The collection includes administrative and financial records, correspondence, photographs, slides, and member files from The Legislative Correspondents' Association of the State of New York (LCA). The majority of the collection, however, consists of materials from the LCA's annual dinner and show, including invitations, tickets, seating charts, programs, scripts, video, audio, film, and songs.

Arrangement of the Collection

The collection is unprocessed and is likely disorganized. Individual items may be difficult to find.
