Historical Note

November Belford is a longtime activist and opponent of capital punishment who married a Texas Death Row prisoner Bobby West in 1988; he was executed in 1997. November Belford West launched a newspaper with Bobby West called Endeavor and later started a second newspaper, The Gathering.
Scope and Contents

The collection includes correspondence; clippings; newsletters, ephemera and other materials from abolitionist organizations; copies of The Angolite and other publications, including original copies of Belford West's two newspapers. In addition, there is correspondence between West and Harold "Wili" Otey, executed by the state of Nebraska in 1994, and a collection of Otey's poems which he sent to West.

Arrangement of the Collection

The collection is unprocessed and is likely disorganized. Individual items may be difficult to find.
