Historical Note

The Division of Finance and Business was established circa 1977 to oversee a variety of campus departments that had previously operated separately. As of 1992, the departments directly overseen by the Vice President for Finance and Business were: Controller, Human Resources Management, Physical Facilities, and Financial Management and Budget. The current iteration of this Division is called the Division of Finance and Administration, a name that was adopted in 1998. The Division of Finance and Administration oversees a similar range of operations as its predecessor: financial departments and physical facilities.
