Large Enrollment at Summer Session

FACULTY-STUDENT RECEPTION FRIDAY NIGHT

There is an eagerness and an evidence of industry in Summer Session students that is too often lacking in college students of the regular term. He who gives his summer to research and study rather than to idle recreation is professionally alert and forward-looking. In teachers these are virtues that used to be rare, but are now becoming quite common. It bespeaks great things for the schools of our country, and promises gratifying growth in our professional stature.

A hundred thousand teachers engaged in the public schools take too many hours of work in the class-room. They should return the teacher to his work physically and mentally refreshed. This cannot be done if either mind or body is neglected. Probably a majority of the teachers in attendance at summer schools prove the truth of this assertion. The school vacation should return the teacher to his work physically and mentally refreshed. This cannot be done if either mind or body is neglected. Probably a majority of the teachers in attendance at summer schools take too many hours of work in the class-room. They would do better to attempt less. They would be able to do less more thoroughly and so be more liable to gain real intellectual refreshment. At the same time the physical strain would be much less. It would appear, therefore, that those who do one or two courses in such a way that they can thoroughly assimilate the subject.

JOIN THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The tickets of the Summer Students' Association are now on sale in the rotunda. These entitle the bearer to admission to all functions given by the Association. They entitle the bearer to receive a copy of the "News" every week. They give the bearer a special right to have a voice in the direction of the summer's activities. The price is one dollar.

NEW SCIENCE COURSES OFFERED

For the first time in the history of State College courses in Physics and Chemistry are being offered in summer session. In the past there has been quite a demand for these courses by people who are teaching or intend to teach science in the high schools of the state.

The course in Physics, known as SS4, will be given by Dr. Carlston P. Power, assistant professor of Physics at the college. The course corresponds to the first half of the course in general physics which is offered to freshmen at the regular session. The course will include the mechanics and be from an experimental point of view. There will be lectures, recitations and laboratory work. The work taken up in the course will be of a practical character. There will be recitations and lectures daily at 11 A.M. in Room 150. There will be three laboratory periods, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 1:00 to 3:45 P.M. Three hours' credit will be given.

The course in Chemistry, known as CSS, will be given by Professor Bernard S. Bronson, head of the Department of Chemistry at the college. This course is different from any one given in the regular session. Its purpose is to give teachers of high school chemistry who have had only a course in Elementary Chemistry a sufficient background of chemical phenomena and theories. It is not a course for beginners and only those who have had a course in Elementary Chemistry will be admitted. In the course the following phases will be treated: Chemical theory and atomization, kinetics and molecular hypothesis, theory of solutions, formation, indicators, and chemical equilibrium, etc. The course will be given daily at 10 A.M. in Room 250. Laboratory periods will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1 to 3 P.M. Three hours' credit will be given.

ORGAN RECITALS

Summer students are invited to hear a series of free organ recitals to be given at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Lancaster street, below Swan street, on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock by Mr. E. Fr. Peel.

Hello, Friend

There is no greeting that expresses half the sincerity as a good, hearty, "Hello, friend! We are glad to see you. And that is the way we want to welcome each one of you, with a hearty handshake. From now on our paths will be more or less common. The best way to greet a fellow-traveler is to do as Sam Walter Foss suggests, "Step right up and say hello."

We are glad to see many of the old, familiar faces. They give the college life a more homelike atmosphere. But we are especially glad to see many new faces. With each newcomer our circle of friendship is broadened. Each one means something. There has always been a large number of formidable racket wielders at summer session who are always ready to have a match with any contestant. There will be singles and doubles tournaments for both men and women.

Then there will be organized hikes under the direction of the History Department. There is a great deal of interesting historical material in this vicinity, which will usually repay a visit. The History Department will also conduct hikes to points of historic interest, such as the Schuyler Mansion, Fort Plain, and the Saratoga Battlefield.

From time to time groups of students, who desire to make the most of their opportunities, also organize trips by bus. Last season there was a very enjoyable trip through the Berkshires along the Mohawk Trail. The good weather of Alvanity promises to make the summer session an unusually attractive occasion instead of a tiresome ordeal.

Then, to finish the season with a bang, there is the Kingston Point Tennis Tournament. You all have probably heard of this event. The all-day trip on the D. L. & W. Line certainly promises to be a great attraction. It will be something you will always remember.

Three boys were discussing the niceties of their fitters, each one trying to outdo the other. "My father just bought me a piece of paper with lines on it, and makes a few dots on them. That's music, and he gets $50 for it," said the first boy. "Oh, that's nothing," said the second boy. "My father writes out some words on paper and then preach it in church. That's poetry, and he gets $100 for it." "Oh, I shall be delighted!" "Sometimes when the weather gets warmer, I deal ye, Mike?" "M'Kren. . . . I'm on my way, don't know where I am going back strong. He said: "My father just writes out some words on paper and then preach it in church. That's poetry, and he gets $100 for it." "Oh, I shall be delighted!" "Sometimes when the weather gets warmer, I deal ye, Mike?" "M'Kren. . . . I'm on my way, don't know where I am going back strong. He said: "My father just writes out some words on paper and then preach it in church. That's poetry, and he gets $100 for it." "Oh, I shall be delighted!" ROUNTY CLUB ELECT DEAN HORNER

Dean Harlan Hoyt Horner has just returned from San Francisco, where he attended the national convention of Rotary Clubs. At this convention Dean Horner was elected governor of the Metropolitan District of New York. This is a most important post, as it gives jurisdiction over all the clubs in both city limits of the Big Apple. During his tenure of office many innovations have been introduced.

In selecting Dean Horner as district governor, the Rotary Clubs have made a very wise choice. He is an eminent scholar and a progressive leader. His term of office should be marked by some big strides forward.

OUR DIRECTOR'S GREETING

The students who have the time to go in library or laboratory beyond the mere requirements of the courses they are pursuing are the ones who receive real benefit. Mental drudges like physical drudges are liable to be shoters.

State College welcomes you to its summer session of 1922. Its director trusts that your sojourn here may give you the ideal vacation you have been looking for.

THE SUMMER SESSION OF 1922

Summer have large opportunities before them. The State Library, the State Museum, the Capitol offices, each and all offer great advantages to teachers. You will find here in Albany much material that will illuminate and enrich your work as teachers. Seize upon it; it will pass on to your students as a valuable heritage.

But there is also much around Albany to relieve the monotony of summer work. There is the Hudson river for boating, canoeing and larger or shorter excursions. For variety of beauty and recreation, you will find none better. There are the historical interests—Saratoga Springs, Fort Ticonderoga, the lingering evidences of the first steam railroad between Albany and Schenectady; the old Erie Canal and a hundred matters of historical interest in Albany City—all within the scope of an afternoon's outing or a Saturday excursion. And the teacher of science will find unexplored realms in the General Electric Company in Schenectady, or in the power stations of Spier Falls and Schaghticoke.

State College claims all of these scenic, historic and scientific interests as part of her耍orister equipment, and each student is invited, even cordially urged, to enter these great opportunities for study, in addition to the class-room and laboratory activities to which you will of course pay your first and more obvious duties. I hope the summer session of 1922 will be intellectually stimulating and fruitful for each member of our family. It can also be full of joy and recreative of health, our hopes and desires will be realized.
