Quick Succession of Social Events Promises Busy Weekend

Freshmen Are the Guests of Honor

The junior-freshman party will take place Friday evening, October 20, in the gymnasium. Everyone is requested to come in costume if possible, because the seniors want the freshmen to understand, however, that one of them should not be brought home because a fancy dress outfit cannot be secured. The program has not been announced as yet.

The committee in charge includes: Margaret Bayless, chairman, Marion Miller, Dorothy Johnson, and Margaret Bunton.

The annual interority tea will be given Saturday afternoon from three to five o'clock in the college rotunda. Each sophomore will have a card at which one of its faculty members will pour. The tea is an occasion for renewing of acquaintances; a time for meeting student friends in a social way.

The committee chairman for the tea are: Arrangements—Pat Gamma; Music—Elia Phi; Invitations—Gamma Sigma Phi; Ushers—Delta Omega; Decorations—Chi Sigma Theta; Refreshments—Alpha Epsilon Phi.

The gym frolic, which promises a great deal of fun for everyone, will be held in the gymnasium, Saturday, October 21, at eight o'clock. This is under the auspices of the Girls Athletic Association.

Among the events is a humorous dance called the "Indian Trot." It is hoped that the gym has been cleaned and that someone voted for each particular item in the budget in favor of this assembly. Last Friday (Continued on page 4)

VARiSITY LOSES IN HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

State College, making its debut on the gridiron for the first time in its history, lost to the Union College freshman football aggregation to two touchdowns in the first game of the season last Saturday on Franklin field, Schenectady. Although the final score read 16 to 6 in favor of the Garnet yearlings, the figures fail to describe the unusual showing made by State's men.

The Union frosh team, composed entirely of experienced first-year school players, started off in the first period in a whirlwind fashion, but failed to discourage the Purple and Gold jerseyed players. The Frosh kicked off the first quarter to a point beyond State's goal line. The ball was then put in play on the twenty-yard line and on the play the Purple gained the ball on the twenty-five yard mark on a fumble, but lost it on three straight downs.

State, unsuccessful in their attempts to return the Union defense, resorted to drop kicks. Union obtained the ball on their thirty-yard line and went over for a touchdown on the next two downs. Makofske, speedy Union full back, ran the ball over the goal line in the second period for the second and final six-pointer made by the Frosh.

Caton, State's full back, showed up the Union team in the third quarter, when he made a spectacular eighty-five yard end run for a clean touchdown, marking State's only tally in the game.

This play revived the fighting spirit in the Purple and Gold warriors and held the Frosh team at bay points in the last half, Longshin booting the ball over the goal for a "key" field kick.

With the result of Saturday's game, Coach Snaevly, who deserves the credit for putting State College on the football map for the first time in the history of the college, is confident of a good grid squad this year. State will tackle the Rochester School of Optometry Saturday at Rochester and from present indications the Frosh will be brought home to Albany.

On Saturday afternoon the Varsity football team will meet the Rochester School of Optometry eleven on the latter's gridiron. The cook is not to be the opponent of the opponents. If the men experience the men are confident of a favorable outcome.

The Rochester team is reported as having its backfield intact from last year and being very fast. The team is light, however. They have been playing football about three years, which is an advantage State does not possess. However, State looks forward to giving them a hard battle. Coach Snaevly has been instructing his men in new formations this week and correcting the mistakes shown up in the Union game. If the equipo works hard this week, the results should be bright for a good game.

A number of student brothers are planning to accompany the team. Only a handful of rooters supported the team at Union. The football spirit seems to be growing.

WHEN DO WE CHEER?

How about a Boosters' Club? Don't you think there should be a real live bunch of fans at State College? There has been no cheer practice this fall, and the football season is well under way. A week from Saturday the first home game will be played at the Ridgefield gridiron. You are all going to be split up into teams. Individual cheering may help a lot, but a big volume of well regulated noise will help a great deal more.

If we want to have a good cheering section for the game, we will have to practice soon. There should be plenty of fellows ready to try out for the job of cheer leader. Why not devote part of a chapel period at least, to a good cheer practice? We are all boosters. All we need is a chance to show it.

HELP WANTED

In the issue of September 26, the "News" issued a call for tryouts for the cheer leading class. The response has been good, but not good enough. More freshmen and sophomores are needed. How about you? The front steps to command the Frosh to upperclassmen from a freshman.

UNTIL THE 25-PUMPKA RUSH

It is rumored that a Freshman-Sophomore pumpkin rush was at tered on a Saturday night after the G. A. A. hike. It seems that some of the Sophs anticipated the desire of some members of the class of '25 to reach their lockers by the main entrance before the fall of the season. They formed a reception committee of upperclassmen from the front steps to command the Frosh to the use of the side doors. Aided and fortified the Frosh found the side doors locked and in their hurry forgot just where the sidewalk was situated at the corner. Thus when they reached the back door the Sophomores with arms stretched asked them to enter and give names. For a moment it seemed as if pumpkins and sticks, relics of In- dian Ladder, would fly through the door at the unlucky Sophs, but a per classmen from a freshman.

OUT OF LUCK

He looked at her longingly, passionately. He was young, handsome, de­ bonair, and a clean, white collar sat jauntily modulated neck. His hair was perfectly parted into two lateral-feather folds. She was ad­ mirable from delicate silk-clad clasp to her extraverbous marcel. Every line of her beautiful young body showed cleanly and sweetly through her apparel. They were perfect mates. He sat on one side of the antway near where she sat on the other side. What a pity for convention to keep two such perfect beings apart, for they can never speak to each other! They cannot so much as sit by each other. She cannot drop a handkerchief or a purse for him to pick up, for she has none. They can only stare adoringly at each other from the opposite sides of the ladder. For her "collar" was a liberal Man and she a Texile Hexity Beauty.

George Washington Chestnut.

"Daughter, did I not see you sitting on that young man's lap when I passed the parlor door last night?"

"Yes, and it was very embarrassing. I wish you had not told me to."

"Good heavens! I never told you to do anything of the kind!""You did. You told me that if he attempted to get sentimental I must sit on him."—Pathfinder.

The two groups met at the lower end of the trails, at the base of the mountain, to exchange greetings and get the word passed among the hikers. FRESHMEN IMPRESSIONS

The initiation of a young man or woman into college life marks the birth of a new epoch upon the threshold of which he passes and very swiftly he passes through it. The impressions made upon him the first few weeks as a college student are very vividly in his career. He is very evident in his career. He is very evident in his career. He is very evident in his career. He is very evident in his career.

There are no idle moments. Fun is in just proportion to work. The absurd idea that college life is a sea of 'good times' has entirely disappeared. We are young people, but there is always something to do yet not so much as to interfere with what pleasures we are in enjoying. In school we should gain the respect and true friendship of our fellow students, for it is for us to join with them in every way before the good is "Success and Happiness."

First, however, be naturally nice, but nevertheless obvious—we have been adored by the dignity and name of the Sophs. We cannot include Sophmothers.) It is that mark of a true gentleman or woman which makes us realize that we are not advanced far beyond the average high school student. We shall be encouraged, however, to aspire in time that inexplicable "je ne sais quoi" which so clearly distinguishes an upperclassman from a freshman.

The color scheme of the decorations of the college picture was taken, conditions must be respected. An appeal hall. It was announced that the dates on which the student tax of $12 was made to the entire student body freshmen to obey them while making the Kappa district; Miss Marjorie was present as official representative of the college. She discussed the Residence Hall campaign, giving an account of the negotiations to secure a site for the proposed new building, and showing plans of the proposed project. Miss Gertrude Schermerhorn, local chairman of the campaign, reported progress in Broome county and suggested a supper and tea as a means of raising funds immediately.

Various places were represented as follows: Albany, Dean Dear; Johnstown City, Miss Hope Duncan; Malone, Miss Ardene West; Oneonta, Miss Marjorie Plunkett; Deposit, Mrs. Harriet Ralke; Endicott, Miss Mary Pickin; South New Berlin, Mrs. Cornelia Lace Bagg; Miss Ruth Dixon; Binghamton, Mrs. William Hill; Miss Emma Wilber, Miss Gertrude Schermerhorn, Miss Carroll, Gage, Miss Ethel Hourck,Donald Tate, and Edward Springman.

The nght of the meeting of the program will be held on Saturday May 6th, Binghamton Press, October 9, 1922.

For the first time, this semester, the student body of Miss High School is given in the Home Economics Department. Miss Grace Magazine is in charge and the work has started with much enthusiasm. On Wednesday, the class had a shop sale, the proceeds of which are to be used for the further development of the work. The students are to be brought into the class in the Albany High Schools. The classes are large and the students are expected to give much experience as well as interest.

The students have decided to hold a meeting to be held on Friday, October 22, at Room 250, at four o'clock. The present topics will be discussed, important topics to be announced. All members are urged to attend.

The next meeting of the Executive Committee of the New York State Home Economics Association will be on Friday evening with Miss Gillett, the President of the Association. Plans were completed for the fall meeting to be held in Syracuse, November 25th and 26th. The Committee will hold a meeting with the Home Economics Faculty of State College, on Friday evening.

The guest speaker for this meeting was Miss E. V. Wilson, Professor of Economics Department. Miss Grace Magazine will address the group on the subject of "Social Control Through Education." A Girl Scouts' Training class will probably be organized in the near future by the Albany Scout Council. If so, it will be opened to the college girls without charge.

The annual dinner of the State College Women's Alumni Association will be held on Friday, October 22, at Room 250, at four o'clock.
