VICTORIOUS VARSITY PLAYS AGAIN TODAY

Squad Won From New Platz Normal And St. Stephen's MET VERMONT YESTERDAY

State's victorious basketball team will meet St. Michael's college tonight at Winthrop Avenue. This seven-man state varsity met the strong team of the University of Vermont, which is a new addition to State's schedule. The team left Albany at seven o'clock yesterday for the journey to Burlington. St. Michael's hopes to avenge the defeat suffered at the hands of State's quintet last season on the Albany court.

Captain Horning, Nephew, Kuczynski, Griffin, Carr, Gold and Lichhol went on the trip, along with Coach R. R. Myers and Manager William J. Clarke.

Two victories to their credit and playing with excellent team work, the varsity seemed to be as strong as those of previous tills.

Both games last week were satisfactory in every way. State trimming their old rivals, St. Stephen's, Friday night, 20 to 16, in a fast and exciting game. Saturday night the varsity won again easily from New Platz Normal school, 29 to 21. It was New Platz first loss in eight games this season.

The varsity played as a well-working machine in both games. Coach B. R. K. B. found strength in the crew and speed and pass-work that were a revelation to the fans. According to visitors and writers, the outfit is at least as good, possibly a shade better, than last year's. It is a young team.

Three of the men, Kuczynski, Griffin and Nephew are sophomores. Carr is a freshman. Captain Horning is the only upper-classman on the regular outfit.

These five men played the entire St. Stephen's game, holding up well against the squad of twelve men that Father Bray, coach of the Reckars, had confidently brought with him. The game was a walkover after the familiar fiasco the week previous and the work was more like that of the opening game than the later one.

Saturday night's game with New Platz brought out almost equally good work. With no great opposition to contend with, the game was a trifle easier to win, but excellent. Kuczynski was high scorer Friday night, while Carr, Nephew led his team in point getting Saturday, accounting for sixteen points.

In New Platz game, Coach Baker sent out the second string men twice. They held the visitors fairly well.

A Book of Verse Publication Is Now Assured Fact; Subscription Canvas Makes Possible Large Edition

"A Book of Student Verse" is to be a reality. This announcement was made Monday, when report from the twenty committee members who are canvassing the student body and faculty showed a total of more than three hundred subscriptions for the week ending Friday, December 11. The intensive canvass, planned to reach every person in college in two weeks, ends today. Results for the first week were decisive enough to warrant an edition of at least five hundred copies. The degree of success during the second week will determine whether or not the edition is to be enlarged.

Work on the book is being rushed to insure its delivery before the close of the College year. The selection of material has already been begun, and will be nearly completed by the end of Christmas vacation. In addition to alumni and students who have already had verse published, several unknown poets have submitted material for the book.

BASKETBALL OUTFIT MAY LOSE HORNUNG

Speedy Varsity Captain Likely To Be Graduated At Mid-Years

State College's varsity basketball team may be dealt a severe blow in its captain, and high-scoring forward, Captain Horning, last season on the Albany court.

Possibility that the speedy forward, who is the only upper-classman on the Purple and Gold's first string, and its captain, and high-scoring forward, may be dealt a severe blow in the game with St. Stephen's Saturday night, 20 to 16, in a fast and exciting game.

The vaudeville plans were discussed and the following arrangements made:

At the regular council meeting, held Monday, December 7, new varsity council also starts plans for March Vaudeville.

for the college. Cohen was elected by the student council to represent them, but the faculty felt that his activities against compulsory military training made him ineligible, and Peper, who had been selected by the assembly, was chosen. This situation, however, raised the question of how delegates should be chosen, whether by the faculty or the students, and it is possible that before the next conference is held it will be decided that the delegates should be elected by the students.

As they went on, the speeches became a little longer, and the questions more involved and a meeting which had started out perfectly organized, deliberating with emphasis and without repetition became confused and incoherent. They spoke in terms of the meaning of resolutions and the differences of opinion. It also became evident that many of the colleges which had sent delegates had given them no instructions as to whether the World Federation should make the Moselle a free zone or not. The round table discussion took up the cut evening Saturday, and were produced of some practical results. In the meeting over which William H. H. le Venee presided, one delegate was so in favor of the proposition as the World Court that he proposed that the Monroe Doctrine be submitted to it.

MISS WILLIAMS HOLDS AUDIENCE AT READING

Myfanwy Williams, graduate of State College, in the class of 23, and graduate of the American Academy of Dramatic Art with honors, was the first of our students of dramatics to play back to us professionally. At State College, Miss Williams was given promising work in dramatics, showing unusual talent.

Saturday night, Miss Williams delivered in the audience with her reading of "Riders to the Sea" and "Poor Madeena." Her flower-like personality scented the charm of "Poor Madeena" with a barre-toe whimsicality, and wept us from the furious "Pirouette" wonderland of moons on silver cords, roses without thorns and love without end through the pink door of home to the land of Italy. The portrayal of the characters was done with graceful, delicate touches.

WHALES BEAT CARPS TO WIN SILVER CUP AT G.A.A. SWIM MEET

The swimming meet held Tuesday, December 8, was an entirely new experiment for G.A.A. The contestants were divided between the two teams of the "Whales" and the "Carps." The entire meet was won by the "Whales." The following people won first, second, and third places in those events:

OUTING CLUB STATE'S NEW ORGANIZATION

An outing club will be the newest organization at State College. Winter sports have long been a weak link in G. A. A.'s chain. That skating, skiing and snowshoeing may approach first rank, a new plan has been adopted, which Leah Cohen, the winter sports captain, is carrying out. Opportunity will be given to sign up for membership, which means a new outlet for energy, enthusiasm, and pep.
