S. NILES HAIGHT

For the first time in the history of the State College Dramatics and Art Association, the annual production of the three one-act plays by the elementary Dramatics class, will be given two successive nights. Herefore, the plays have been presented one night only, but this year, it was decided to attempt the double performance. There is still another feature of this year’s presentation, and that is the difference from the traditional selection of a playhouse. The class has always chosen the Vincentian Institute on Madison avenue in which to act. This year, however, the new hall of the Historical and Art Society offered the opportunity to the elementary class, and this fact originated the idea of giving the plays a two-night run. Everyone has been most kind in lending assistance to boost the plays, and special acknowledgment is made to Mr. Theodore Hampel, who has been right man to the props committee, in obtaining the “unobtainable necessities” for the plays. Thanks are extended to T. Frederick J. Cannon, in whose charge the music program. Mr. Cannell has arranged for violin solos between the first two plays, and student singing between the last two. Due to the abnormal seat sale, it was decided to dispense with the services of the college orchestra, which usually functions in such affairs, to make room for the dramatic enthusiasm of Albany and for College students.

Commence Campaign Against Untidiness

Gertrude Sweetman has charged at an attack in war With Diet Today

Chief Chairman Named

State College has declared war on dirt and its ally, waste paper. Hostilities begin today with a chapel program of which Gertrude Sweetman is in charge. The first intensive drive against the enemy will last one week, until Friday, January 22. If this does not result in the utter defeat of untidiness, a year’s campaign will be begun with other drives at intervals.

At the head of the forces for cleanliness are Lorenzo Shaffer, ’26, and her assistant, Elizabeth Milmine, ’26, who bear the proud titles of Chief Chur- women. The other leaders (members of the clean-up committee) are: 1926—Margaret Stoutenburg, chairwoman; Ruth Watts, Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Watts, Richard Jessen; 1927—Mary Hart, chairwoman; Ruth Watts, Mildred Landwehr, Caroline Schleicher, and Robert Shiller-bow.

The duty of the clean-up committee is to see that the leaders’ title might imply, to scrub floors or wash windows. Influence student opinion that waste paper will not be scattered over the floors, that people standing in the corridors will not leave behind them the print of the sole of one shoe when brushing their shoes, etc. Due to the movement for the cleaning out of locker rooms will also be started.

On January 22, the last day of Clean Up Week, a tour of inspection will be made by Dr. Abram R. Prochaska, Dean William H. Metzler, and Miss Anna Pierce. To judge the results of the drive, President Prochaska has suggested that the committee hold office for the rest of the year, and institute another Clean Up Week if it proves necessary.

Your Duty - Do It!

Our College has declared war on dirt
The intensive campaign begins today and continues for a week on January 22. The student committee will make a tour of inspection. Whether they find the hall and classrooms tidy or untidy depends upon you. If each student makes himself responsible, the campus and the buildings will be kept in order. Remember that you must be careful not to throw paper on the floors but in the baskets intended for this purpose. If each student refrains from writing on the walls and doors, that by painting the wall, there is no doubt here is the end of the campaign will find our halls as clean as they should be. And what will happen then? It depends upon you!
Will you go back to the old habits of tearing paper and letting it fall on the floors? Will you continue to make future pictures on the walls because you have a pencil handy and nothing to write on? This unlitness is due, not to a lack of pride in our College, but rather to thoughtlessness. Permanent cleanliness depends upon you. What are you going to do about it?

Work without Toil

Ten or twelve hours a day toils the coolie. If he carries all he can, he moves one ton one mile in one day. For that he receives twenty cents.

Cheap labor! Yet compared with our American worker, receiving at least twenty-five times as much for an eight-hour day, the coolie is expensive labor. In America we move one ton one mile for less than one cent. The coolie, working by hand, accomplishes little; while the American, with electricity's aid, accomplishes much.

Plenty of electricity and cheap electricity — these are two great advantages which America enjoys over the rest of the world. While our present generating capacity is 20,600,000 kilowatts, new developments call for 3,000,000 kilowatts more per year.

To college men and women — potential leaders will fall the duty of finding more and still more work for electricity, with less and still less toil for our workers. For the task is but begun!

The Retreat closed with Mass at the Academy, Sunday morning, which was followed by the second Quarterly Breakfast. Marion O'Connor, '26, president, introduced Father Dunney, who spoke on the influence of the club members as a student group and later as teachers.
