THE SEA AND HUMOR IN NEW BOOKS: FACING THE PAST TO THE PRESENT

By Thorne Smith

32 pp. New York, New York City

Even if it were not for Oscar, this record of immorality and vice in the Lafayette Journal, reprinted in the Sunday paper, would have been of interest to all of us. It is interesting to find that one of the most popular papers in America has been charged with publishing such a thing. The papers are supposed to be doing a great deal for the betterment of society, and yet it is found that they are not above publishing stories which are as bad as any of the others. This is a cause for concern, and it is to be hoped that the journals will take more care in the future to see that they are not doing such things.

THE EXPANSION OF THE STAFF OF THE Truth

By Miss Futterer

52 pp. Boston, Massachusetts

You don’t know what that means? An expansion of the staff of the Truth. The Truth is a weekly newspaper that is published in Boston. It is written by and for the people who live in the city of Boston. The expansion of the staff means that more people will be working on the newspaper, which will help to make it better.

EDUCATIONAL ECHOES

By Dr. Croasdale

17 pp. New York, New York City

You are doubtless familiar with the work of the late Dr. Croasdale, who was a leading authority on public health. He wrote many articles on the subject of health and hygiene, and his work has been widely read and appreciated. The idea of educational echoes is a new one to me, but it seems to be gaining popularity. It seems to be a way of getting information about educational matters to the public in a more interesting and entertaining way.

TEN YEARS AGO AT STATE COLLEGE

From the files of the News for Feb. 14, 1917

"Lincoln's Birthday was celebrated by the students of S. C., by forming a square of red and white in front of the old slave cabin on Lincoln given by Mrs. William Strode to St. John's School of North Carolina. The "cupola" of the building served as a stage where the speeches were made. The band was present, and the people sang "Happy Birthday to You.""
"Education Is Most Vital Service Rendered In Democracy," Says New Book (Continued from Page One)

We have fairly good evidence that certain laws of life have persisted without a great degree of change," concluded Dr. Fainter. "We know not, however, how the human being definitely alike, and it is not of life, it is time. There is certain evidence shown that tend to show this same life has changed and some more.
