CALCIRAND OF EVENTS

Today
12:05 p.m. An Irish play, under the direction of Helen Dobert, ’34, will be presented in the student assembly today. The cost for the play will include John Bills, ’35, a sergeant, Robert Robinson, ’34, the typewriting, Bertram McNair, ’34, and Roger Bannock, pianist, the performers.

1:00 p.m. Oral credit examinations in German, French, and Spanish will be conducted in Room 20 of Richardson hall.

3:00 p.m. Beta Zeta sorority will conduct a liberty party for the honorary faculty members. Vice Vaughan, ’33, president will be chairman for the party.

3:30 p.m. The women’s debate team will meet a team representing Syracuse university, in the Lounge of Richardson hall. The State college team will hold the negative side of the question: “Resolved: That married women teachers whose husbands are employed should be inculcated as teachers in the high schools of New York State.” Margie Goldsand and Margaret King, members will represent State, while Sylvia Grossman and Rose Blakely will debate for Syracuse. Dr. Harold W. Thompson, professor of English and coach of debate, will be chairman for the debate. The selection will be determined by the audience.

Tomorrow
12:05 p.m. The men of the college and a prime lunch and ‘hall session’ for the men of the “New Fraternity,” in the cafeteria of Hurst hall, and in the lounge of Richardson hall. The meeting will be under the direction of Kenneth Christiansen. ’35. Faculty of the college are invited. Lunch and entertainment are the features of the meeting.

Monday
1:15 p.m. The Young Woman’s Christian Association will conduct a fortieth anniversary meeting in the lounge of Richardson hall. The meeting will be under the direction of Anna Steen, ’33, president. The slogan for the event will be “Salvation.” The meeting will be held in the lounge of Richardson hall. The meeting will be under the direction of Kenneth Christiansen. ’35. Faculty of the college are invited. Lunch and entertainment are the features of the meeting.

Tuesday
11:15 p.m. The Women’s Association will conduct a fortieth anniversary meeting in the lounge of Richardson hall. The meeting will be under the direction of Anna Steen, ’33, president.

3:30 p.m. The advanced dramatics class will present a one act play, under the direction of Anna Steen, ’33, president. The play will be “The Conquering Host.” The cast will include: Ben Belcher, ’34, the man who is the folk hero of Kenneth Christiansen, ’35, the poet; William Ryan, ’33, the Bishop; Donald Pearsall, ’34, a schoolman, and John Bills, ’35, the hero.

3:30 p.m. The women’s basketball team will play a team representative at Elm Park college at the city YMCA in St. John’s Field.