Court Reviews Rights

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) The Supreme Court said Monday it would hear arguments from the Chicano National Day Parade Association and other groups challenging a California law prohibiting parades on public streets.

The lower court had upheld the law, which prohibits any event that "interferes with the free flow of traffic or other public rights and privileges," but the Supreme Court granted the petition for a writ of certiorari, looking at the case.

Gas Tax to be Hiked

Abortion is a Heated Issue on College Campuses

By Simon Smith

The American Life Lobby (ALL) groups and defensive abortion activists have been locked in a battle over the issue of abortion on college campuses.

The topic has sparked a round of pro-and anti-abortion arguments on campus, with both sides citing various statistics and studies to support their positions.

Reagan Suspects Plot

In a recent interview, President Reagan expressed concern about the possibility of a plot by Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy to assassinate him. Reagan's statement followed reports that Libyan intelligence officers were planning to kidnap the president on his visit to Libya.

Affirmative Action Office Examines Sexual Harassment

The Affirmative Action Office has been investigating reports of sexual harassment on campus, with students and faculty members coming forward to report incidents.

The office has received hundreds of complaints, and has begun conducting investigations into the allegations.

READER RESPONSE

By John Doe

I am concerned about the recent developments in the abortion issue on campus. As a student, I believe that it is important for us to engage in open and honest discussions on this topic.

By Jane Smith

I support the right to privacy and believe that individuals should have the choice to make decisions about their own bodies. However, I also believe that we need to consider the consequences of our actions.

By Bob Johnson

As an active member of the community, I urge all parties to work towards a solution that respects the rights of all individuals involved in this complex issue.

Moses Named Top Track Athlete

Reno, Nev. (AP) — The University of Nevada at Reno announced Friday it will name sprinter Edwin Moses its track racket for the 1981-82 season.

The announcement was made by Reno Raiders Athletic Director John H. Silva.

Moses, who has refused to compete in track meets at any level following his third-place finish in the 1981 World Amateur Games, will receive a scholarship for four years in the track program. He also has set the world record in the 400-meters as well as the 440-yard dash. He also is the first American to win the 440-yard dash at the World Amateur Games.

Moses will be a member of the Nevada men's track team, which includes former Olympic champion Rafer Johnson and former Olympic sprinter Faye Johnson.

Moses has won five Olympic gold medals, three of which were in the 400-meter dash. He also has won four world championships in the 400-meter dash, including the 1981 World Amateur Games.

Moses has set the world record in the 400-meter dash at 44.13 seconds, which he achieved in 1980. He also has set the world record in the 440-yard dash at 44.95 seconds.

Moses was born in New York City in 1951 and began his track career at age 15. He attended City College of New York and later became a professor at the university.

Moses has been recognized as one of the greatest sprinters in the world and has been a major force in American track and field.

New Records Prove Swimmers Are Not a Fluke

by Larry Rappol

The women's swimming team, which had high hopes for the season, opened their meet in the University Pool Saturday. The Ephs hosted the women's swimming and diving team from Williams College. The Ephs were victorious with a team score of 173, while Williams' team scored 102.

The team began their meet with a win in the 200 medley relay. The Ephs set up the swim, and made them work for a meaningless bucket for the final victory in filling fashion by producing a time of 1:46.63. Emily Zadoorian each had two. Williams while Carol Lim placed in second after losing to Mount Holyoke three days before, they could return to the meet in the Berkshire Classic with two 17 point performances and Williams upsets Danes in the Berkshire Classic.

They did.
