3-Week Vacation Decreed For NY State Employees

ALBANY—As predicted in the Civil Service LEADER last week, the State Civil Service Commission has issued its vacation schedule for the current year. The announcement is to the effect that "a uniform vacation allowance in 1944 for permanent State employees (except institutional employees) has been set at the rate of one and one-half days per month of service up to a maximum of eighteen days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays but including Saturday as a full day.
Because of the shortage of personnel in all agencies it is imperative that this rate, established in 1943, be continued."

Formerly, the vacation period had been 17 days, so that there is a gain of one day for State employees.

The Commission's memorandum continues:
"Each agency will apply this rule in accordance with its needs of the service. It may be necessary for some employees to take vacation in instalments and for others to "take up the slack" as the work load requires. . . .

Vacation of all permanent employees may be granted after not less than six months of continuous service, except in the case of one and one-half months per year.

The Association of State Civil Servants, through its Executive Committee, has arranged with the agencies to prepare a separate memorandum for each institution and to inform the employees of the dates. It is predicted that it will be necessary to make up the time in this group, while those for other State agencies in view of the emergency situation are deferred until an additional session of the Legislature is organized."

The Association of State Civil Servants has said that this vacation period should be added to the 4-week vacation period to all State employees.

This amendment is made at the request of the Governor, who has ordered, as a result of serious pressure on the labor market, that workers be given a 4-week vacation and sick leave question be answered in the affirmative.

This is the tentative priority which will apply to all State employees. It is predicted that it will result in a saving of 180,000 man-days for the coming year.

The administration has promised New York City employees 750 promotions in the near future, but distribution of these boosts presents a problem. Several of the City departments could absorb the entire batch of upgradings and still have a big surplus of employees.

By way of explanation, the Commission has said that the number of employees failed to mention previous criminal records.

No one, however, has been dismissed for alleged business views or activities. Judge Conway said that there is too much within the field of investigation.

LaGuardia Goes to Work For Retired Employees

Mayor LaGuardia put his monograph machine to work for public employees last week. In a letter to Senator John L. (Jack) Page announcing that in his letter to the Speaker of the House asking for a new tax measure. In his letter, the Mayor pointed out that under the present system it is impossible to pay based on any part of the past service record of a man who has been retired for 20 years or greater than his contribution to the State’s revenue. In 2002, the budget of the city, in comparison with the other services, was between $500 and $50,000 a year.

Not Required

As legal precedent for the LaGuardia change, it was pointed out in an address by the Mayor in 1942 that the retirement income which is not subject to the same freedom from taxation as is now enjoyed by pensioners under the Railroad Retirement Act and Social Security. The top three men have contributed $25,000 to the Mayor’s campaign.

3 Men Give 25 Pints Of Blood in One Office

One of the most popular blooddonations circles in the city is the office of the Borough President of Manhattan. A Red Cross Blood donor pin is always available in this office, and the top three men have contributed 25 pints of blood in one office.

"They Lack The Knowledge"

So said the Board of Directors of the NYC Blood Donation Department Welfare Fund last week in a statement to the press regarding La Guardia’s health plan. In a letter to the Mayor, Harry H. Langdon, Chairman of the Board, the Directors of the Fund said, "Such a measure is necessary, and with all the information and resources at our disposal, we have endeavored to educate the citizens of this city in the importance of blood donation. Since the inception of our fund in 1940, we have been successful in educating the public, and as you know, we have over 25,000 people who have given their blood. In 1943, there were less than 50,000 people who gave blood."

The case is one of the most important in the history of blood donation, and with so many lives to save, the Directors believe that the prospects for success are good.

New Selective Service Rulings
Work Differently for Federal Employees

Federal employees took another licking at the hands of Selective Service, in the latest order on deferments. Men over 30, in private industry (or in State or local government) were assured of a long delay from the induction center. Those between 26 and 28 were assured of deferment if engaged as necessary men in vital work.

But the poor federal worker: Even though Government Service is classed as wartime, according to him, the Selective Service headquarters read:

As explained by one official of Selective Service, there was nothing that could be done because the government, so far, issued no general regulations.

And all deferments must be based on the result of an act of Congress. This means that the way for other men who have registered to ask for their deferment lies directly through the Department of Commerce and the Selective Service Board.

Selective Service hopes that the Government Department Boards will soon up that general law so that every deferment can be based on the result of an act of Congress and help the Federal employee, who is very much in need.

As for the Federal employee himself, he should look up the Selective Service regulations which are available in places where the Federal employees are stationed and apply. The pay is 75 cents an hour.

Want more work and higher pay? The United States Employment Service has 85 offices throughout the country. They all have information on good jobs.

For a more complete list of openings, write the United States Employment Service, Washington, D.C. This organization does not ask for money and tells only about government jobs.

The pay is 75 cents an hour. Time and a half for the night shift at 60 cents and double time for the night shift at 80 cents an hour.

As explained by one official of Selective Service, there was nothing that could be done because the government, so far, issued no general regulations.

2-Platoon System for Firemen Will Be Put Into Effect on a Piecemeal Basis

The LEADER received official confirmation this week that the two-platoon system for firemen, in effect now in Elizabeth, will be instituted in inclusive in the coming weeks. "Possibly within the next few weeks," the official, high ranking in the Fire Department, said at press time.

The LEADER received official word that the two-platoon system will be made gradually, and will not go into effect on a mass basis. The speed of making the changes will vary from district to district, depending on the number of changes that occur before each district reaches the system. It is possible that the changes may be made simultaneously in each district, but it is more likely that each district will be implementing the system at a different time.

The speed of making the changes is not known for sure. It is possible that it will happen within the next few weeks, or it may take longer. For now, the plan is to go ahead with the changes as quickly as possible.

The changes are designed to make the fire department more efficient and responsive to the needs of the community. By dividing the firemen into two teams, each team will be able to respond to emergencies more quickly and effectively. This will help to reduce response times and improve the overall service of the fire department.

The changes are being implemented on a piecemeal basis. This means that each district will be implementing the system on its own, without waiting for other districts to complete their changes. This will allow the fire department to implement the changes as quickly as possible, without delaying the process for other districts.

The firemen are being challenged to make the changes as quickly as possible. The firemen are being reminded of the importance of the changes and the need to complete them as quickly as possible.

A Fact We Learned
At a State Hospital

or editor took a trip over to Pilgrim State Hospital yesterday afternoon to see how 10,000 patients are cared for. To care for these patients, the staff should consist of 5,600. There are about 1,000, including physicians (only 33), nurses, maintenance men, attendants, clerical employees. Conditions are so desperate that your editor is inclined to believe one out of every two attendants. He saw patients performing all kinds of tasks without any supervision. He states there just isn’t room available,” said Soo Dr. Harry Worthing, head of the institution, who has tried every means of recruiting employees.

How do you do such conditions, the State Salary Standardization Board cannot to grant institutional employees the 15 per cent increases in wages he seeks.

This is impossible. If they have 1,000 available, and Federal employees may anticipate tough treatment.

Unfair Attack on P.O. Men

dest, the LEADER carried a warning that, as the result of an unfair attack on P.O. employees, Federal employees may anticipate tough treatment.

Unfair is not a word that applies to the postal work, Senator Clyde Reed, of Kansas, has suddenly become a tremendous difficulty during the wartime period, handled in large measure, perhaps, by a well-ex- tended staff.

It doesn’t mean that it’s customary, in this country, to pay overtime for overtime work, and that no postal worker is getting anything for nothing.

Salary improvements, he said, the attack upon one of the finest groups of American workers can be charac- terized by a single word—

Hypocrisy.

MAYOR LaGuardia flounders on City employees who hold outside jobs.

But if you travel in the subways, you’ll see that the City is making a great effort to get its men and women asking for part-time workers to fill lots and lots of jobs on the transit lines.

STATE CIVIL SERVICE BRIEFS

by THEODORE BECKER

Meatless Menus

COMPLAINING about meat rationing, the State Civil Service Commission evidently supports a status of national patriotism. Presumably, State officials are not required to participate in the general meat rationing program of the State. There is no law requiring State employees of the State to observe the meat rationing program. While State employees point out that the meat restrictions are unfair, no State employee can be deprived of his job because of the meat rationing regulations.

So He Hanged

This is revealed in a recent decision of the New York State Court of Appeals. It states that the State Civil Service Commission temporarily suspended the employment of a man who was ac- cused of hanging a meat rationing sign. The man was arrested by the police for disturbing the peace. The State Civil Service Commission temporarily suspended his employment pending a hearing.

But the employee took no action because he was not brought before the State Civil Service Commission. The employee was later found guilty of disturbing the peace and his employment was terminated. The employee appealed the decision of the State Civil Service Commission to the New York State Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the State Civil Service Commission. It held that the State Civil Service Commission had no authority to suspend the employment of the employee pending a hearing. The employee had the right to a hearing before the State Civil Service Commission.

One-Sided Facts

PUBLIC employees are generally not exempt from jury duty. Women, however, are not subject to jury duty for a period of one year.

This is true in most States. However, in New York, women are subject to jury duty.

Accident Insurance Available to State Employees

There's a story in this week's LEADER about John Jones, who ran down by a truck and suffered a compound fracture of the leg. It cost him $15 to get to the hospital in an ambulance; $250 for the surgeon; and other incidental expenses. The doctors did not expect to get their fees, but John Jones had a hospital and medical insurance policy which pays for services rendered during the time when you are sick or disabled. Over 400 people are receiving claim benefits right now and the total benefits run into the millions. No person in the State service can afford to be without this vital protection. If you are under 50, in good health, a member of the State Association of Civil Service Employees, actively engaged in State work, you are eligible to participate in this plan.

For full details, write today to Mr. C. A. Carlisle, c/o Association of State Civil Service Employees, 156 State Capitol, Albany, N. Y.

STATE ASSN. HELPS EMPLOYEES GET TIME OFF

ALBANY—A recent notice to members of the State Department of Mental Hygiene from the Mental Hygiene Department, says that employees may be granted temporary leaves of absence—without pay, not with pay, or with pay—under the state leave law which became effective July 1. The leaf law was passed by the legislature to provide a means of protecting the health of employees both during and after employment. The law applies to employees of all state agencies, including the state medical schools, state hospitals, and the State Board of Health. The leaves may be granted for reasons of accident, sickness, or mental or physical disability, as well as for personal reasons such as the birth of a child or the death of a relative. The leave must be approved by the state labor commissioner, and the employee must be employed by the state for at least three months. The leave may not exceed six months, and it is subject to the discretion of the employer.

This article is from last week's LEADER. We reprint it because it illustrates one of the everyday ways in which the Association of Civil Service Employees goes to bat for State employees. Little wonder, then, that members of the Association of State Civil Service Employees go to bat for State employees.

ALBANY—The social workers of the Association of Civil Service Employees have made an appeal last week to members of the Association of Civil Service Employees to contribute money to the Social Workers' Relief Fund. Since all classifications are under Welfare Service union, the appeals made were as follows:

Association Social Workers from Grades 3B-67, 7200 to $8000 with 50 cents; Grades 3B-71, 7250 to $8000 with 50 cents; Grades 3B-76, 7700 to $8000 with 50 cents; Grades 3B-71, 7750 to $8000 with 50 cents; Grades 3B-76, 7800 to $8000 with 50 cents.

In view of the fact that a college degree plus experience and training is required for all of these positions except that of social worker, the appeal and the hazards and responsibilities involved in this kind of social work with mental patients and the special needs of mental patients, it is thought that this appeal was justified.

Many Approve Request

The LEADER goes on to say, "and in view of the various other private and public groups which are working toward the training and the establishment of professional organizations among the social workers, this request is one which is well worth consideration."

BATTLE Cry!

Chinese soldiers have a battle cry: "Gung-Ho!" Literally translated, it means working together, an Americanism, it means teamwork... And teamwork is a word every American understands—in peace and war, in an American, it means team work, our service men, our home front. It means it wide our families, it means their future. It means in us to provide the material to do the job. It means your War Bond. And a very good buy they are, too. For every three dollars we invest in War Bonds, Uncle Sam promises forty-one back in ten years. There's no more honorable promise in the world! Buy War Bonds. They're a wonder ful investment—for you as well as America!

"The experience here has been both educational and pleasant," said Miss Hedie Todd, who has just left after a year as substitute teacher. "I have had many opportunities to see the students at work, both at home and in the school, and have enjoyed meeting the teachers at the Eleventh State School." Miss Todd, who has been teaching for the past three years, said she enjoyed the opportunity to work with the younger children and to see them grow. She also enjoyed the chance to work with the older children, who were more independent and more able to handle themselves. Engineering employees formerly with the State Labor Department have contributed heavily toward the war effort. They have given blood, helped with the various home-front activities, done everything that's been asked of them. As far as I know, you've listed blood donors. How about some recognition of all the many other uses in which state civil service women are engaged.

Job Insurance Case Up Again

A recent decision of the Supreme Court of Albany County on the history of litigation under the Unemployment Insurance Law is expected to have far-reaching effects. The case, which began in 1938, involves the appeal of several insurance referees. The first hearings officers appointed under the Unemployment Insurance Law were dissatisfied with their low ratings and filed a lawsuit to increase the rating given him for his service. The referee only when the Commission's deciding officer, N.Y. State Dept. of Labor, N.Y. State Dept. of Labor, determined court, but Justice Schonck in the Circuit Court of Appeals, had to be corrected when they are grossly arbitrary, capricious, discriminatory functions of the administrative agency. Its final opinion was that the decision of the Civil Service Commission was contrary to law and would not be supported on any ground.

LaGuardia on Draft Deferment

For NYC Workers

Fiorello H. He revealed that applications for deferment in the case of a group of piano engineers between the ages of 26 and 30. However, under the new draft regulations, it is not necessary for the City to request deferments of a man over 26. Government service age (as listed by law) is the War Manpower Commission, and City employees over 26 can be treated by their local boards in the same way as essential employees in private industry.
